UNDER CONSTRUCTION

We, like Clinton Prairie Junior Senior High School, went through a building process. We built lasting friendships and relationships, knowledge, and skills. We structured our appearance, personality, strength, and character. We also developed self-confidence, pride in our school, self-respect, and our own individual identity. We went through many changes on the inside and out. We were "Under Construction."

HOMECOMING 1984

Homecoming '84 was held on September 28. Spirits rose when the Gophers went to the locker room leading the Tri-Central Trojans, and the queen ceremony began. Monica Smith escorted by Dennis Lenehan was crowned queen. Her court and escorts were: Seniors — Cathy Cochran and Troy Biddle, Angela Hester and Ryan Ledgerwood, Kristin Johnson and Tom Simon, and Rachel Poppe and Jay Pletch; Juniors — Brook Justus and Matt Roberts; Sophomores — Amy Hankins and Travis Ware; Freshmen — Renee Wayt and J.B. Barnett. The Gophers went on to defeat the Trojans 19-0.

CONGRATULATIONS 1984 VOLLEYBALL STATE CHAMPIONS

OPEN HOUSE

Parents got another taste of school life when Clinton Prairie held its Open House on Monday, October 22, 1984. Both mothers and fathers were given the opportunity to attend their child's classes. When "school" was out, they could discuss their child's progress with the teachers.

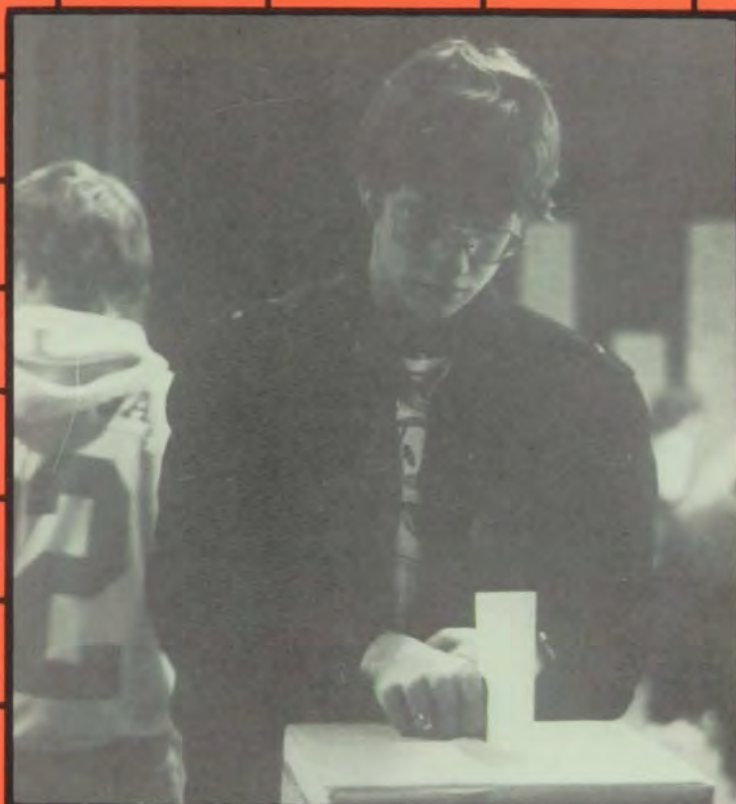

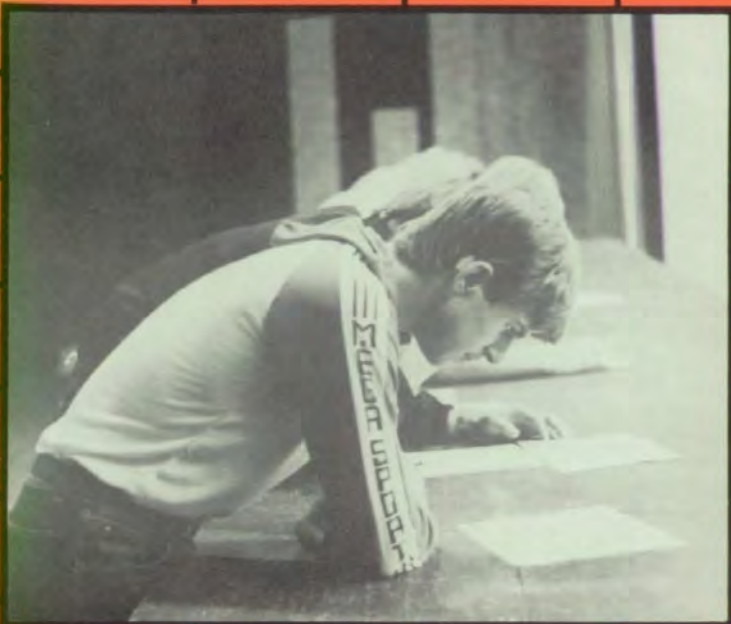

Also held that night was the Spelling Bee. The finalists were: Seniors — Jeana Reeder and Monica Smith; Juniors — Susan Deford and Greg Timmons; Sophomores — Amber Marshall and Carol Martin; Freshmen — Jeff Bull and Laura Marshall; Eighth grade — Susie Carmichael and Tracy Wayt; Seventh grade — Meagan Myers and Charles Waddell. Jeff Bull placed first. Susie Carmichael was second, and Susan Deford was third.

Every four years Mr. Chezem's Government class holds a mock election, and this year was no exception. On Friday, November 2, those students choosing to vote could do so during their lunch period. When the results were announced the next day, no one seemed surprised that the Republicans won by a landslide. On Tuesday, November 8, in the national election the results were the same. Ronald Reagan and George Bush were easily reelected by defeating ex-vice president Walter Mondale and House of Representatives member Geraldine Ferraro, who made history by being the first woman to run for the vice-presidency. Evidently, C.P. students and the nation agreed that United States was not ready to have a woman in a high office.

THE MOUSE THAT ROARED

The Mouse That Roared was the 1984 play which was directed by Leland Moyer and Linda Marshall. A small country, Grand Fenwick, declared war on the United States because it's economy was being ruined by a company in California. Grand Fenwick depended on the sale of their fine wine for the national good, but a winemaker was making a cheap imitation of it.

The leaders of Grand Fenwick enlisted Tully Bascom to lead their army into New York. Little was Tully to know that the queen, Gloriana the Twelfth, and two leaders wanted Tully to lose the war!

Instead of losing the war, Tully came home victorious and with hostages. The hostages included a general, two army WACS, and a professor who had just developed the most powerful bomb in the world.

The President of the United States and the Secretary of State figured out the whole mess and were cornered. They decide to sue Grand Fenwick for peace. A country, 3 miles by 5 miles in size, declared war on the United States and won!

Grand Fenwick decided to use the "Q" bomb to deter any aggression in the world. They made the world a peaceful place to live.

CHRISTMAS DANCE

On December 15, 1984, the Future Homemakers of America held the Christmas Dance. The multipurpose room was decorated in blue and silver. Each table had a candle centerpiece and balloons at the side.

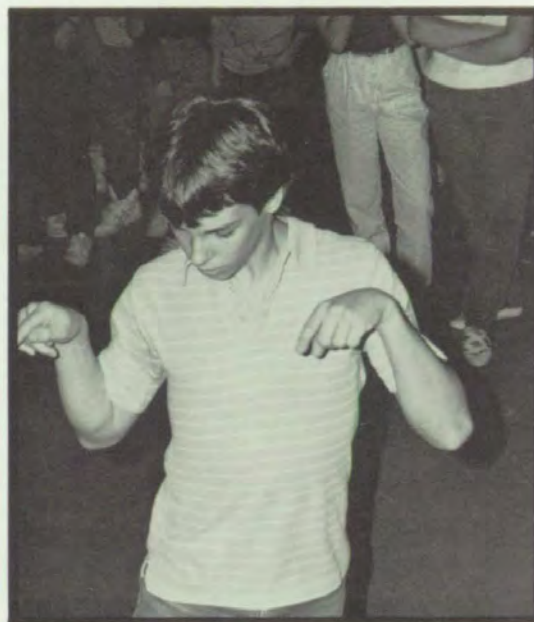

During the middle of the dance, Brook Justus was crowned queen, and Sarah Swan was crowned princess. Their court consisted of Amy Stewart, Amber Marshall, Katrina Lashbrook, Susan DeFord, Debbie Myers, Lisa Taylor, and Robin Latshaw.

Several couples commented on the many slow songs played by Rock Machine and what an enjoyable evening they had had.

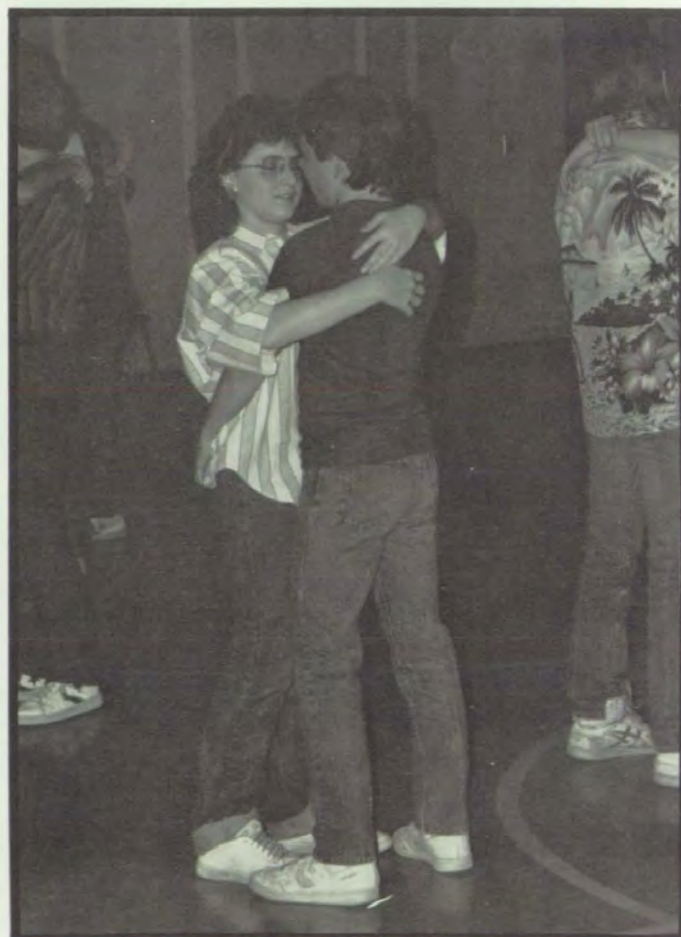

The junior high dance was held on Friday, April 12. It was sponsored by the junior high Student Council. Mr. Bostwick said that this was the best crowd he'd seen at a dance in a long time; over 100 students attended. Many new couples paired up to dance to the slow numbers while others learned to dance the "Bunny Hop" to the fast tunes.

Homecoming '85 was held on February 8. The Gophers were up against a tough opponent, the Carroll Cougars.

The highlight of the evening came at halftime. Cathy Cochran, escorted by Kirk Justus, was crowned queen. Her court consisted of seniors: Angela Hester and Dennis Lenehan, Kristin Johnson and Joe Oesterling, Chylene Martin and Ryan Ledgerwood, Rachel Poppe and Mark Humrickhouse; juniors: Kelli Woods and David Williams; sophomores: Dara Hudson and Pat Douglass; and freshmen: Renee Wayt and Jason Stillwell.

More excitement was added to the evening when the Gophers went on to defeat the Cougars.

VOCAL DIRECTOR
KATHLEEN WEDDELL

STUDENT DIRECTOR
THERESA CAMPBELL

DIRECTED BY
JAMES M. COMPTON

When the C.P. construction was baring all, so was Revue 1985. On March 20, 21, 22, "Backstage" gave audiences a behind-the-scenes look at show business. From a loud stage mother to temperamental "stars," theater-goers saw some of the hazards of directing a show.

I would like to extend thanks to everyone who participated in making this show a big success. Without their hard work and dedication, "Backstage" would not have been possible. You were The Best!

Sincerely,

Theresa Campbell

Student Director

Opening the show are the girls in the high school choir, singing "One" from the Broadway musical, "A Chorus Line."

Emcees Beth Gibson and David Marshall provide laughs even when they "do a scene straight."

Susan Witz and Rebecca Jones team up for a flute duet, "The Blue and the Gray."

Construction workers, Brian Campbell and Ed Lasiter, entertain as they "take a hard-earned break."

Julio Iglesias and Willie Nelson (Rob Mundell and Pete Gascho) make a special appearance in Revue '85 to sing "To All the Girls."

Juniors delight audiences with a nostalgic number, "By the Beautiful Sea." Student Director Theresa Campbell receives a director's chair from Mr. Compton after the final performance of "Backstage."

"Harriet and Josephine" (Beth Gibson and Teresa Campbell) advise David that Mr. Compton needs a hit show "BAD!"

The cast of Revue 1985 is the largest in recent years.

The '85 Junior-Senior Prom was held on May 4 at the Trails. The number one song, "You're the Inspiration" by Chicago, was chosen as the theme. The colors were pink and gray, and the music was provided by the Good Thyme Band.

In the middle of the evening Tom Simon and Beth Stevens were crowned King and Queen. Matt Roberts and Sharon Oesterling were named Prince and Princess. The court consisted of Sandy Albitz, Brook Justus, Craig Seager, David Williams, Cathy Cochran, Angela Hester, David Brettnacher, and Jay Pletch.

After the last song was played, couples journeyed to the YMCA for the Post Prom, where they boarded the "Love Boat."

Everyone was sorry to see the night end. It was a very special night: a night to be remembered.

SENIOR HIGH HONOR DAY

High School Honor Day was held on May 24 at 8:30 a.m. The high school band started things by playing "Pomp and Circumstance." Next came the presentation of awards and scholarships. Some of them were: Outstanding Boy Artist: Brad Cook, High Math Award: Joe Oesterling, and U.S. History Awards: Lisa Brenton and David Williams. Brenda Myers received the Spanish I Excellence Award, and Joe Clark, Dara Hudson, and Wendy Wiggins received the Junior Classical League Latin Award. The Dollars for Scholars Scholarship was awarded to Theresa Campbell. Angela Woodruff was presented the IVY Tech Vice Presidential Scholarship, and Adelita Moore was the first recipient of the Roy C. Cleaver Memorial Scholarship.

When all the individuals had been recognized for their achievements, the band ended things with a more upbeat song, "Footloose."

GRADUATION 1985

The Graduation ceremony was held on Sunday, June 2. Mr. Stanley Hicks gave the invocation, and Linley Pearson, the Attorney General of the State of Indiana, gave the main address. Joe Oesterling was presented as the class Valedictorian; in his response he asked the class members to use their minds and not let them go to waste. Kristin Johnson was then introduced as the class Salutatorian; she talked of going forward and achieving whatever one wants. After Chylene Martin declared the class alumni of Clinton Prairie, Reverend Larry D. Schuringa gave the Benediction.

If you can imagine it, you can achieve it:
If you can dream it, you can become it

High School was definitely a time when one was "Under Construction." The foundation had been built, and the time to develop the structure was here.

During this time, the teenager went through many changes. He learned to make his own choices and to possibly face the consequences that came with that decision. He learned to use good judgment and to act responsibly. He also, while striving to find his own identity, grew and became independent.

Yes, it certainly was a time for rebuilding. Now, as we look back with a smile of satisfaction, we can see what a great job we did of developing ourselves.

Being a senior is special. It means the end of many long years of hard work; yet, it is a beginning. A new world lies ahead with college for some and employment for others. We have reached the top, but now we must start the climb again.

Pictures, caps and gowns, announcements, memory books, senior keys, and name cards were some expensive purchases that seniors made for the great escape ... GRADUATION.

The class of 1985 participated in many activities during their senior year. They won the Homecoming float competition. This was especially nice since all materials used were compliments of C.P. They also held a mock election as a project in Mr. Chezem's government class. The seniors dominated the school play's cast this year, and also participated in "Backstage," the 1985 Revue.

As seniors looked forward to graduation, they weren't sure if they were ready for life outside of C.P.

There were four foreign exchange students at Clinton Prairie last year. They were Algie Abrantes from the Philippines, Katrin Kolling from Germany, Paco Rodriguez from Spain, and Akane Shinohara from Japan. These teenagers arrived in Clinton County in August, spent the entire school year with us, and returned to their country in July.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS

Algie was a member of the Gordon Logan family during his visit. He was involved in the Revue and cheerleading. His favorite American pasttimes were watching movies, playing family games, and going to dances. His favorite past-times in the Philippines are watching movies, going to the disco, and talking with family and friends.

Katrin enjoys pop and jazz music. Her favorite color is yellow, and her favorite food is pizza. In Germany she likes to sit with friends, read, play handball, play the guitar and recorder, and sing. Here, she liked to eat pizza, shop, go out with friends, and listen to music. Katrin was also a member of the track team.

Paco enjoys all kinds of food, especially dishes prepared by his mother. He likes slow music, and his favorite singer is Miguel Ríos. His favorite pasttimes are eating pizza, playing pool, bowling, cruising around the town, and partying.

In Spain, Paco attended a larger school with approximately 2,500 students. The ages ranged from three years to eighteen.

Paco commented that the United States was as he expected; however, he thought Americans would be taller.

Believe it or not, but Akane did not own a pair of blue jeans until she came to the United States! In Japan she wore a shirt or a sweater and a skirt. Her favorite foods are fruits and vegetables (another believe it or not!), and her favorite colors are red, white, and pink. When she was not cheerleading or attending the volleyball and basketball games. Akane liked listening to her favorite group, Duran Duran. She enjoys shopping with her friends and performing in rhythmic gymnastics in Japan.

We were very fortunate in having these four at our school. It was a pleasure getting to know them, teaching them about our way of life, and learning about theirs. We will miss each one of them very much.

Juniors

The juniors were quite visible around CPHS this year. It was normal to see them selling M & M's between classes. All their work helped for the Prom, and the extra money was used for a class trip to King's Island.

Juniors also made their mark by being active in many clubs and extra-curricular activities. The junior representatives in the Spelling Bee finals were Susan Deford and Greg Timmons. Brook Justus was chosen as the Homecoming representative; she was escorted by Matt Roberts. She was also queen of the FHA Christmas Dance. During Hardwood ceremonies, Kelli Woods represented the junior class; she was escorted by David Williams.

Serving as junior class members of the Student Council were David Williams, Libbi Lenehan, Sherri Eldridge and Penny Neff. Some of these students also served as class officers. They were president, David Williams; Vice-president, Sherri Eldridge; secretary, Lisa Taylor; and treasurer, Sharon Oesterling. Mrs. Hudson and Mr. Segraves were class sponsors.

In the spring, the class united for a group number in the Revue. They sang and danced to "By the Beautiful Sea." This and other year-end activities made the juniors look to the future. They looked forward to being the first class to graduate from the remodeled building.

Sophomores

"1-9-8-7, We're the class of '87, yea, rah, sophomores!" This year the sophomores had a "Let's Go Crazy" year as we moved one step closer to the great year of '87.

The sophomores had several classmates who won honors. Our Homecoming representative for this year was Amy Hankins; she was escorted by Travis Ware. Our Hardwood representative was Dara Hudson; she was escorted by Pat Douglass. Carol Martin, and Amber Marshall were our Spelling Bee finalists for this year. Also, during the annual FHA Christmas dance, sophomore Sarah Swan was crowned princess.

The sophomore girls had an act in the Revue this year. They danced to "She Works Hard For The Money" and had a great time being waitresses. This was the first year our class had an act in the Revue. It's a tradition we hope to continue.

The sophomore class officers for this year were president, Dara Hudson; vice president, Sarah Swan; secretary, Missy Roberts; and treasurer, Travis Ware. Our Student Council representatives were: Dara Hudson, Pat Douglass, Amber Marshall, and Tom Smith.

Freshmen

The class of 1988 participated in many extra-curricular activities throughout the year. Renee Wayt was chosen as the Homecoming and Hardwood representative. For Homecoming, she was escorted by J.B. Barnett; for Hardwood, her escort was Jason Stillwell. Their Hardwood float, "Trojan Busters," won second place in the float competition, which made all the long hours of work worthwhile.

After a basketball game, the class sponsored a dance which brought in some extra money. Rock Machine provided music. Also, several freshmen delighted the audience in the 1985 Revue; they sang "Big and Round".

Leading the class as officers were Angie Friedrich, president; Wendy Elliott, vice-president; Angie Lambert, secretary; and Renee Wayt, treasurer. Mr. Cox and Mrs. Dull were the class sponsors.

This year even clubs were "Under Construction." Because of Governor Orr's "great" Education Bill, club period was found to be uneducational and was dropped.

We, therefore, went through a big change. Instead of meeting during school, we had to crawl out of bed earlier to be at school by 8:00 in the morning!

There were many clubs offered at C.P. Spanish Club and Latin Club were offered to those interested in foreign languages. Students interested in writing could belong to the Newspaper or Yearbook Staff. For the future farmers and teachers there were FFA and FEA. Another popular club was the Casper Fan Club. This club was organized in honor of Mike McKinnis and his white legs.

By offering these clubs and others, students were able to build leadership skills and were given a sense of responsibility.

Junior High was one of the most trying times one ventured through. It was the time to tear down the old surface and start a new one.

There were many adjustments these students had to make. They were surrounded by unfamiliar teachers, locker combinations, classes, and faces.

However, as time went by, the seventh and eighth graders learned that five minutes was more than enough time to get to class, Clinton Prairie wasn't as big as it seemed, most of the upperclassmen were friendly, and no one really got "de-pantsed."

These kids went through a tough reconstruction period and came out better than before.

JUNIOR HIGH

8th Grade Class Of 1989

As the eighth graders were settling into their junior high life, the construction broke into their routine this fall. Even so, they overcame the fumes, dust, and classroom changes to have a good year.

The class officers were Tracy Miller, president; David Reagan, vice-president; Rachel Surface, secretary; and Kim Short, treasurer. In the fall, they organized a dance for the class. Everyone who went had a good time. Tracy Wayt and Susie Carmichael earned honors as representatives for the Spelling Bee finals. Susie challenged the upperclassmen by placing 2nd overall. The class also put up a gallant effort in the Electronic Bookshelf contest and did quite well. In the spring students had to take achievements tests which took up several classroom hours!

This year for the eighth grade was fun. Football, volleyball, and basketball games gave them time to socialize. They cheered on the teams and looked forward to being freshmen.

7th Grade Class Of 1990

The school was obviously under construction, and so were the ideas of the seventh graders.

Most were afraid of the upperclassmen, but they soon learned that they had nothing to fear. Nervous about finding their classes or remembering their locker combinations, they finally settled into the junior high routine.

Two classmates, Megan Myers and Charles Waddell participated in the Spelling Bee finals held October 22. Although an upper-classman won, they both put forth an extraordinary effort. Craig Beaver, Kim Cook, and Lorra Lenehan tried something that had never been done by Jr. High students; they participated at the McCutcheon speech meet and did quite well. In turn, this encouraged many others to try their hands at speech.

In December the class elected class officers. In charge of the class duties were Mark Lane, president; Jenny Myers, vice-president; Megan Myers, secretary; and Naomi McGraw, treasurer. Their efforts led their class to a successful year!

Jr. High Student Council

The Jr. High Student Council involved themselves in several activities throughout the year. In the fall they filled the show-case with anti-smoking literature. To help out the community at Christmas, they donated to the SHARE program; council members also participated in Pepi jump rope for heart. In the spring, a dance was sponsored for both the 7th and 8th grades.

7th Grade Cheerleaders

This year's seventh grade cheerleaders showed their spirit for the team. They backed the team and kept them going when defeat was in sight. Overall, the cheerleaders worked hard and never let the team down. They fought the freezing cold of football games and the heat of the gym and still kept smiling.

They were 8th grader Amy Roberts and 7th grader Jennie Myers. Coach Shirar said, "The girls played as a team and had good skills."

The junior high B-team was coached by Mary Ann Pulley. They had a 5-5 season record. Mary Ann Pulley said, "The team had a very good year, and there were too many good players to mention any single one."

Junior High Wrestling

The junior high wrestling team had an average season. There were no records broken. All of the members gave 110%. About the team, Coach Brady said, "It was a rough year with only 8 men. Our backs were to the wall, but we came out fighting. To use an old cliché, we were the few, the proud, the junior high wrestlers. They have the future of Clinton Prairie in their blood."

The 7th grade girls' basketball team was coached by Joe Butler. The girls' season record was 5 wins and 3 losses. The girls did not break any records this year. "The whole team was outstanding, and the girls picked up skills and were good students of basketball," said Coach Butler.

The 8th grade girls' basketball team was coached by Tracy Shirar. They had a winning season with a record of 6 wins and 2 losses. The team lost the county tourney. There were no records broken. Coach Shirar said, "All of the team members were great."

The A and B 8th grade boys' basketball team did very well for the 84-85 school year. The A team had a season record of 8 wins and 6 losses. The B team had a record of 3 wins and 2 losses.

Coach Wagner said there were ... "no broken records, no broken bones. We may have broken the record for most kisses when they presented the volleyball team with roses when they went to state." He concluded, "Against all opponents we were outsized, but that didn't seem to stop us; the aggressive attitude of the team (and coach) seemed to compensate for a height disadvantage."

The 8th grade team was outstanding in attitude, practice, participation and overall physical condition. They all put in a full "110%," and they all deserve a lot of credit.

This year's 7th grade boys basketball team is probably the best that it's been for several years. The team learned great defense techniques playing against teams whose members were larger than the CP team.

"I really don't believe in listing any outstanding players because several team members performed very well," said Coach Cox. "Our defense was our strong point. I thought as a team we played outstanding defense. Our season record was not a reflection of our lack of defense, but a reflection of our inability to score on rebounds, 2' and 3' shots, and our team ball control. Our team ball control did improve, as did all aspects of our game towards the end of the season. We finished the season by winning our last game and 2 of the last 4," the coach commented. His final comments were, "No matter what the situation was, they never quit; they never gave up. For that I'm proud of them."

Also the 1600 relay had a new record set by J. Oesterling, K. Chezem, B. Boldt, K. Garrett.

The girls' junior high track team ended with a record of 3 wins and 5 losses. The team was coached by Tracy Shirar and Rhonda Thompson. The team finished the season with a win at the county meet, where the girls worked hard and showed a lot of improvement. Meg Seager earned one hundred points to become a member of the 100 pt. club. "The team had a good season," said Coach Tracy Shirar.

Without the administrators, teachers, aides, counselors, custodians, cooks, and bus drivers, there would have been only an empty building to remodel.

Each of these adults helped us grow. Teachers, with help from the aides, somehow or other, taught us many things. We were, therefore, able to develop our minds. The counselors were there to advise us and to keep our "cultivated" minds healthy. Because of the custodians, we were able to learn in a "dirt free" environment. Without the bus drivers, we would have been unable to attend our beloved school. Mrs. Woody and the cooks prepared such delicious meals; we grew in size. Finally, the administrators were nice enough to keep our healthy minds and well-nourished bodies on the right track.

Many thanks to the Clinton Prairie staff. Without them, we would not have been "Under Construction."

Every year sports are "Under Construction," and this year was no exception. Because the senior members were graduated, the coaches had to start over and rebuild their teams.

Whether participating in basketball, volleyball, football, track, golf, cross country, or wrestling, these athletes gave all they had in practice and in the games or meets. By working hard and being dedicated, they were able to reach their team and personal goals.

By pushing themselves, these competitors developed strength, endurance, and a good attitude which enabled them to work together as a team and to have a successful season.

The cross country team had an outstanding season with a 9-1 record. They won the Clinton Central Invitational meet, the Rangeline Conference, and finished 4th in the Regional. This allowed them to move on to the Semi-State where they placed 16th out of 16 teams. It was the second consecutive trip for the team to the LaPorte Semi-State. They are the only boys' team at Clinton Prairie in any sport to go to a Semi-State, ever! It was the first conference title for Clinton Prairie in varsity cross country.

Matt Roberts was the team's most valuable player. He made the all conference team for the third year in a row. He finished in 6th place. Joe Clark got the "most dedicated" award for the 1984 season. He also made All Sectional for the second year in a row, where he finished in third place. He made the All County team. He made All Regional for the second year in a row, where he placed 2nd. This was the best finish for a Clinton Prairie runner as the county meet champion. Tom Simon was the team captain and was "co-most improved." Craig Seager made the All County team. Brian Roberts was "co-most improved." Wendy Wiggins finished 10th in the Girls' All Conference Race.

When asked how she felt about being the only girl on the team, Wendy Wiggins said that she got teased a lot, but the effort was well worth it.

"We turned what was supposed to have been somewhat of a rebuilding season into an outstanding one. The boys' hard work and dedication were the keys to our success. Next year holds promise because 6 out of 7 of our top runners will return," said Coach Kas.

The 1984 Clinton Prairie varsity football team finished in the conference with a 1-9 record and a season record of 3-7.

David Brettnacher broke the fieldgoal and extra point records. His punt average was $32\frac{1}{2}\%$. Brian Campbell led in tackles with 113. David Jones had 109, and Troy Schooler had 101. Brian Campbell also gained 905 yards rushing, and Ed Lasiter gained 689 yards.

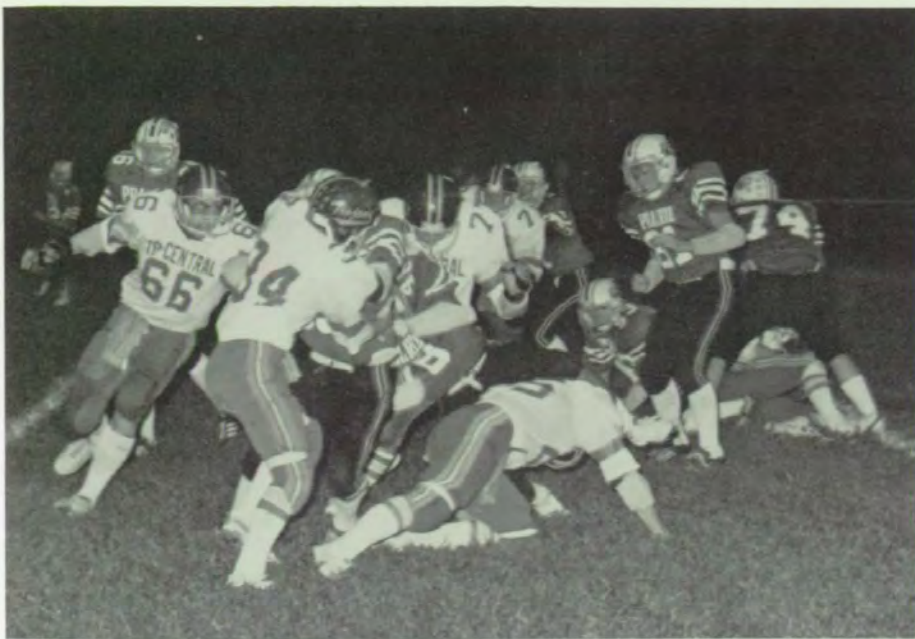

The big news this year in varsity football was the resignation of Coach Nickey Baker. "I have mixed emotions," said Coach Baker. He mentioned, "I love the coaching of the players, games, and football in general. I will not miss the pressure and extra time that a head coach must contend with." He has no one big reason for resigning. "Rather there are many small reasons that build until they outweigh the good reasons. The time, pressure, discipline, scheduling, dealing with parents, press, supervising a coaching staff, and program were some of the problems," said Coach Baker.

He also commented about the future, "Coaching has been a large part of my life; I expect to coach in some capacity."

His last comments were, "We lost several very close games. We earned respect from the larger teams we played which included 4 state-ranked teams."

The wrestling team coached by Mr. Keel finished the season with a conference record of 2-6 and a season record of 7-15. "The team forfeited 18-29 points every match. It's hard to win when it only takes 36 points to win," commented Coach Keel.

Although the team itself earned an average season record, there were two outstanding individual efforts. Brian Campbell was a State finalist in the 139 lb. weight class and had a season record of 32-2. His career record was 79-18 which won him honors in the CP history books. With a season record of 25-2, Ed Lasiter qualified for the Semi-State in the 167 lb. weight class. A career record of 64-12 made Ed the third best wrestler in CP history.

The three outstanding members on this year's wrestling team were Brian Campbell who was a three time Sectional champion, Regional champion, and conference champion, Ed Lasiter who was a two time Sectional champion and Regional champion, and Ty Baker who was the outstanding newcomer. As a freshman Ty was a Sectional champion, finished third in the Regional, and had a 19-9 season record.

At the awards banquet, Mr. Keel recognized Shane Robertson as the most-improved underclassmen. The best effort award for 1984-1985 was given to Brian Campbell for his many hours of hard work that helped him get to the State. Ed Lasiter, Brian Campbell, and Troy Schooler led this year's team as captains.

The varsity baseball team did well with a 6-1 conference record which gave them the Rangeline conference championship for the 3rd time in the past 4 years. Outstanding conference team members were Bruce Myers, Tom Simon, and Greg Timmons.

This team broke the record for the most homeruns hit in a single season. There were 27 hit; Bruce Myers became career leader in homeruns by hitting 17 in all. Jay Pletch was recognized for his no-hitter against Ross-ville, and Shane Robertson batted in the most runs in a single game.

"Our season was full of highs and lows, but we feel like our experiences helped us grow into as fine a team as we could be. Our kids are competitors," said Coach Kas.

record with a time of 3:29.4 minutes. Kent Chezem was the only regional qualifier for the Gophers in the pole vault event.

The outstanding team members were Ed Lasiter and Ty Baker in the weight events, and Mark Price in the sprints.

"This Gopher team was one of the strongest teams ever at Clinton Prairie. The Gophers displayed great team strength by having at least two strong performances in every event. They won Prairie's second conference crown ever and won the county meet for the second time in the last three years. The Gopher track men broke or tied seven school records during the season," commented Coach Chezem.

Coach Allen commented that the team as a whole was a good group of girls to work with and their season was very good overall.

Individually, several girls excelled in their respective events. Junior Sherri Eldridge broke the school record in the 300 hurdles with a time of 51.8. Also, Coach Allen commended freshman Dana Boyd's effort in the long jump, senior Rachel Poppe's work with the discus, junior Sharon Oesterling's speed in the 400 dash, and senior Monica Smith's performance in the high jump.

The 1985 golf team ended the season with a record of 2 wins and 14 losses. Their conference record was 0 and 6. A bright spot in the team's season was the sixth place finish out of a field of nineteen in the North Montgomery Tournament.

Mark Brumbarger and Ken Hicks both put in very good efforts and low scores, and David Brettnacher improved his score remarkably. Chylene Martin was a good sport for putting up with all the other guys.

"The success of our season is not obvious by our record; we lost some close matches. We also came up against some very talented teams; many of which were ranked in the top 20. The success of our team was in the way we enjoyed playing the game. We had a lot of fun and we learned some important lessons about golf and sportsmanship. As I watched other teams approach the east green, I saw clubs being thrown, bags being slammed down, as well as vocal expressions being made about the shot; but none of this was from a Clinton Prairie golfer. I am proud of our team for its attitude towards the opponent and the game of golf," said Coach Brad Wagner.

This year's junior varsity cheerleaders were all sophomores. The girls went to a UCA cheerleading camp at Purdue. They received a spirit stick and were in the finals of the cheer competition. They also participated in the county fair cheerleading contest, and they were placed second in the competition. The JV helped the varsity cheerleaders with a car wash. They also helped them sell carnations for Valentine's Day, and they sponsored a dance.

This year there were only three freshman cheerleaders instead of the usual four. These three girls had to carry the job of four girls. They had to have lots of spirit, and they had to cheer their loudest, and these girls did just that.

Thanks To Lori Gray, Rachel Poppe, & Mrs. Thompson For Typing.

Green be the turf above thee,
Friend of my better days!
None knew thee but to love thee
None named thee, but to praise.

Fitz-Greene Halleck

In memory of Mr. Roy Cleaver who passed away April 17, 1985.

Being Co-Editor of the 1984-85 Emerald was an experience I will have a hard time forgetting. It was both rewarding and challenging.

I would first like to give a special thanks to our first (and last) year advisor, Mrs. Davis. She helped the staff members with their sections, checked and rechecked pages many times after school, and most importantly, handled the majority of the responsibilities. She did an excellent job of advising and helping us put together this book.

Another big thanks goes to the other Co-Editor, Michelle Gillen. She was an enormous help. Michelle not only did her section but helped the others with theirs and checked over the pages before they went to the printers.

A heap of gratitude goes to the staff. It consisted of: David "Tip" Marshall was in charge of photography. We gave him a rough time but he always came through with great pictures. John Taylor, when he wasn't too tired or sleeping, worked on girls' sports. Lori Bond also did girls' sports and ads. Rachel Poppe and Julie Boyd designed the senior section. Later on in the year Rachel typed the index; however, Julie chose to escape. Mike Oberle and Jeff Garriott were in charge of boys' sports. Besides helping Mrs. Davis pack up, Jill Paddack worked on the faculty section. Amy Surface, or space case, added humor to our class. She also did the sophomore section. Pam Humrickhouse did the freshmen section very shyly and quietly. It's really hard to believe she's a Hummer! Last but not least were Scott Bedard and Shari Skiles. When they weren't busy staring into each other's eyes, Scott worked on girls' sports and Shari did eleventh grade.

Two other people who were not on the staff but who were a big help were Mr. Maurer, our Josten representative, and our photographer, Mr. Withrow.

I sincerely hope you enjoy "Under Construction." The staff chose this theme because we, like C.P.H.S., went through a time of change. We tried to emphasize these changes so that in the years to come, when you look back, you can see all the transitions we went through.

Congratulations and the best of luck to the 1985-86 staff.

P.S. I hope all you Purdue fans enjoy the colors I chose for the cover, red and white. They seem to remind me of the good ole Hurryin' Hoosiers!
