A New Beginning

As many students have put it, "this year has been different."

It has been very different for many different reasons. First of all, this was the students' first year in the new cafeteria. We actually had tables and chairs, and two separate lunch lines! It was also the first year in several new classrooms. We had new Biology, Home Ec, Band, and Choir rooms, a new greenhouse, and a new library. They also added a new, better equipped computer lab.

On the first day of school this year there were a lot of confused people. Rooms had changed in looks as new carpeting had been added to all of the tile floors of last year. There were new teachers sitting behind new desks. The new teachers consisted of Mrs. Longster, Mrs. Cripe, Mr. Horton, Mr. Fox, Mr. Reed, Mrs. Heath, and Mr. Bass.

There were newly decorated halls, drinking fountains, desks and more.

Students didn't care for the new school and all of its new facilities at first. They felt as if the school they had known the year before was gone forever. But towards the end of the year, minds had changed a great deal. Students began to feel more at home in the different school. They began liking the bigger more modernized school. They liked coming to school because it was different than it had been before.

All in all, what seemed a little scary and very confusing at first this year at Clinton Prairie, turned out to be an exciting, fun, and memorable New Beginning in the newly remodeled High School.

With the help of our emcees, Penny Neff and Katsunori Kuwahata, the 1986 Revue "Coming Attractions" came alive. The theme set the way for three new attractions: our first Japanese emcee, the first Grand Piano, and a new auditorium.

This year our "coming attractions" began with the Prairettes showing us their "New Attitude." Renee Fleischhauer warmed our hearts with "A Time For Us." Ending the show were the Blues Boys to bring the house down with "Soul Man."

I would like to thank the cast, my assistant, Tammy Rose, and Mr. James Compton for their hard work and determination to put on a great show.

Laura Marshall's "Ol' Time Rock-n-Roll" wows the audience.

Emcee Penny Neff reacts to the "Western" antics of partner Katsunori Kuwahata.

Receiving a thunderous ovation, the Blues Brothers (P. Gascho, T. Jones, C. Seager) perform the closing number, "Soul Man."

Prairiettes perform a dazzling show opener with "New Attitude."

Sophomore Angie Calloway makes her debut as a soloist with "Memory."

The entire cast of Revue 1986 join for a finale picture.

Senior Pete Gascho, accompanied by Renee Fleischhauer, sings "I Just Called To Say I Love You."

Attempting to speak to the director, an obnoxious "stage manager" (L. Lenehan) interrupts the show.

Soloist Jessie Crews sings "The Rose."

Upper Right: Waht did you do this time, Sue?

Middle Right: Sorry guys, wrong class.

Lower Left: It has only been an hour, you two.

Lower Right: You should have seen them before their make-up.

Welcome To The Monkey House

Welcome to the Monkey House, directed by Mr. Moyer and Mrs. Marshall, provided the cast members a chance to act as they thought people associated with the theater act. The play is about a small town theater group and its production of four plays. the cast gave the audience a peek backstage at the problems encountered during production — finding a director, casting actors, preparing sets, making do with donated furniture, and gathering props. Since this is a lot like productions here, students gained excellent first hand experience in a play production.

Christmas Dance

The Future Homemakers of America sponsored the Christmas Dance held on December 7, 1985. The new cafeteria was decorated with felt hearts which were given out as party favors at the end of the dance.

Auto "Magic" jukebox provided entertainment for the participants and the court. The queen, Debbie Myers was accompanied by her attendants: Susan Deford, Robin Latshaw, Margo Smith, and Lisa Taylor.

The junior princess was Katrina Lashbrook. Her attendants were Amber Marshall, Jill Paddack, Amy Stewart, and Sarah Swan.

The sophomore princess was Amber Justus and her attendant was Kristelle Marshall.

Although some people thought there was a lack of slow songs, most agreed that the dance was a success. There was certainly a large turnout!

Hardwood 1986

Hardwood was held on January 24, 1986. Although the Gophers were sadly defeated by the Zionsville Eagles, the evening was still exciting.

The Prairiettes performed after the Junior Varsity game. They "boogied to the Super Bowl Shuffle."

During halftime of the Varsity game, Brook Justus was crowned 1986 Hardwood Queen by the 1985 Queen Cathy Cochran. Her escort for the evening was Mark Price. Brook's court consisted of Junior Missy Roberts, escorted by Scott Woods, Sophomore Stacy Schooler, escorted by Ty Baker; and Freshman Tracy Miller, escorted by John Neff.

After the game, the Student Council sponsored the traditional Homecoming dance.

At half time Sharon Oesterling escorted by Craig Seager was crowned Homecoming Queen. Sharon's court consisted of Debbie Myers escorted by Scott Mennen, Brook Justus and Matt Roberts, Cathy Myers with Brad Cook, and Sherrie Eldridge escorted by Rob Mundell. Representative for the Junior class was Sarah Swan escorted by Rusty Myers, Sophomore class was Stephanie Myers and Larry Douglass and the Freshman class consisted of Kim Short with David Reagan.

Winning first place for the float contest was the Varsity Volleyball Team. Second place was the Sophomore class.

Students left the game early to make it to the Homecoming Dance sponsored by the student Council. "Auto Magic Jukebox" provided the entertainment.

C.P. Dedication

The dedication, which was held on April 27, 1986, for the new Clinton Prairie School, had a number of different activities. Mr. Spencer was in charge of the ceremony and a different number of persons spoke concerning the dedication. A cornerstone was set after the dedication program. The cornerstone contained a video tape of the school with students and the staff, a program from the ceremony, a patch with a gopher on it, and many other objects.

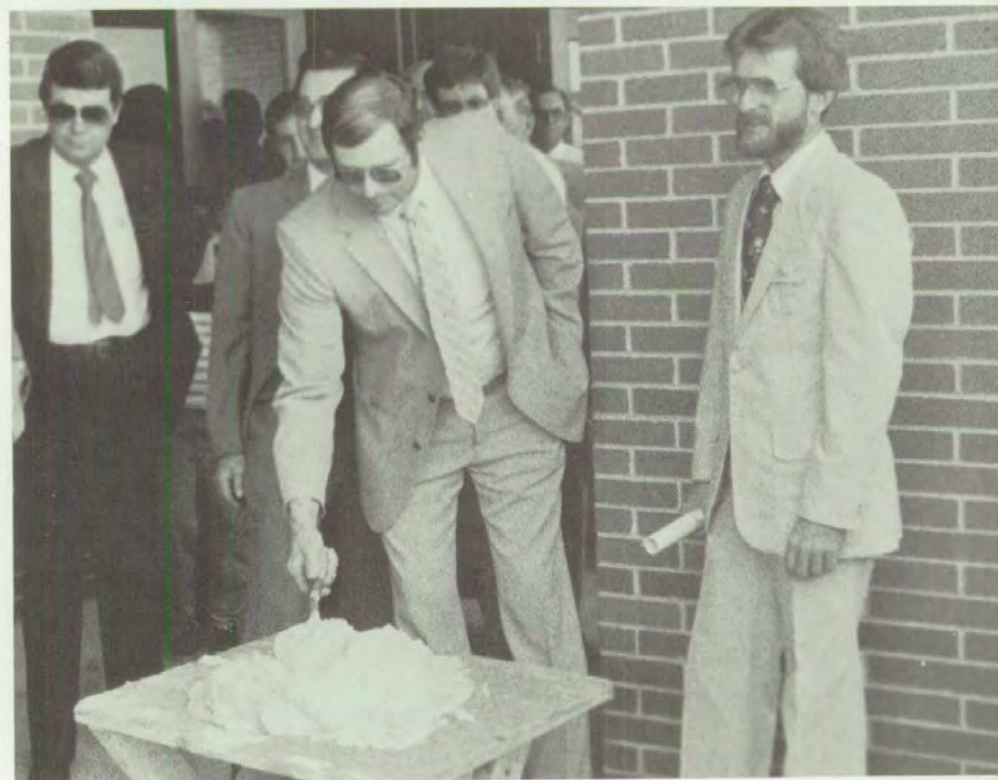

The elementary contributed such items as a letterperson, a button that read "CLINTON PRAIRIE SCHOOL IS COOL", a copy of the Elementary Spring Music Program, and other items. After the cornerstone was set, the building remained open for the general public. Student Council members were available to help with tours.

Tomorrow is not promised us,
so let us take today
and make the very most of it,
the once we pass this way.
Just speak aloud the kindly thought and do the kindly deed, and try to see and understand some fellow creature's need.
Tomorrow is not promised us,
nor any other day.
So let us make the most of it,
the once we pass this way.

CLASSES

Juniors

This year was the last year the class of '87 will be known to C.P. students as "underclassmen", and I think I speak for everyone when I say that we've waited a long time for this year.

Through this year many things have occurred throughout the Junior class. Our Homecoming representative was Sarah Swan. She was escorted by Rusty Myers. Also during Homecoming the Junior class had a float in the float contest which received honorable mention.

Our Junior girls and guys had an act in the Revue for the second year in a row. They danced to Footloose, and looked real funky!

Our Harwood representative was Missy Roberts, she was escorted by Scott Woods.

The class officers were Amy Hankins, president; Tammy Rose, vice-president; Dara Hudson, secretary; Debbie Smith, treasurer. The Junior class sponsors were Mrs. Hudson, and Mr. Segraves.

Sophomores

Two down, two years to go for those crazy sophomores.

During the second year as being high schoolers, the sophomore class was involved in many different things.

The Sophomore class chose Stephanie Myers to represent their class during Homecoming. She chose Larry Douglass to be her escort.

The Sophomores also had an act in the revue. They danced and sang to "Sharp Dressed Man", and had a really fun time doing it.

Their Hardwood representative was Stacy Schooler. Stacy was escorted by Ty Baker.

The class officers for the sophomore class were president, Trent Seager; vice-president, Wendy Elliot; secretary, Renee Wayt; treasurer, Jill Logan. The sponsors were Mrs. Longster, and Mr. Elliot.

Freshmen

The freshmen time was a time for many changes. There were more classes to choose from and more clubs to be involved in: the first time of becoming a "high school student."

The Freshmen class participated in the Homecoming float competition. The name of their float was "Mow Down the Huskies." Their float won third prize. Their Homecoming representative was Kim Short; her escort was David Reagan. Tracy Miller was the Hardwood representative, and she was escorted by John Neff.

This year's class officers were Tracy Flack, President; John Neff, Vice-President; Stacy Miller, Secretary; and David Reagan, Treasurer. The class sponsors were Mr. Horton, Mr. Cox, and Mrs. Dull.

1985-1986 Foreign Exchange Students

ANA PAOLA MOLINA

Paola, from Ecuador, stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Larry Calloway and Mr. and Mrs. Nickey Baker while visiting the U.S. Pizza, macaroni and cheese, and all desserts were a few of her favorite foods. Skiing was Paola's favorite sport. She also commented that it was the most exciting thing she did while in the U.S. Paola was also impressed that people arrive so early at school and other activities.

KATSUNORI KUWAHATA

Kats, from Japan, stayed with Mr. and Mrs. John McGraw during his visit to the U.S. He enjoyed eating chicken patties and pizza while watching his favorite sport — basketball. Kats commented that the boys fashions at C.P. were "quite old-fashioned." The most exciting thing that happened during his visit was seeing snow for the first time. He said "it is beautiful."

ELVIANA GUERRERO

Evy, from Mexico, stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Nickey Baker during her one-semester visit in the U.S. Some of her favorite foods were hamburgers, pizza, and "Special K" cookies. Her favorite sport, like Paola, was skiing. When asked if she'd like to come back to the U.S. in the future, she said "yes, to go skiing." Evy said she liked the U.S. because there were many enjoyable places to go.

Back Row: M. Roberts, J. Clark, S. Fleischhauer, Coach Kas, C. Seager, B. Roberts, T. Seager MR: R. Flowers, P. Keller, J. Baker, J. Oesterling, K. Chezem, J. Thompson FR: S. Wilson, R. Percy, D. Jones, W. Wiggins

The 1985 Clinton Prairie Cross County team, coached by Dennis Kas, had an eventful season, by going 9-0. They started off early by winning the county followed by two invitationals, the Tri-County and the Delphi. Then went on to win the Rangleline Conference for the second straight year. Their biggest accomplishment was winning the Regional. The first time ever for a boys team in the history of Clinton Prairie. Which allowed them to advance to the La Porte Semi-State where they placed 12th out of 16 teams.

One of the outstanding members on the team was Matt Roberts. Matt was the county champ, all-conference for the 4th year, Sectional Champ, and All-Regional for the second year. He was the Most Valuable Player on the team for the 4th year, and broke the school record with a time of 16:22. Seniors Matt Roberts and Craig Seager shared the co-captains position. Craig was all-county and received the Most Dedicated award. Another outstanding member was junior, Joe Clark. He was all-county, all-regional, and all-conference for the 3rd year in a row. Junior Brian Roberts made all-county. Sophomore Trent Seager made all-county, all-conference and received the Most Improved award.

There were four Senior girls on the team. Ruth Percy was all-county and a regional qualifier. Debbie Jones received all-county along with Sharyl Wilson and Wendy Wiggins.

"This was one of the finest seasons a Prairie team has had. We won just about all there was to win. And we did it with sportsmanship and class. We were very fortunate, but we had athletes who were willing to work hard and compete hard!" Commented Coach Kas.

The Varsity volleyball team had a spectacular comeback season this year. The girls' season record was 43-1 and the Rangeline record was 7-0. These girls carried on a great tradition at Prairie by capturing two records in the state. They had the most regular season consecutive wins in state in any sport at 119, and they also had the most consecutive victories in volleyball in the state with 90 wins. They won the Sectional for the 11th straight year and the Regional for the 4th. This team also won the Semi-State for the 2nd straight year. They then advanced to the State and lost to the State champs.

Sharon Oesterling was on the All-State team, and on the Academic All-State team. Sharon, Denise Moore, and Dana Boyd were All-Conference. Coach Garrett said, "This was a very surprising season, because it was a rebuilding year after losing 6 seniors. She also thought it was a thrill to return to the state finals."

The J.V. volleyball team, coached by Kim Brewer finished their season with a 7-0 conference record and a 20-1 season record. They won the Lafayette Jeff Tourney by defeating four other teams.

The outstanding contributor award went to Stephanie Myers. The award is given to the player who has a good attitude, is a leader, and gives 100% effort.

Coach Brewer stated that, "This year's team was very successful due to hard work and determination. They were a group that liked to have fun but could adjust to the situation and become serious when needed to be. This group has lots of potential and should continue to be successful.

Five boys were charted as All-County while 3 of those were also All-Conference. Joe Gillen, David Williams, and Rod Colter were All-County and All-Conference. Mark Price and Shane Robertson were All-County.

Coach Hilgediek commented that, "This team took advantage of all it was capable of giving and turned it into a successful season. They can serve as an example to other teams following in their footsteps. A tip of the hat goes to the fine young men."

Senior Brad Cook was chosen to All-Conference and All Sectional teams and was chosen along with Steve Wulf to the 2nd team All County.

Those two along with Matt Roberts were selected to play in the Clinton-Boone County All Star game. Junior Kent Chezem was chosen to All-Conference and All Sectional teams and also to the 1st team All County.

Coach Chezem commented that, "This team proved to be a very competitive team every night. They were a good group to coach and worked very hard. Their record was not a real indication of their team strength, for they lost 6 games by 3 points or less."

Coach Anderson felt that they had a good season with no real stars. But, he cited Marty Dick as leading scorer, Jim Oesterling as best all around player, and Lee Hummerickhouse as best freethrow shooter. The rest of the team followed with marked improvement and a dream of playing JV next year.

Gymnastics

Dara Hudson, a junior, was C.P.'s gymnastic team for the third year. Dara was coached by Marcia Hudson. She competed on the varsity level in IHSAA gymnastics. The home floors this year were Lafayette Jeff, Harrison, and West Side. During the regular season Dara placed fourth against Carmel and Jeff, two top-ten ranked teams. In the next meet she had won bars and vault when she fell off the beam and sprained her ankle. She came back at the end of the season to compete in one meet against the Lafayette teams on bars.

Varsity Cheerleaders

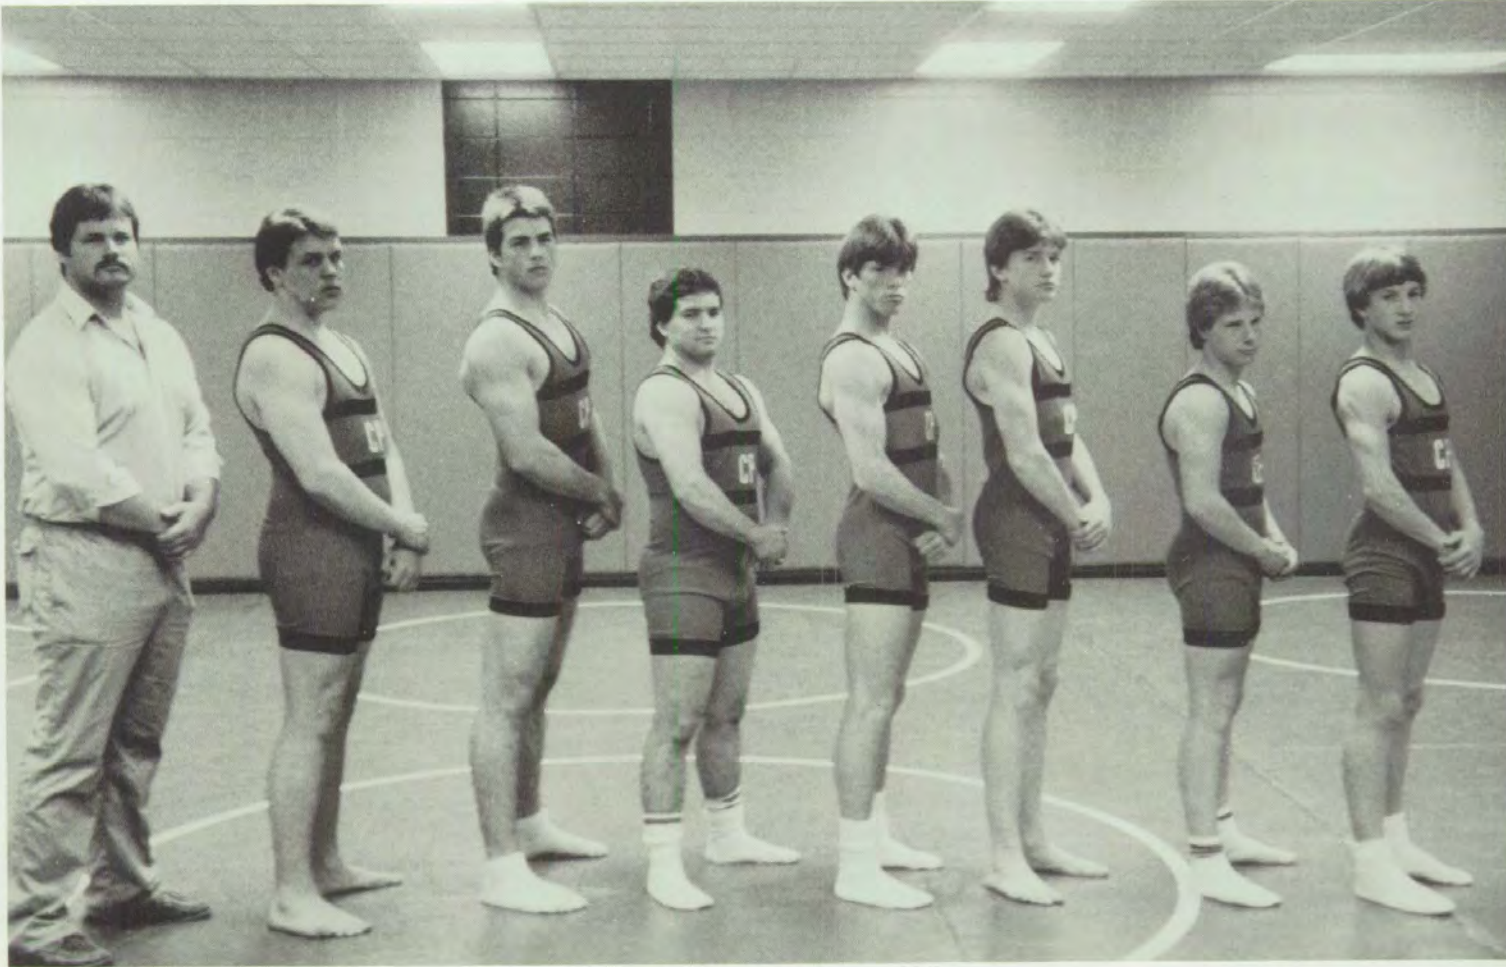

The Varsity cheerleading squad consisted of two seniors, two juniors, and one sophomore. This year there were no boy cheerleaders to help the girls, so they had to carry a big load themselves. The squad went to a USCA cheerleading camp at Indiana University and received the Most Improved Award.

The girls sponsored a dance for the Sectional games and helped bring a lot of spirit to the school to cheer on the teams.

The baseball team started off the season with a 12-1 record which is the best of any baseball team ever. Many of the players have contributed greatly to the team's success. Senior Rod Colter, their fine defensive third baseman, is hitting .469 with five homeruns and 20 R.B.I.'s halfway through the season. Senior Shane Robertson, who plays second base, is hitting .417 with four homeruns halfway through the season.

The other Senior, Greg Timmons with a 7-1 pitching record, so far with 69 strikeouts in 43 innings and 1.40 E.R.A. is also a valuable asset to the team. The last Senior, Joe Gillen, is a solid first baseman with a hitting average of .333, he is a great team leader. This is a super group of players this year with a lot of desire to improve and do well. Team success is important to them and they are looking forward to the second half of the season being as good as the first reaching new heights and setting new records on their way to the best season ever.

The Junior Varsity has had a bad year and didn't do as well as the varsity. Many things have contributed to their disappointing season, mainly the small number of boys that came out, and having limited practice time. The boys didn't let that get them down. They always gave their best effort and it took them a long way. The majority of the boys on the Junior Varsity team also play Varsity, giving them more experience and the ambition to succeed and go a long way.

Seniors Sharon Oesterling and Debbie Jones had excellent seasons. They both ran on the 600 relay team and Oesterling had a terrific year in the 400 as did Jones in the 800. Junior Dana Boyd was another outstanding contributor for CP, she went undefeated in the long jump, was the only Gopher girl to get a first at Conference by winning the long jump. Boyd also contributed many points in the sprints.

Coach Allen commented, "This was a good team to work with. The team as a whole strived to be the best that they could be."

JUNIOR HIGH

The eighth graders settled into their daily schedule at the new school with ease and enjoyed being the oldest for a year.

The class officers were Jenny Myers, Megan Myers, Naomi McGraw, and Collen Carter. These girls did a fine job of leading their class. The class showed a lot of school spirit by participating in sign events and other "spirited" activities.

The class of 1989 had a good eighth grade year playing sports and socializing with their friends at dances or just in the halls. Good luck to them all next year as freshman.

The seventh grade was the last class to come from the three separate grade schools. This class adjusted well to the new school.

Class officers were Christie Shephard, Sossity Winger, Julie Pelfree, and Tammy Rominger. They did a great job of acting as leaders for the class of 1990.

As seventh graders they handled the school life and workload well. They also did a good job of staying out of the upperclassman's way in the halls and around the school.

The class of 1990 participated on very successful sports teams and helped cheer on the rest of the school in their events. They also looked forward to next year so they could be the oldest for a change.

One Last Note

My first year as editor has been an experience to say the least. This is my third year on the staff and Mrs. Longster was my third advisor. I have many comments to make and many people to thank for helping me on the completion of the 1985-1986 Emerald.

Mrs. Longster — Thanks for being the advisor this year. I know that when you first started out things were pretty confusing, but after the first few months things got better. I hope it was as fun for you as it was for all of us. I know that sometimes you and Amy didn't agree on things, but most of the time you kept your cool. Thanks!

Lisa Brenton — Being new on the staff your Senior year didn't stop you from getting your deadlines in on time. Sometimes we did have to say something to you about your rudeness to Mr. Mauer, but other than that you did a fine job. Thanks for all your help.

Debbie Jones — When you weren't in a bad mood (which wasn't too often, HA) you did a great job with your sections. You were always there to take sections that nobody else would take. Thanks! Good luck at Georgetown.

Matt Lewis — Even though you didn't always do what you were supposed to do when you were supposed to do it, you did manage to get your last deadline in on time (so you didn't have to come back). Thanks for being on the staff! Good luck in the Air Force.

Margo Smith — You did a good job in here from the beginning to the end. You always got your deadlines in on time, you were always in a good mood, and you were always willing to help anyone who needed it. Thanks! You're just what every yearbook staff needs.

Laura Eup — You did a fine job on Advertising. It's a hard job, but you took it on and did a good job. If it weren't for you, we'd have no money and no yearbook. You were also very dependable in that you always met your deadlines on all your sections. Thanks for everything!

Deena Howe — You always worked quietly, but got the job done. You always kept us informed on the happenings in English. Thanks!

Missy Roberts — Even though you didn't say it, you probably hated being on the staff at times. But, it didn't show in your work. You always came into the room ready to work. We had a hard time convincing you to let Amy and I put your Prom princess picture in the yearbook, but we won. Thanks for all the fun and laughs!

Don Rogowski — You didn't become a member of the staff until 2nd semester, but you caught on quickly and accomplished a lot. You had a lot of work to do, but always got it done. Thanks for deciding to be on the staff.

Amy Surface — You were a good Assistant Editor. We worked together on a few of our sections, and always got them done. We had a couple of fights when we were working on our deadlines on the last day at the last minute, but they only lasted for a while. Sometimes we didn't feel like working because of problems with the males in our lives (that was usually when we took the hour to talk!) Remember when we found Matt in the darkroom? I hope we have a lot of fun next year — our Senior year. Thanks for being my Assistant Editor!

Jeff Garriott — You always found time to help Trent in the darkroom but you always met your deadlines. Sometimes you waited until the last day to finish them, but you always got your pages done. I think you did a good job this year, and I hope you'll be on the staff next year. Thanks for doing Sports — that's a hard section.

CONGRATULATIONS MRS. LONGSTER & THE 1986
STAFF — GREAT JOB!

THANKS AGAIN
EVERYONE!
