Thank you's are deserving to everyone. Special thank you's go to Kristelle Marshall, my student director and Mrs. McIlrath.

FALL PLAY

Above Left: Amy Hankins and Andy Kinsler listen carefully to the evidence. Above: Regina Mundell, Kristelle Marshall, and Julie Krumholz discuss what is going on.

TWELVE ANGRY JURORS was a challenge for the student actors. The action is primarily jurors' verbal reactions to what is said by other jurors. Facial Expression and tone of voice were of utmost importance. Lack of physical action made the student actors work on their action technique.

Right: Kristelle Marshall touches up Regina's make-up.

TWELVE ANGRY JURORS

Cast members discuss the case.

Senior Debra Smith applies make-up to classmate Brian Layton.

Diane Eldridge paints the gopher in the elementary gym.

Raise your hand if you forgot your prairie uniform.

The Freshman P.E. class hears a lecture from Mr. Smith.

Above: Jill remembers when she was in elementary school.

No Appleheads

What are you two doing in the boys locker room?

Have A "Beary" Christmas

The Future Homemakers of America sponsored the Christmas Dance held on December 6, 1986. The theme of the dance was Have a "Beary" Christmas. The multipurpose room was decorated with stuffed teddy bears. The christmas tree was cloned with wooden teddy bears which were given out as party favors at the end of the dance.

The Queen, Amy Stewart was accompanied by her attendants: Amy Surface, Amber Marshall, Katrina Lashbrook and Dana Boyd.

The Junior Princess was Amber Justus, her attendants were Kristelle Marshall and Jill Logan.

The Sophomore Princess was Christin Shelly. Her attendants were Alicia Leibenguth and Rachel Surface.

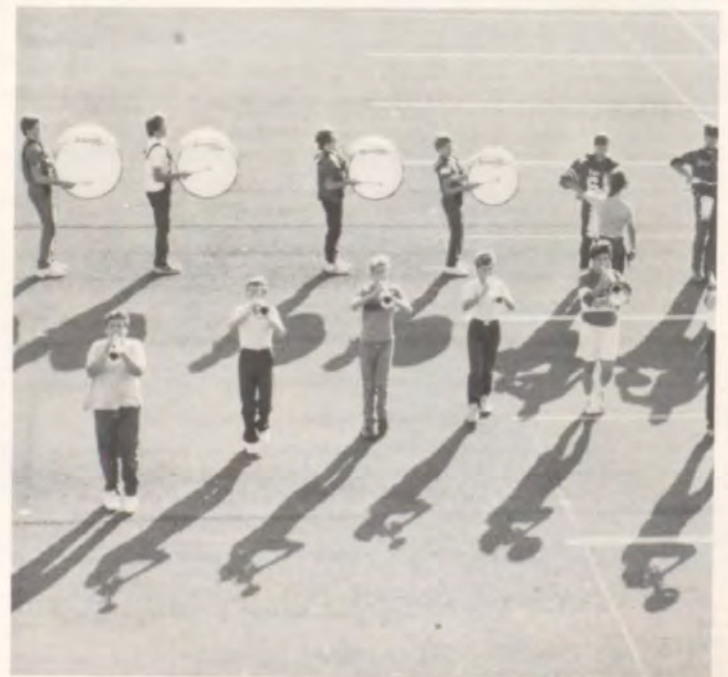

HOMECOMING 1986

Euthusiasm grew as spirit week carried on. The students were found in a wide array of a apparel. After a long and strenuous week of building floats, everyone was ready to partake in the homecoming activities.

September 26 was the big night. Homecoming was finally here the crowd was restless waiting for the game to begin. The Gophers rose to an incredible victory over the Bulldogs, 28-7.

At halftime, everyone was silent as the name was called. Missy Roberts was announced the 1986 Homecoming Queen. She was escorted by Shawn Pletch. Her court consisted of Sarah Swan, escorted by Rusty Myers, Amy Stewart, escorted by Kent Wien, Dara Hudson, escorted by Kent Chezern, and Dana Boyd, escorted by Mike Crowe. The Sopohomore Class won the float competition while the Industrial Arts Club recieved a second. As usual, students left the game early to make it in time for the Homecoming Dance. The D.J., Dave Weddell along with his crew played some really jammin' music. The dance was sponsored by the High School Student Council.

HOMECOMING FESTIVITIES

The annual Bon-fire was held the night before Homecoming. This gave the students time to get rowdy before the big night. There were six events for the students to participate in: the tricycle race, mummy wrap, chubby cheeks, egg toss, two-legged race, and the sack race.

The tricycle race was won by the Juniors. Jill Logan was determined the one with the chubbiest cheeks. Seniors Kent Chezem and Joe Clark joined together to win the three-legged race. The egg toss was captured by seniors Tammy Rose and Ruth Lundquist.

HARDWOOD 1987

Along with the excitement of the game, the Prairiettes and Rifle Corps performed to "Championship" and "You Give Love A Bad Name." During halftime of the Varsity Game, Amy Stewart was crowned 1987 Hardwood Queen. Her escort was Kent Wien. Amy's court consisted of Junior Amber Justus, escorted by James Barnett, Sophomore Carla Robertson, escorted by David Reagan, and Freshman Jenny Myers, escorted by Mark Lane.

PROM 1987

The 1987 Junior-Senior Prom was held May 9th at the Sheraton Hotel in Lafayette. Juniors chose the theme "Dreams" and decorated using the colors lavender, gray and cobalt blue. "Different Strokes" provided music for the evening and for the dedication to royalty played "Will You Still Love Me?"

Kent Chezem and Dara Hudson were selected Prom King and Queen and Ty Baker and Amber Justus were Prince and Princess. Serving on the Court were Juniors: Rob McGraw, Kevin Reagan, Trent Seager, Wendy Elliott, Stephanie Myers, and Renee Wayt; Seniors: Pat Douglass, Rusty Myers, Tom Smith, Dana Boyd, Sarah Swan, and Julie Pletch.

The Lafayette YMCA was the scene of Post-Prom activities. For those not wishing to "gamble" in the "Casino" a variety of sports events were available.

Dreams really did come true for Queen Dara Hudson and King Kent Chezem.

Prom goes dance the night away.

The temptation was too much for some of the Junior boys during the garter exchange.

Juniors gather to sing one last song.

Oh come on — laugh!

Juniors Meg Seager and Ty Baker enjoy their evening together.

Sue Waddell and her date must have been bored when they made this pyramid.

POEM TO THE SENIORS

Another year goes passing by, Another Prom is here. To some this brings a joyous smile, to others, brings a tear. For four years you have tread a path from dawn to setting sun, but now the path gets steeper, and the climb is just begun. We're very glad to know you, we'll miss you when you've gone. And to the Class of '87, we dedicate our Prom.

— The Juniors

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS

During the 1986-1987 school year, Clinton Prairie had the honor of hosting two foreign exchange students, Kazuo Nomura and Carlos Martinez. Both Students came to America with the Youth For Understanding program.

Kazuo Nomura came from Nagoya, Japan. He stayed with the William Galvin family. Kazuo thought the fashion here was behind, but he found Clinton Prairie to be a modern school. Kazuo said, "In my city, wearing ties is casual, and I never wore boots before I came here." In Japan, uniforms are worn to school.

During his stay here, Kazuo enjoyed watching his favorite sports on television. He really enjoyed watching basketball while eating popcorn and drinking a Coke. His favorite foods here in America were McDonald's hamburgers and Noble Roman's pizza. Unfortunately, he had stomach problems when he first arrived and could not eat these foods.

Kazuo said he loved America as much as Japan.

He also commented, "I would like to live here my whole life. I hope to be back here pretty soon. See you again!"

Carlos Martinez came from Mexico. He stayed with the Larry Shaw family. Carlos thought that school here in America was easier than in Mexico. Carlos enjoyed watching football and baseball. He used his talent in soccer to help the Gophers as a kicker on the football team.

Carlos' favorite foods in America were pizza and hamburgers. He said his favorite Mexican food is Sincronizadas, a tortilla with chicken and refried beans stacked. Carlos showed his love for playing the guitar by playing in the Clinton Prairie Pep Band, and he also performed a solo in the 1987 Revue.

Carlos plans to go into engineering since he enjoys physics (because of his teacher of course), and he also enjoys history. Perhaps we will see Carlos at Purdue in the near future.

The team broke a couple of records this year. The team had 20 hits in one ball game, and 12 stolen bases in another. Aaron Martin pitched a no hitter against Carroll and Steve Moore pitched a no hitter against Rossville.

Pat Douglass got the most dedicated award while Steve Moore got the Most Improved award, and Tom Smith received the MVP.

"We got the most out of what they had to give. I really enjoyed working with them," commented Coach Helgediek.

David Joseph goes for a hit.

The Junior Varsity Baseball Team started slow during the 1987 season but ended in a bang with a streak of 5 wins. This gave the team a final record of 5 and 5. The JV team had a few slug-fests with a score of 17 runs in one game. Coach Jones commented that hitting was definitely a strong point for the 1987 team and hopes that will carry over into next year.

Coach Reed was unable to finish coaching the team due to a bad case of Mononucleosis. An injury to pitcher Andy Albitz who broke his nose was a down point in the season, but Aaron Martin pulled through for the young Gophers doing a fine job as pitcher.

The 1987 Boys' Track Team, coached by Doug Segraves and John Vandewalle, went undefeated in the dual season for the second year in a row. They were also the returning champs at the Delphi Relays and captured the title once more. The icing on the cake though was winning the county meet for the third year in a row. This is the first time in the history of Clinton Prairie Track. Then to top the season off they placed fourth in the Rangeline Conference and also had one member go All-Conference while breaking two conference records.

With Captains Joe Clark, Kent Chezern and Scott Fleishhauer leading, the team managed to work hard but still have fun. They held their annual Sacrifice Shirt Day and then made a flag of the torn shirts. Water was another annual thing, but it usually is in balloon form when it is fired from the girls' team to the boys' and vice-versa.

Senior Kent Chezern qualified for regional in the pole-vault and now holds the record with a vault of 13 feet and 1 inch. Senior Joe Clark also broke a record and now holds the mile with a clocking of 4:35.2 at conference. Junior Ty Baker also qualified for regional and broke the shot put and discus records with throws of 53 feet 3 inches and 160 feet 6 inches. Baker qualified for State last year in the discus and was the only member of the team to go All-Conference. With 204 points, Baker got the Most Valuable Player Award. Chezern received the Senior Contributor Award while Clark accepted the Middle Distance Award. Senior Scott Fleishhauer was honored with the Mental Attitude Award and Junior Trent Seager earned the Distance Award. The last award given was to Coach Segraves, and he received his Captain Chaos Cape so he could complete his mission.

Junior Ty Baker sprints the last leg of the mile relay.

GIRLS' TRACK

The 1987 Girls' Track team had a great year ending with an 8-3 record. This team was a very young team which will prove to be an asset next year. Two of the younger members showed great talent. These were Angie Larsh who broke the 300 m low hurdle record with a time of 52.0 seconds, and Deanna Greer who broke the 3200 m run record with a time of 13 minutes and 40 seconds.

Senior Dana Boyd continued to dominate the field for the team and ended the season with a total of 203.5 points. Dana went to the regionals for long jump along with Sophomore Kim Short competing in the high jump. Coach Leeth commented "These girls were great to work with. The record shows the hard work and dedication given from each athlete."

Deanna Greer kicks toward the finish line in the 3200 meter run.

The Clinton Prairie golf team had a better season than expected with a 4-9 season record and a 3-1 conference record.

Kent Scott was the most consistent player on this year's team. Senior Joe Clark was named all conference and Mr. Clutch by his coaches and teammates. Carlos Martinez was a big scoring factor in each meet.

"The team played better than their record reflected. They were a great group of coachable players who were very interested in improving themselves. The nucleus of this team will be back for the 1988 season ready to play," commented coach Snyder.

JUNIOR HIGH

8th Grade

The 8th grade class enjoyed being able to boss someone around during the 1986-87 school year. HA! It felt better not to be the youngest kids on the block.

The officers for the 8th grade were President Carmen McGraw, Vice President Rachel Hanna,

Secretary Sossity Winger, and Treasurer Eric Knapp. They succeeded in planning activities such as the junior high dance.

All of the 8th graders were looking forward to moving on into ninth grade. Watch out high schoolers!!

The seventh grade class was all but at ease during the first couple of weeks at Clinton Prairie. However, as the weeks went by, they grew a little more comfortable with the new surroundings.

The class officers were President Dennis Brettnacher, Vice President Rod Lone, Secretary Gina Lock, and Treasurer Curt

Lock. They did a terrific job their first year as officers.

The seventh graders, both boys and girls, participated in all sports at Clinton Prairie and represented their class well. The entire seventh grade class did a great job of being the underdogs during the 1986-87 school year.

AUTOGRAPHS

This page was supposed to be my Editor's page, but, since it is July and the last pages of this book are just now being sent in, I'm not going to take the time to thank each member of the staff individually. Instead, you may have the rest of this to use for autographs!!

Thanks to Ms. Leeth and all staff members!
