THE SETTING

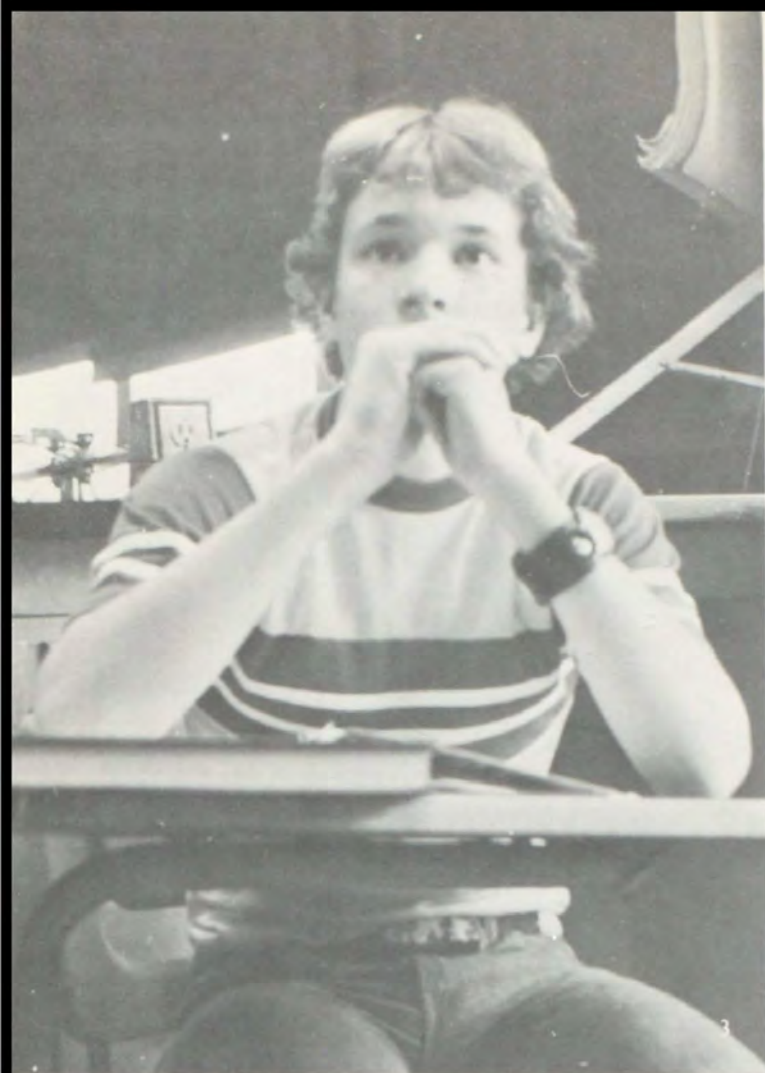

Picture a never-ending field of swaying corn stalks, golden in the setting sun. Add a few hundred pigs, squabbling and scrabbling in rich Indiana loam. Set deep in the heart of Clinton County, Clinton Prairie High School nestles on the outskirts of Manson.

WITHIN THIS SETTING, WE PLAY MANY DIFFERENT ROLES

1. "Guys and Dolls". Mr. Wagner with Raggedy Andy (Mindi Clawson) and Raggedy Ann (Kelly Lester).
2. Alan Rutan and Garry Pullen clowning around.
3. Kip Smith watches intently.
4. Gary Guest videotaped himself - fame at last!
5. Amy Smith reaches for the sky.
6. Colleen Dickerson and Lori Loveless impersonate Tom Sawyer.
7. Jay Rex loses another wrench in his engine.
8. Mr. Keihn guards the door.

THE CHARACTERS

The characters of this poignant drama, drawn from nearby pockets of population such as Fickle Flats, Mulberry, and Colfax, are a diverse lot. Clinton Prairie entertains the likes of impish seventh graders and blasé seniors, speedy basketball dunkers and seedy future farmers, and admirers of hot rods, Kansas, and bubblegum.

GOPHER WARS

The theme for this year's Homecoming was "Gopher Wars." Opposing Clinton Prairie on the field was an old rival, Clinton Central. The game was close with Clinton Prairie leading late in the last quarter. However, with less than three minutes left Clinton Central scored, making the tally 7-6.

At half time Ruth Boldt, escorted by Mike McCart, was crowned the 1977-1978 Homecoming Queen. She was crowned by Katie Wyatt, the previous Queen. The Homecoming Court included Pirkko Palmu, Alma Naughle, Robin Castle, Danita Roettger and Teresa Virgin. Following the game was a dance sponsored by Student Council, featuring the Luther Hale Band.

POWDER PUFF HIGHLIGHTS SPIRIT WEEK

1977-1978 was the first year for a football spirit week. The activities included "kiss a football player day," t-shirt and tennis shoe day, red and black day, and hall decorating. The most exciting event of the week was the competition between classes. The girls participated in powder puff football games. The boys tried their hands at tug-of-war, but alas, they tried too hard, for the rope broke time after time.

1. Senior girls show their homecoming spirit during the powder puff game.
2. Enthusiastic spectators enjoy spirit week action.
3. Mrs. Collins, as well as other teachers, dressed up on t-shirt day.
4. Did the rope break again?
5. Eighth grade girls ready to block the seventh graders.
6. Mr. Wagner telling his ninth grade team a secret play.
7. Mindi Quinlisk scores a touchdown for the eighth grade.

"PILLOW TALK"

PHIL ANDERSON AND PENNY BERRY COSTAR IN FALL PLAY

The 1977 fall play, presented on November 3rd and 4th, was the comedy "Pillow Talk" written by Christopher Sergel. Mr. Moyer was the director and had capable assistance from student director Debbie Rush. Penny Berry and Phil Anderson played the lead roles with supporting actors Sherri McCullough, Jim Paddack, R.K. Gascho, and Bob Cornell. There were also good performances by other underclassmen and considerable activity from the stage crew and make-up department. This year's production reversed the low-attendance trends of previous years; closing night played to a close-to-full house. Nearly everyone gave the play favorable reviews.

IT'S A MAD,
MAD, WORLD

CLOCKWISE FROM FAR LEFT:

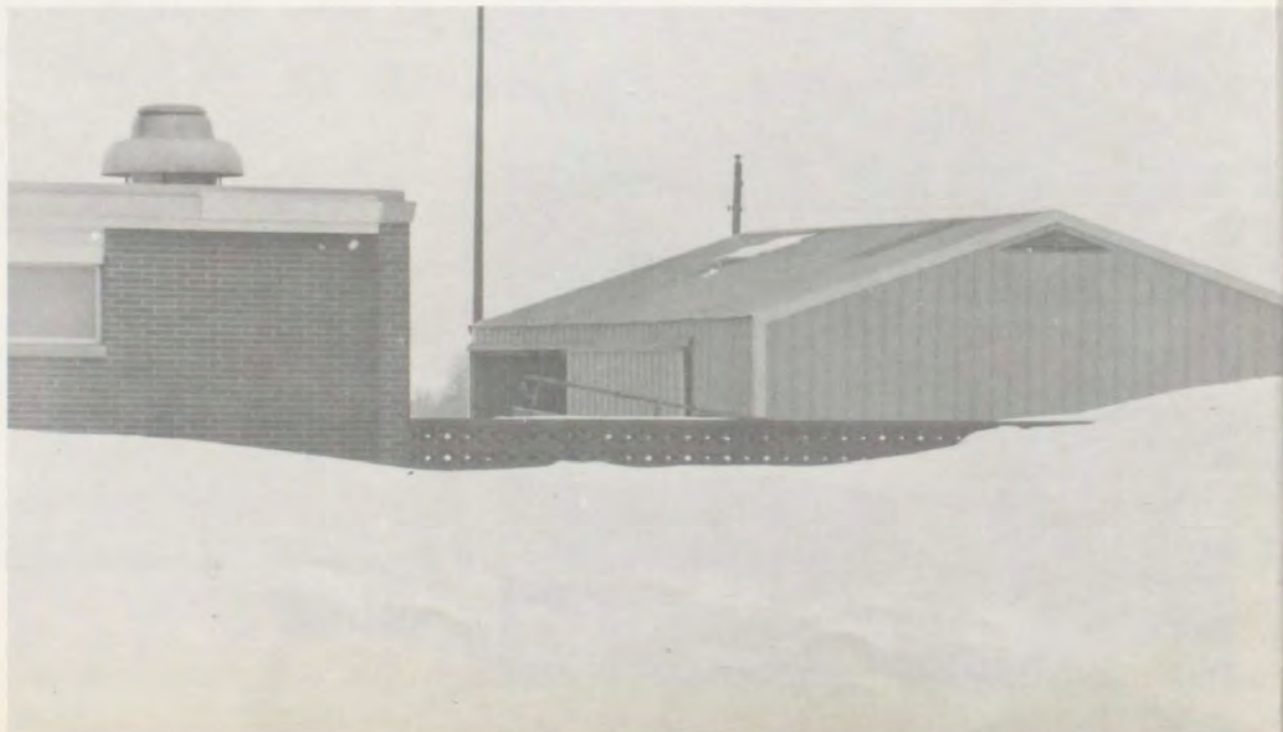

1. Nothing like starting off on the wrong foot.
2. Mike Biesecker has his first shower of the year.
3. Hello, city dump?
4. Is this the door to the shop?
5. An optical illusion: Did you see the lunch tray the first time?

THERE'S NO BUSINESS LIKE SNOW BUSINESS

For almost four-and-a-half weeks, students happily listened for the cancellation of classes because of the snow. However, when they realized that many extracurricular activities would have to be postponed or cancelled, their smiles faded. Because of the record snowfall and cold temperatures that forced the school to close, many of the teachers had to assign more homework and skip some material altogether.

COAL STRIKE LEAVES C.P. "COALED"

After the snow vacation days, students returned to cold classrooms with dimmed lighting. Clinton Prairie had to reduce energy consumption by fifty percent because of the coal strike. Energy conservation measures included the serving of cold lunches on styrofoam trays, preparing the food on the gas stoves in the home economics room, and limiting the use of films, typewriters, and power tools. The physical education classes were not to use the showers, so the instructors taught dancing, with some very positive results. All extracurricular activities were cancelled, and the sectionals and the Variety Show were postponed. Everyone seemed relieved when the coal miners finally accepted a new contract and things went back to normal.

WHITE CHRISTMAS

The multi-purpose room underwent a drastic change on the night of December 17, 1977. A dreamy mood was set with extensive decorations. Blue and white streamers billowed from the ceiling, and swaying tinsel stars glittered in the candlelight. An intricate snow scene made from construction paper depicted the Christmas Dance theme of "White Christmas." The main attraction of the evening was the crowning of Kelly Lester as queen and the naming of the king, Kevin Price. Other queen candidates were Sheila Lewis, Lori Loveless, Patty Minth, Pirkko Palmu and Rochelle Terry. Other king candidates included Phil Anderson, Jay Bailey, Doug Colter, Bill Hawthorne and Keith Newhart. The rest of the evening was filled with the music provided by the Dan Updegraff Combo.

1. Jay Bailey and Lisa Simmons enjoy the music and dancing.
2. After the crowning ceremony, Queen Kelly Lester and her date started the royal dance. Jeff Wilson and Mindi Clawson are on the left.
3. Keith Newhart congratulates the newly elected king, Kevin Price.
4. The entertainment for the evening was provided by the Dan Updegraff Combo.
5. Dan Webb introduces the court.
6. Shown here are Randy Smith, Sheila Lewis, Pirkko Palmu, and Pirkko's date.

HARDWOOD

The Clinton Prairie Gophers played the Sheridan blackhawks on February 3 in a key Rangeline Conference battle. The score was tied many times during the game. Eventually, the Blackhawks won in overtime by one point. The final score was 64-63.

During halftime, the Hardwood ceremony took place. The queen candidates and their escorts were Mindi Clawson and Garry Pullen, Susie McKinsey and Kevin Price, and Pirkko Palmu and Roger Bennett. The court consisted of Dee Lester, Jim Cullom, JoAnn Senesac, Bob Ramsey, Janet Driggs, and Brad Rusk. Then Janet Ruch, escorted by Benny Zobrist, crowned Mindi Clawson the 1978 Hardwood Queen.

Mindi, after being crowned, is congratulated by Janet.

Dee Lester, escorted by Jim Cullom, represents the junior class.

JoAnn Senesac, escorted by Bob Ramsey, represents the sophomore class.

BASKETBALL SPIRIT WEEK CUT SHORT

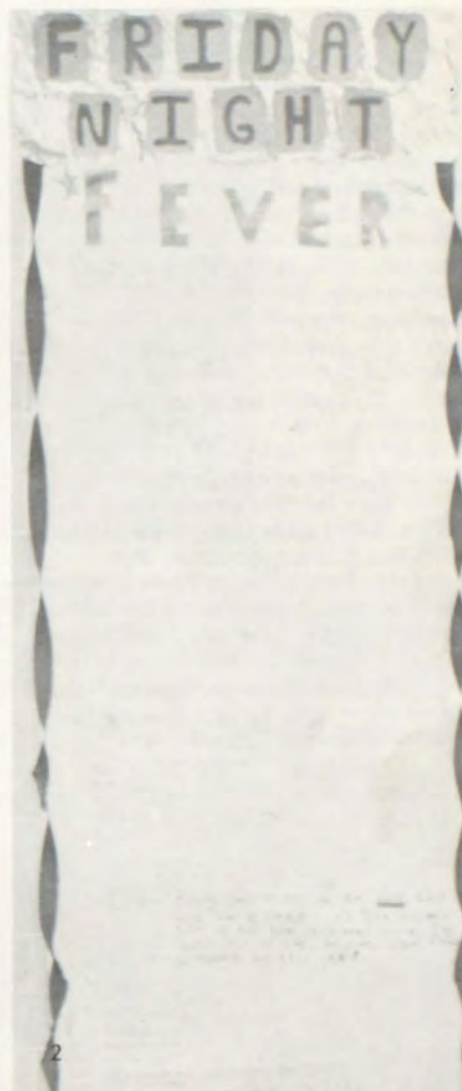

Weather conditions caused the cancellation of school the last three days of spirit week. Several spirit-building activities were conducted on the first two days, poster day and hat-and-sticker day. No class was named winner of the competition, although there were winners of the beautiful legs contest. They were Mr. Caplinger, first; Mr. Metzler, second; and Mr. Webb, third.

A pep session, highlighted by the dog Bernice eating hotdogs, was held on the afternoon of the final sectional game. After students yelled a cheer loudly enough, the boy cheerleaders were able to advance closer to teachers on the opposite side of the gym and throw pies in their faces. Students who had Gopher badges at the end of the day received their prizes for not talking to anyone without a badge.

MIDWAY MADNESS

After many postponements and delays because of the coal strike and snow vacation, the 1977-78 Variety Show, "Midway Madness," took place on April 19, 20, and 21. The show opened with a hilarious laugh, and from then on the audience was drawn into the web of excitement and laughter of a carnival-circus atmosphere. Ruth Boldt and Jim Paddack, the emcees for the show, were the ringmistress and ringmaster. Some of the acts included a freak show, disco dancing, clowns on unicycles, and music galore. Also, a few acts from previous years, such as the Dixiecats and Phil and Elwood, performed for this year's show.

Mrs. Estes directed the show along with the student director, Bob Cornell. Mr. Updegraff was the stage band director and Mr. Little was the vocal director. Sharrie Martin was the choreographer and Mr. Alexander was the photographer. Brenda Burkhalter and Susan Schoenrock were house managers.

1. The emcees, Ruth Boldt and Jim Paddack.
 2. Diana Thompson, Kara Downs, and Darla Rains sing a variety of songs.
 3. Carlos Mauro and Susan Bailey disco dance to the popular "Night Fever."
 4. In a side show suite, the senior freaks show off their beauty.
 5. Patty Fickle, Brenda Coyner, Stephanie Vass, and Carol Dillman as the Wal-tons.
 6. The new Barnum and Bailey-Stephanie Vass, and Brenda Coyner.
 7. The Dixiecats - Lisa Ruch, Brett Davis, Ron Nehrig, Mark Bradshaw, Roger Bennett, Mark Perry, Jim Cullom, and Mark Newbold.
 8. The junior girls sing and dance to "It's Friendship."
- Center: Lori Wampler and Lori Stevens in "Cotton Candy Capers" as puppets. The puppeteers were Sheila Lewis and Denise Hester.

Midway Madness . . . who can forget the clowns who played out their nonsense in front of the two huge clown faces and the tunnel of love? Then Phil had a hard time keeping Elwood under control and the "girlies" had to run for it. Single pictures like a kaleidoscope made a madness of their own: the red, blue, and yellow set, Bernies's slinky eyes, John's bird on a leash, Pletch on the high bicycle, the organ grinder and monkey, the audience gasping as Tom and R.K. actually came down the ramp through the audience, the calliope, and balloons, balloons, balloons . . . It was carnival time all right!

1. Clinton Prairie's own "Unknown Comedian."
2. Phil and Elwood tell the audience about some of the acts.
3. Pam Padgett sings "Send in the Clowns."
4. The clowns in an act of their own.
5. The background music was provided by the stage band.

1978 PROM

SEE NEXT
TWO PAGES
FOR MORE

The 1977-1978 Junior-Senior Prom took place on May 19 at 7:00 p.m. This year's prom was a first for Clinton Prairie, because it was held on the Madam Carroll, a riverboat, in Monticello, Indiana. The Zionsville Stage Band provided the music. The theme was, appropriately, "Come Sail Away."

At approximately 10:00 p.m., the king, queen, prince, and princess candidates were introduced. Nominees for king were Mike Biesecker, Lance Loveless, and Garry Pullen. Jill Davis, Carol Dillman, and Sheila Lewis were the queen candidates. Prince candidates were Gordon Gilmore, Bernie Smith, and Randy Smith. Janice Hawthorne, Penny Neal, and Jo Ann Stevens were running for princess. Mike Biesecker and Jill Davis were named the king and queen. The prince and princess were Bernie Smith and Penny Neal. The queen and princess were then crowned and given roses. After the boat docked, many of the couples went to the post prom at the Lafayette YMCA.

"STILL CRAZY AFTER ALL THESE YEARS"

GRADUATION PRACTICE

On Thursday, May 18, the seniors celebrated the end of finals and classes. It was MacDonalds' Day, and then the seniors had to practice for graduation. To liven up the situation, some of them wore their favorite hats instead of the traditional caps.

GRADUATION — A NEW DIRECTION

Commencement exercises for the Class of 1978 occurred on May 21 at 7:00 p.m. Mark Perry introduced the speaker, Mr. Ronald DeLong. In addressing the graduates, Mr. DeLong advised them to have "spizzurinctum," which, in a nutshell, meant for them to be enthusiastic, optimistic, and to keep growing mentally, emotionally, and spiritually.

The valedictorian, Joan Schmidt, then gave her speech, which was followed by a speech by the salutatorian, Ruth Boldt. Pirkko Palmu, the senior exchange student, gave her farewell speech, thanking the Boldts and Clinton Prairie for a memorable year in the United States. The Class of 1978 was then accepted and diplomas were given. After the tassel ceremony, the graduates were off to their prospective futures.

HYPNOTIST, HONOR DAY CONVOICATIONS

1. Joan Schmidt receiving her valedictorian award from Mr. Cook at Honor Day.
2. Student Council President Mark Perry presenting Lisa Ruch, the 1978-79 president, with her gavel.
3. Alan Rutan accepting the Student Council Citizenship Award from Mark Perry.
4. The audience applauding Dr. Morton Ford, the hypnotist.

ADMINISTRATION

TOP PICTURE: Mr. Cook, Mrs. Price, Mr. Fink, Mrs. Sims.

Mr. Cook taught government and economics first semester, and coached varsity football in the fall. At the beginning of the second semester, Mr. Cook assumed the duties of vice principal from Mr. Fink. Mr. Fink took over as acting principal while Mr. Keihn took a leave of absence. These two first-year administrators had a busy year learning new routines and adjusting to school out of the classroom. Mr. Cook's heavy hand with the paddle may have helped the discipline situation at Prairie. The secretarial duties were seen to by Mrs. Sims, who also directed the office workers in their daily chores. The responsibility of keeping the school running smoothly on a day-to-day basis kept Mrs. Sims hopping. As school treasurer, Mrs. Price collected fees and ticket money for various occasions and events throughout the year. Keeping club money organized was a big task, but Mrs. Price again proved herself equal to the job.

BOTTOM PICTURE: David Marty and Mr. Fink posing outside the multipurpose room.

MAIN OFFICE

Superintendent Bob Spencer, hired by the school board as direct administrator to the corporation, is responsible for the overall coordination and maintenance of the four school buildings. Mrs. Siekman and Mrs. Anderson assist him in the main office.

SCHOOL BOARD

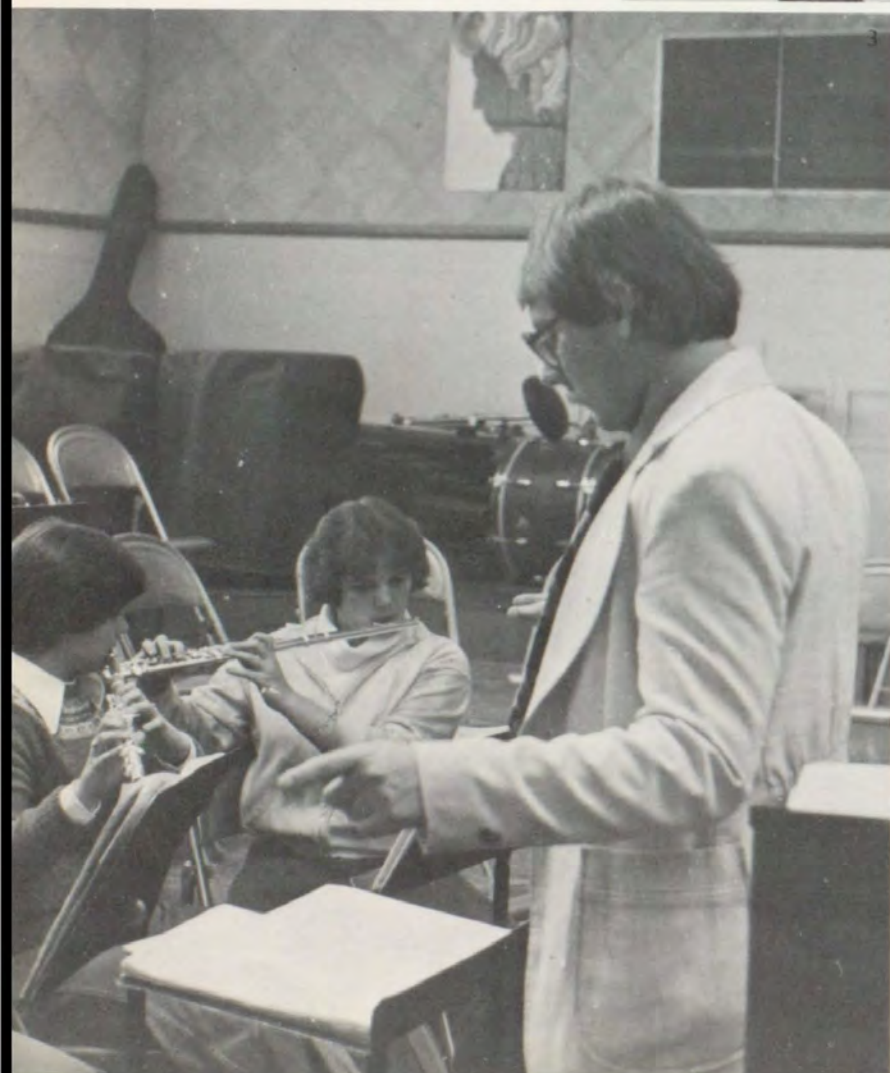

President Dennis O. Davis, Member Robert Cochran, Member Merle Pollard, Sr., Secretary Dave Dickerson, and Vice President Robert Moore comprised the board, elected to oversee expenditures and general administration of the Clinton Prairie School Corporation.

FACULTY

1. You may be wondering what's so funny. Actually, it's nothing. Mr. Cook and Mrs. Estes are simply enjoying themselves on a beautiful fall day. This particular photo was taken during football season on jersey day.

2. Mr. Baker and Miss Garrett are taking a break from the very demanding roles of teaching. Chances are they're having a sing-along together.

3. Mr. Little kept himself very busy with all of the singing groups. Here, he takes charge of yet another of his classes, the seventh grade band. He taught the band the fundamentals of music to prepare them for their high school years.

TOP PICTURE: Mrs. Prosser, Mr. Baker, Mr. Zafran, Mr. Croxton, Mr. Cleaver.

This group of educators was very busy. Mrs. Prosser formed Future Business Leaders, a new club, and taught secretarial skills. Mr. Cleaver taught business skills and tended the bookstore. Mr. Baker, also in business, kept us all singing. Mr. Croxton and Mr. Zafran helped us with our many class changes and with guidance. Mr. Croxton also sponsored the Student Council.

MIDDLE PICTURE: Mr. Little, Mrs. McColley, Mr. Updegraff.

This trio taught music and art. Mr. Little worked with the singing groups and the seventh grade band. Mr. Updegraff worked with the high school bands and the extracurricular bands. Mrs. McColley taught the many different sections of art.

Mr. Logan and Mr. Webb were busy with the agriculture classes and the FFA. They kept prospective farmers updated in the new ways of agriculture. We also had three new teacher aides this year: Mrs. Allen, English; Miss Martin, Math; and Mrs. Stambaugh, Library.

TOP PICTURE: Mr. Elliott, Mr. Fairhurst, Mr. Wagner, Mr. Svoboda, Mr. Fetters, Mrs. Christopher, Miss Bailey.

Mr. Elliott taught the related math, senior math, and algebra classes. He was also the advisor for the Junior High Student Council. Mr. Fairhurst, who was in charge of supervising the parking lot, taught chemistry, advanced chemistry, seventh grade science, and independent study chemistry and physics. Mr. Wagner, a junior high science teacher, provided entertainment for several groups with his guitar playing. Mr. Svoboda taught biology, seventh grade science, and supervised the concession stand at ball games. Mr. Fetters taught geometry and related math. Mrs. Christopher, sponsor of pep club, taught junior high math classes. Miss Bailey taught Algebra II and junior high math.

BOTTOM PICTURE: Mr. Adamson, Miss Meadors, Mrs. Arner, Mrs. Voegel, Mr. Riggins, Mr. Garhart.

Mr. Adamson was co-sponsor of the junior class, track coach, and taught United States History and a seventh grade social studies class. Miss Meadors taught a variety of home economics classes, including child development, family living, and housing. Besides being the sponsor of the cheerleaders, Future Homemakers of America, the senior class, and Sunshine Society, Mrs. Arner taught a variety of home economics classes. Mrs. Voegel taught junior high social studies, coached the junior varsity volleyball and basketball teams, and was the girls' track assistant coach. Mr. Riggins, who took over Mr. Cook's position second semester, taught government, economics, and world history. He was also the assistant track coach. Mr. Garhart taught seventh grade social studies, world geography, sociology, and psychology.

1. Miss Garrett, Mr. Caplinger, Miss Wood.

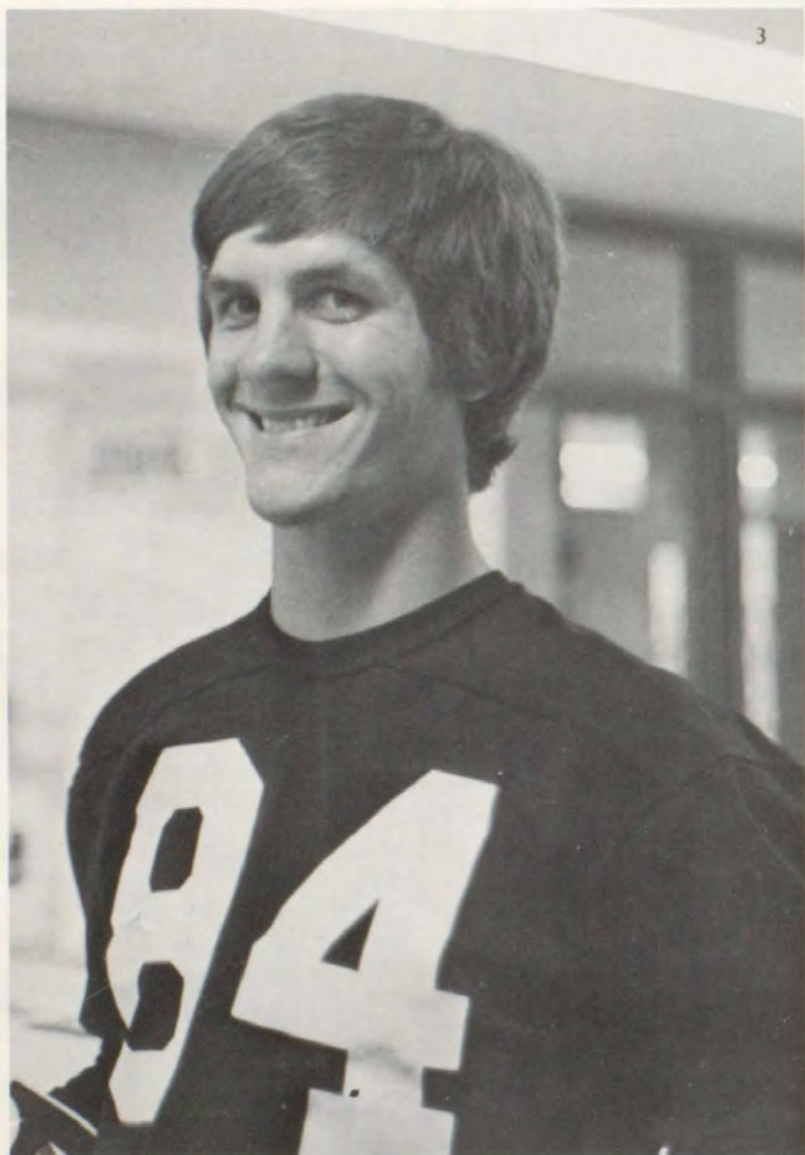

Miss Garrett taught the girls' physical education classes and coached all of the varsity girls' sports. Mr. Caplinger taught health and physical education classes. He also saw to it that there wasn't too much food throwing during the lunch periods. Miss Wood kept the library in order and changed the furniture arrangement frequently to keep students guessing. She was also the yearbook advisor.

2. Miss Meadors seems to be enjoying her work on hat day during Spirit Week.

3. Mr. Svoboda helps set up exhibits at the Science Fair.

1. Mr. Talbott on his way to the Football Spirit Week festivities. Mr. Talbott, who is famous for his beard, was very helpful with various printing projects.
2. Mr. Smith and Rowdy McKe having fun on the court after school.
3. Mr. Metzler flashes a smile for the camera.

TOP PICTURE: Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Dilley, Mrs. Estes, Mrs. Marshall, Mr. Moyer, Mr. Compton.

Mrs. Davis, sponsor of Spanish Club, taught English as well as Spanish. Mrs. Dilley taught junior high English. Mrs. Estes, who took on the large task of directing the Variety Show, was sponsor of the National Honor Society and taught a variety of English classes. Mrs. Marshall, who took over Mrs. Collins' position second semester, was sponsor of FEA and taught English classes. Mr. Moyer, director of the fall play, announcer at ball games, and junior class co-sponsor, taught a variety of English classes, including speech and drama. Mr. Compton sponsored Latin Club, taught Latin, and taught several English classes.

MIDDLE PICTURE: Mr. Metzler, Mr. Talbott, Mr. Kinsler, Mr. Miller, Mr. Smith.

Mr. Metzler coached junior high football, junior high wrestling, and was assistant varsity wrestling coach. He taught woods, electricity, and repaired audiovisual equipment. Mr. Talbott taught graphic arts and drafting. Mr. Kinsler sponsored the Industrial Arts Club and taught woods, metals, and industrial arts. Mr. Miller taught metals and power mechanics. Mr. Smith, the cross country and varsity basketball coach, taught physical education and was the athletic director.

CUSTODIANS

Martha Bridges, Jim Bridges, Frank Myers, Omegean Donoho.

The custodians worked hard to keep the school tidy and clean.

BUS DRIVERS

BOTTOM PICTURE: Bob Smith, Margie Fetterholf, Odell Loveless, Jim Hinkle, Bob Stambaugh, Stuart Ghene.

The bus drivers were those patient people who tried to concentrate on the road while kids made a commotion and the radio blared.

close encounters of the "club" kind . . . ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT COUNCIL

Sponsoring the Homecoming Dance, Hardwood Dance, and the "Share" program were all activities of the Student Council. Members also arranged a convocation featuring a hypnotist. The officers were Mark Perry, Pres.; Mindi Clawson, V.P.; Ruth Boldt, Sec.; and Lisa Ruch, Treas.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society, sponsored by Mrs. Estes, was very busy trying to raise money for its trip to Chicago. The members held several bake sales, a paper drive, and sold concessions at the play and at the Variety Show. An initiation party and a formal initiation were held for new members. The officers were Joan Schmidt, Pres.; Ruth Boldt, V.P.; and Susan Schoenrock, Sec.- Treas.

BAND

The band members put in many long hours practicing for pre-game and half time marching shows. They also marched in the annual Christmas Parade. Many of the band members competed in the solo and ensemble contest, and several received firsts. The band also participated in the band contest and the spring concert and played at graduation.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

FFA was very busy throughout the year. The highlight of the year was Ag Fest '77, held for the school and the community. The chapter also had an exhibit at Harvest Days, started an alumni chapter, and participated in state soils and forestry contests. The club attended the national convention and sent a member to a Washington conference. Two seniors, Phil Anderson and Keith Newhart, received Hoosier Farmer Awards. The officers, pictured above in the front row, were Ken Lee, Photographer; Sam White, Treasurer; Brad Rusk, Secretary; Mark Kelly, Reporter; Pat Morris, President; Todd Newhart, Sentinel; Neal Newhart, Vice-President; Susan Bailey, Parliamentarian; and a sponsor, Mr. Webb. YEARBOOK

The yearbook staff, composed of all first-year members, started off slowly but quickly speeded up production as the year progressed. Learning all the necessary steps was a big task, but most of the staff caught on with a little practice and a lot of patience. Toward the end of the school year, the work schedule became more frantic as deadlines approached, but under the capable editorship of John Schmidt, assisted by Susan Schoenrock, the yearbook was completed for the benefit of all.

DO IT AGAIN

This year's football team started out big with a win against White's Institute and a ranking in the top twenty in the Indiana single A division. Being ranked 17th was a first in Clinton Prairie history and the fans responded enthusiastically. The team, led with the passing strength of Lance Loveless and the running strength of David Marty, finished the season with a 2-8 record. Thanks to Mr. Cook, Mr. Caplinger, and Mr. Borgess, Prairie now has a team of which we can be proud.

The eight-man cross country team ran for a 2-7 record this year. Tom Percy paced the group as the most valuable player. Bill Hawthorne won the mental attitude award, while Scott Pletch was named the hardest worker. Scott became a member of the 500 Club after running five hundred miles this summer. Since senior Bill Hawthorne is the only graduating letterman, the returning team members will be on an experienced path to a new and hopefully successful season.

The 1977-78 volleyball team won the sectional, placed second in the conference, and had a 15-5 record. When asked about the team, Coach Connie Garrett said, "As a coach, my primary objective would be to see a team reach their maximum potential. This year's team reached more of their potential than any team I ever had!" Senior Jill Davis reflected on her years on the team, "It has been a great four years. Its been fun, but most of all exciting. Winning sectionals for three years, having such great seasons and having a coach like Miss Garrett has made me proud to say that I went to Clinton Prairie." Jill Davis, Peggy Graham, and Julie Thompson were conference winners this year.

NEAR PERFECTION

With a well-balanced team, the junior varsity volleyball players had a very successful season. Most valuable spikers, Brenda Graham and Darla Rains, along with super setters like Ann Price and Kara Downs, contributed to the team's 11 and 2 record. Mrs. Kathy Wallis Voegel stated, "I was privileged to work with nine super girls who personify what athletics is all about. Coaching was a new experience for me, and I was fortunate to have team members who entered competition with self-confidence and a keen desire to do their best."

MOVIN' ON

The 1977-1978 Varsity Cheerleaders began the year by attending Smith Walbridge Camp, where they received three superiors and a spirit stick. Co-captains were Mindi Clawson and Ruth Boldt. The alternate was Rochelle Terry. The squad cheered at all football and basketball games and was responsible for building up spirit throughout the year.

Penny Neal, Kim Reagan, Ruth Boldt, Jill Clay, Mindi Clawson.

JR. VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

The B-team cheerleaders had basically the same duties as the varsity cheerleaders. They cheered for all games, attended camp in the summer, and had practices throughout the week. Alternate Ann Price was a big help to the B-team this year. She cheered throughout the football season and a few times during basketball season.

Jo Ann Senesac, Tracy Lucas, Dani Roettger, Sharon Clay.

FROSH, GUYS

The freshmen cheerleaders attended camp, where they received high ratings for their pep and enthusiasm. They also cheered at all basketball and football games. The alternate was Amy Smith. Below, the guy cheerleaders display their sharp outfits and their spelling of G-O-P-H-E-R-S. The guys assisted the varsity cheerleaders during the basketball season and at pep sessions.

The basketball team had an exciting season, despite cancelled games and shortened practices held in the Jefferson gym. As the season progressed and the team continued to win, it became evident that the team had definite possibilities. Led by five seniors, Dan Cochran, Lance Loveless, David Marty, Mike McCart, and Carl Padron, the team put forth a great effort to the delight of the C.P. fans. Winning the Clinton Central Holiday Tournament was one of the many highlights of the season. This year the team had the best record (17-5) in Clinton Prairie history. The team also tied with Sheridan for the Rangeline Conference title. The disappointment of the season was losing to Frankfort in the Frankfort Sectional in a controversial game.

Special recognition went to Dan Cochran, Lance Loveless, and Rowdy McKee for being named members of the All Conference team. Dan Cochran was selected for the All Area Team and for honorable mention on the McDonald's All American Team.

B-TEAM

The coach and members of the B-team also faced the problems of shortened and cancelled practices, but the record at the end of the season was an impressive 16-4. Leading with awards were Bob Ramsey and Bernie Smith, outstanding contributors; Kent Brewer and Linzy Donoho, defensive hustlers; Glenn Pullen, mental attitude; and Kurt Milnes, outstanding free thrower.

JUMP BALL

This year the girls' basketball team had a rough season even though they had some outstanding players. For example, Jill Davis made the All Conference team and was named most valuable player. Jill also made Hoosier Girls' Basketball All State Honorable Mention. Tina Southern was the top rebounder, Debbie Thompson was the most improved player, and Lori Loveless received the mental attitude award. The team's record was 4-10.

GRAPPLERS — ON THE MAT

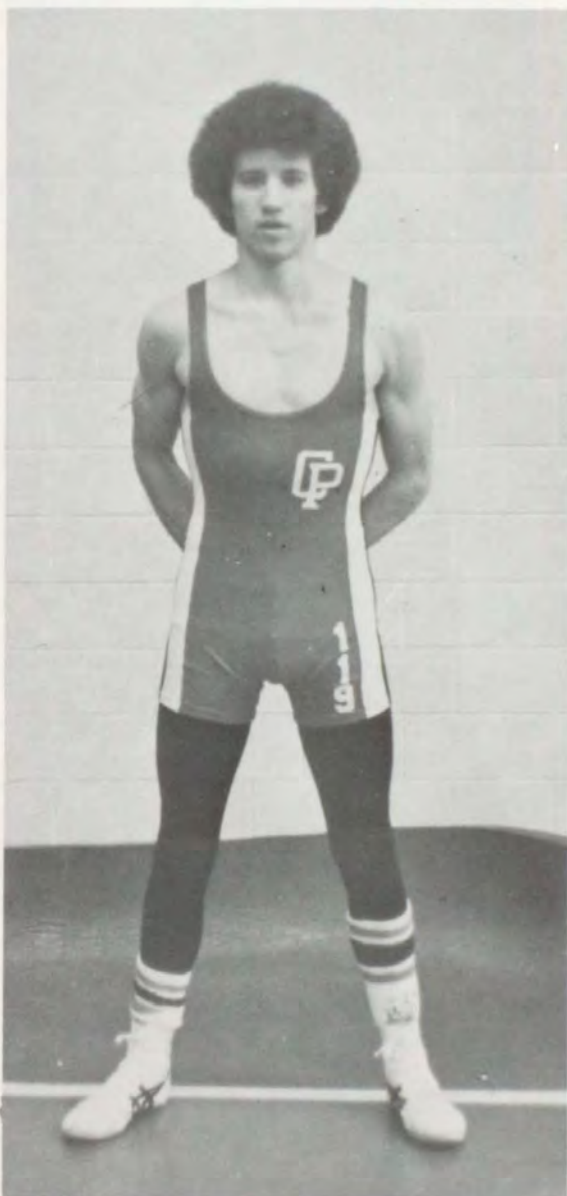

Despite the blizzard and three cancelled matches, the grapplers finished the season with a 5-5-1 record. Leading the Gophers were seniors Jim Rohler (15-4), Bill Hawthorne (11-5-1), and Tadd Hankins (7-8-1). Also contributing to the success of the team was the most improved player, Jay Rex (12-6). The grapplers placed fourth in the sectional and sent Jim Rohler and Jay Rex to the regionals for being runners up in their weight categories. The Gophers placed fifth in the Rangeline Conference with one champion, Jim Rohler, and runners up Bill Hawthorne and Jay Rex.

ON YOUR MARK . . . SET . . .

The track team had a very slow start this year. Because of the rainy season, many of the meets were not held. The team, with a season record of 1-6, finished fifth in the Delphi relays and seventh in the conference track meet. The highlight of this year's season was when Mike Biesecker, Bill Hawthorne, Bernie Smith, and Greg Young broke the record in the mile relay with a time of 3:38.8. This year's most valuable player was team captain Mike Biesecker. The most improved runner was John Robertson, and the most improved field event person was Kurt Milnes.

TRACK

The 1977-1978 girls' track team had an outstanding season with a record of 8-2. They were both county and conference champions. They also came in second in the sectional. There were several girls who competed in the regional and made All Conference. Tracy Lucas also went on to state. Individual winners were: Tracy Lucas, most valuable player; Kelly Smith, mental attitude; Jill Davis, senior award; Tammy Lind, coaches' award; and Tracy Lucas and Darla Rains, 100 point award.

The baseball team did not have quite so good a record as anticipated. The team missed half of its regular season because of rain. The Gophers, coached by Mr. Bob Blaydes and Mr. Dennis Kas, had a good start, winning the first three games of the season. The final season tally was 4-7.

Special awards went to Roger Bennett for the best batting average (.421), to Dan Cochran for being the outstanding contributor, to Glenn Pullen for being the most improved, and to Tom Smith for the best fielding average (.935). Dan Cochran was also selected for the All Conference team.

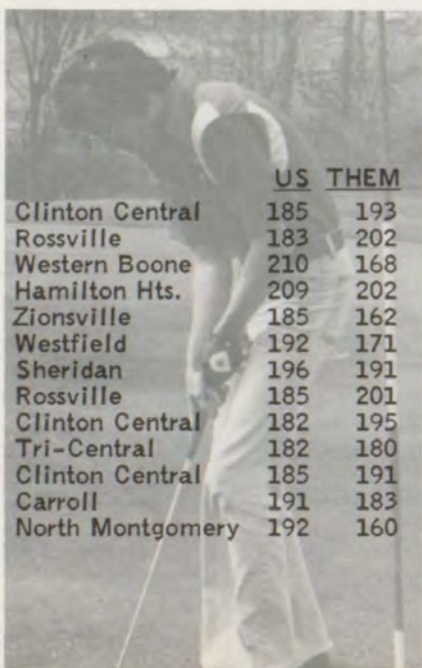

FORE . . .

The golf team finished the season with a 5-8 record, which is the best showing a C.P. golf team has ever made. Senior Jim Rohler was the medalist and had the most pars. R.K. Gascho was the most improved. Cris Bailey was the most valuable junior high player. Losing only three seniors, Jay Bailey, Brett Davis, and Jim Rohler, next year's team will have a nucleus of returning players.

Knapp, R. Ellis, N. McKinney, B. Hastings.

JUNIOR HIGH CROSS COUNTRY

The junior high cross country team had a split season with three wins and three losses. They ran one-and-a-half miles each race. Coach Dennis Kas had this to say about his cross country squad, "Todd Huffer was our number one man through most of our meets. We did not have a particularly outstanding individual, but our team running balance was outstanding for junior high. A good example is the Clinton Central meet when our top seven runners all finished within thirty-eight seconds of one another. As a team, this group was the finest we've had in the four years of junior high cross country because of its competitive balance."

FRONT ROW: M. Lipp, R. Brumbarger, K. Keller. BACK ROW: Coach Dennis Kas, M. Lester, M. Delaney.

JUNIOR HIGH TRACK

The junior high boys' track team had a successful season, ending with a 5-2 record.

FRONT ROW: B. Blackstone, M. Minth, K. Loveless, M. Delaney, K. Padgett, D. Clark. BACK ROW: J. McKinzie, K. Young, S. Walker, C. Walsh, T. Haughs, B. Shurr, B. Abbott, D. Frye, B. Robertson, Coach Talbott.

FOOTBALL-JUNIOR HIGH STYLE

The seventh grade football team, coached by Mr. Metzler, had a split season with a 4-4 record. These young players won their last three games and beat Clinton Central 24-6; earlier in the season they had lost to Clinton Central 12-14. Cited for various achievements were Marshall Minth, David Martin, and Brad Neff.

FRONT ROW: K. Loveless, B. Rohler, J. Campbell, K. Loveless, S. Wilson. SECOND ROW: K. Padgett, B. Goff, D. Martin, M. Clawson, D. Coapstick. THIRD ROW: D. Boggs, D. Clark, B. Dirbas, M. Minth, T. Kauffman. BACK ROW: G. Smith, B. Spencer, J. McKee, J. Toney, M. Linscott, Coach Metzler.

The eighth grade football team, coached by Mr. Baker, posted a 5-3 record and outscored their opponents 128-54. Kent Young ran for a 1139 yard total, a 9.9 yard average in eight games.

FRONT ROW: Manager C. Scott, K. Lashbrook, J. Senesac, M. Neal, B. Myers, M. Dieter, D. Ahler. SECOND ROW: Statistician M. Parnell, K. Mathews, P. Stevens, J. Ramsey, K. Young, S. Walker, B. Kesler, J. McKinzie, Statistician J. Thomas. BACK ROW: Coach Baker, T. Haughs, M. Mang, J. Fisher, G. Stevens, J. Grissom, C. Walsh, J. Myers, K. Mohan, K. Moore.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

THE YEARBOOK STAFF WOULD LIKE TO THANK MR. BILL CRIPE FOR BEING OUR COOPERATIVE AND CREATIVE PHOTOGRAPHER. ALSO, THANKS GO TO MR. DICK MAURER, OUR YEARBOOK COMPANY REPRESENTATIVE, FOR ANSWERING OUR NUMEROUS QUESTIONS, AND FOR HIS WILLINGNESS TO STAY AROUND UNTIL MIDNIGHT TO FINISH DEADLINES. OUR BIGGEST THANKS GO TO OUR ADVISOR, MISS JESSICA WOOD, FOR HER HELP WITH PHOTOGRAPHY, HER PATIENCE, AND HER ABILITY TO KEEP HER SANITY WHEN THE DEADLINES PILED UP.

GRATEFULLY,
THE STAFF OF 1978
