And Now, For Our

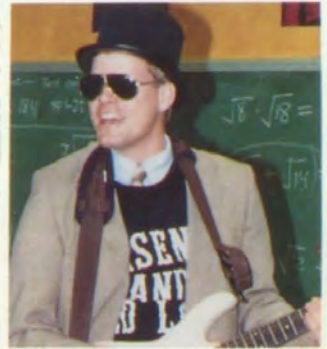

On the following pages, the 1992 Clinton Prairie Yearbook Staff has produced, for your entertainment, a "movie" which features a year in the life of Clinton Prairie High School. We have included the highlights of the 1991-92 school year, including music, sports, academics, dances, classes, and many other activities. We hope that this presentation will make you laugh, cry, and, in general, just bring back a lot of memories. So sit back, relax, and enjoy our

When It Comes to These Dates,

Have you ever had a date that felt as if it were the best night of your entire life? Or maybe the worst? Everyone has undoubtedly had some memorable experiences with dating. Sometimes you may agree to a date and wait anxiously; other times you may decide to go out with someone only to wonder later how you could have ever agreed to such a night. You may even have to use your imagination to come up with some way to get out of the dreaded date.

In order to get some insight into today's dating scene, we questioned some of Clinton Prairie's high school students about their experiences and ideas on the subject.

"The best date I ever had was when..."

"...my boyfriend told me that we were just going to the movies, but instead he took me to Red Lobster and bought me a dozen roses." - Connie Loveless

"...Casey and I went to the 1991 Christmas Dance here at school, believe it or not!" - Keisha Smith

"...I went out with Christie Brinkley." - Dusty Smith

"The worst date I ever had was when..."

"...my date and I went to a concert at Deer Creek and it started raining." - Jason Abbott

"...I got in a fight with my date and we left before we even ate." - Lincoln Laird

"...when my boyfriend and I went to Union Station, we fought the whole way there, and then when we got there I had to just sit there and watch him play video games." - Connie Loveless

"...when I went out with Madonna." - Dusty Smith

"...when my date took me to Schultz's Supermarket." - Katie Hansell

Parental Guidance is Suggested?

"The cheapest date I ever had was when..."

"...I went on my first date ever! Dave Galvin dropped me off at the movies and then went to pick up Kreg Zeis's date, so I had to pay to get into the movies, and when we went to McDonald's, Dave didn't have money, so I had to pay for our meals."
- Dusty Reece

"...I went to McDonald's and my date didn't eat."
- Lincoln Laird

"...Danielle and I and our dates doubled, and we went in the exit at the drive-in and didn't have to pay."
- Keisha Smith

"My best excuse for turning someone down for a date is to say..."

"...Sorry, I have to clean out my sock drawer."
- Connie Loveless

"...I have to babysit."
- Katie Hansell

"...Well, I'm sort of already seeing someone" when I'm not really seeing anyone.
- Keisha Smith

"My idea of a dream date would be..."

"...going to the Bahamas with my date and taking a walk on a moonlit beach."
- Lincoln Laird

"...being picked up in a Corvette by a tan, sexy, muscular guy."
- Dusty Reece

"...going to a park for a picnic."
- Connie Loveless

"...staying all night at Toys-R-Us with Paula Abdul."
- Dusty Smith

Friday the 13th Proves Unlucky

Luck Holds for Queen Mandy Thompson

Homecoming 1991 at Clinton Prairie had a twist to it. The regularly scheduled game was against Tri-Central on Friday the 13th. That night thunderstorms caused the game to be postponed until Saturday, September 14. The actual homecoming game took place on Friday, September 20, against the Arcola, Illinois Purple Riders.

The Homecoming Bonfire was held on Monday, September 9th. The games included the egg toss, three - legged race, wheelbarrow race, bat spin, obstacle course, mummy wrap, chubby bunny, and the annual tug of war. The seniors came out on top in scoring to win the Homecoming games.

The juniors swept away the first place award in the float competition at halftime of the football game as the excitement rose for the crowning of the 1991 Homecoming queen. The court consisted of seniors Jennifer Hawkins, Gina Lock, Sandra Reed, Liz Tate, and Mandy Thompson. The junior class representative was Tina Cain, sophomore Jamie Pelfree, and freshman Katie Hansell. Senior football team members Rodney Lone and David Friedrich were selected to crown the new queen due to last year's foreign exchange student Tuija Alkio being unable to attend the ceremonies. The 1991 Homecoming queen was Mandy Thompson.

The Gophers fell to the fourth ranked Illinois team, 35-6. Clinton Prairie's only touchdown was scored on a Ryan Roberts pass to Nick Rudd. The outstanding defensive effort was led by David Friedrich and Evan Hodgen.

The Homecoming dance after the game was held until 11 p.m. and was sponsored by the Student Council. Providing the music for the dance were Brian Clark and Darian Trimble.

Gopher Girls Defeat Clinton Central

During the break between the Clinton Prairie-Clinton Central junior varsity and the varsity games, five senior guys were eagerly awaiting the announcement of the 1991 Duke of Court. The senior representatives and their escorts were: Kreg Zeis and Liz Tate; Ryan Roberts and Angie Neal; Tyler Swan and Sandy Reed; Rodney Lone and Megan Zipperian; and David Friedrich and Michelle Myers. Representing the underclassmen were: Juniors Mike Rominger and Keisha Smith; Sophomores Paul Ely and Natalie Bailey; Freshmen Jade Kas and Katie Hansell.

Now it was time for the moment everyone was waiting for: the announcement of the Duke of the Court. The 1991 Duke of the Court winner was Tyler Swan! Ty received a scepter and t-shirt from Clinton Prairie's Science Club, the sponsors of the annual festivity. The other representatives also received t-shirts for their nominations.

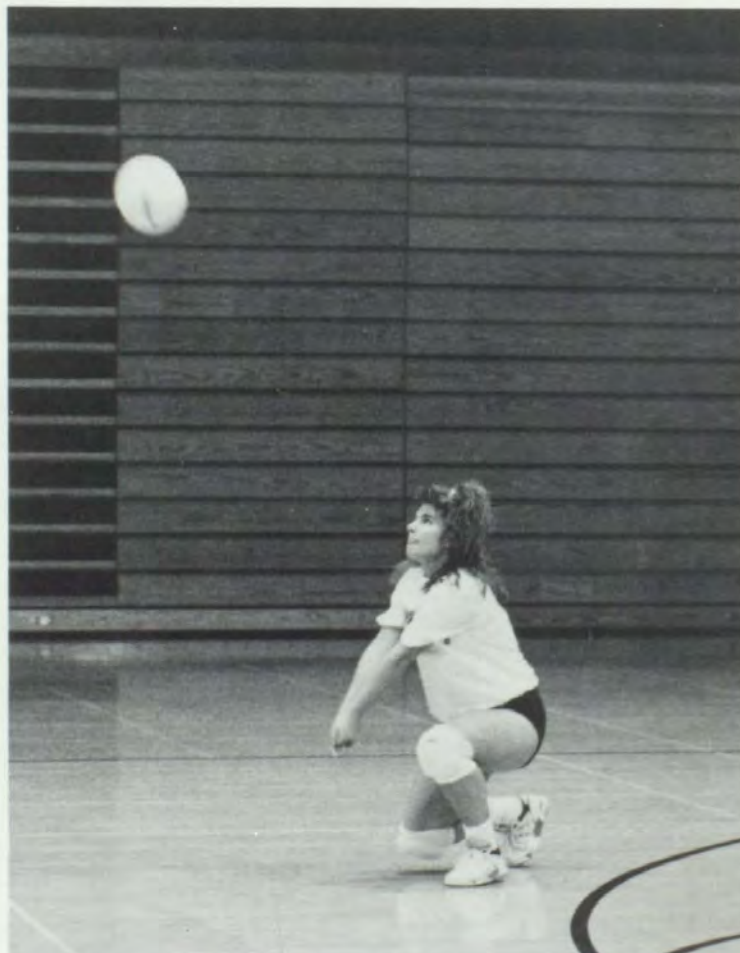

The new Duke and his court, along with the other CP fans, watched as the varsity Lady Gophers went on to thrash the Clinton Central Bulldogs, with a score of 15-3, 15-8.

Talk About Fashion!

What's In ... and What's Out

It seems that fashions are constantly changing. What's "in" one year may be "out" the next. Not only do fashions change from year to year, but people never agree completely about which fashion fads they like and which they dislike. This was obvious in the many different answers provided by Clinton Prairie students when the yearbook staff polled them about their favorite and least favorite fads. However, the following trends were discovered among the students who were surveyed:

FAVORITE FASHIONS

Guess jeans
Eastland shoes silk shirts leggings big sweaters
tight rolled jeans

LEAST FAVORITE FASHIONS

Zubaz
Hammer pants
one-strap overalls
bell bottoms
sheer blouses

Eighth-grader Brooke Fultz wears a popular "crazy print" shirt.

Megan Zipperian has a professional look.

Missy and Danielle like bright colors.

Kim Konopa models the latest look?

Mrs. Rogers' space-age fashions bring science to life.

Michelle Sparks strikes a pose.

Mike Rothenberger enjoys being surrounded by well-dressed women.

Polka dots are popular, as shown by Heather Brown.

The Cragun girls are always into the latest fashions.

Stone Age fashions by Angie Neal, Sandy Reed, and dates.

Most students said that their normal manner of school dress included jeans or dress shorts, sweaters, sweatshirts, and Eastland shoes. While many claimed to dress pretty much the same on weekends, some stated that they do often dress up a little more, depending on the occasion. Freshman Danetta Cragun commented, "Usually I dress up more on the weekends, because I have more time to get ready. I save my best outfits to wear on the weekends."

"Two Thumbs Up" for

Senior Brian Clark and Sophomore Jamie Pelfree were featured in Clinton Prairie's 1991 fall play, entitled Dirty Work in High Places. The old-fashioned melodrama was written by playwright Tim Kelly and had all of the usual cast of characters one would expect to find in such a play: the evil villain, Gentle Grimmes, played by Clark; the innocent young girl, Little Saccharin, portrayed by Pelfree; the brave hero, Dauntless Crusader, played by Senior Andy Jahn; and a number of innocents whom Grimmes took "for a ride" as well as several characters who assisted Grimmes in his dirty work.

Directed by drama teacher Sarah Sabens, the cast and crew rehearsed for weeks in order to learn the many lines and actions involved in the play. There were even some songs which various characters performed in the play; the students involved with Dirty Work are likely to remember Rachel Flowers' and Brooke Segal's rendition of "Be Revolting" for years to come.

Thursday, November 7, saw the students ready to make the audience laugh and cheer. The only real problem that occurred on opening night was an injury to Brian Clark's eyelid after he accidentally got a little too enthusiastic about cracking the long leather whip which he carried around as part of his Gentle Grimmes costume. The Friday night audience was particularly entertained by the play, and that performance ended with Mrs. Sabens introducing all cast and crew members. Special recognition was given to the seniors, many of whom had been in the play for three or four years in a row. Student Director Amy Weisflog received a gift for her work on the play; the cast and crew members also presented Mrs. Sabens with tokens of their appreciation for her support of their efforts. The night ended a fun year for the cast and crew of Dirty Work in High Places; everyone worked hard but managed to have a good time, too.

Christmas Dance, Directed by Student Council

"Sealed with a Kiss was the theme for the 1991 Christmas Dance, which was sponsored by Clinton Prairie's high school student council. The dance was for students in grades 9-12 only and was held on Saturday night, December 21. Tickets were sold at $8 per couple.

Approximately 60 couples attended the Christmas Dance, which started at 8:00 P.M. and lasted until 11:00 P.M. The fun took place in the cafeteria, where there was plenty of room for all to enjoy this special night. Silver, red, and green decorations were used to make the occasion more festive, and there was a centerpiece made of candy kisses and ribbon. The students enjoyed refreshments of punch, mints, and cookies while listening to music provided by DJ's Brian Clark and Darian Trimble. As an added attraction, one of the chaperones, teacher Mr. Jeff Wilson, played Christmas carols on the piano. In order to keep the mood light and informal, no king and queen were crowned. All those who attended seemed to have a good time, going home in anticipation of the upcoming holidays and vacation from schoolwork.

Gophers Win Hardwood Game

Megan Zipperian Crowned Queen

Clinton Prairie's annual hardwood basketball game was played on Friday, January 24, against Zionsville. The Gophers fought hard against the Eagles and led at halftime by a score of 21-13.

Hardwood ceremonies were held during halftime of the varsity game. Megan Zipperian was crowned the 1992 Hardwood Queen. She was escorted by Rod Lone. Because last year's queen, Anne Swackhamer, could not return, senior basketball players Ryan Roberts and Nick Rudd crowned the new queen. Her court consisted of seniors Jennifer Hawkins escorted by Jerry Oesterling, Gina Lock escorted by Dennis Brettnacher, Sandra Reed escorted by Brant Orange, and Liz Tate escorted by Tyler Swan. Junior representative Angie Elliott was escorted by Greg Maish; Sophomore Courtney Kinsler was escorted by Mark Fuller; and Freshman Stephanie Lock was escorted by Neil Moyer. The Gophers defeated Zionsville in an exciting game, with the final score ending at 54-50.

The night was ended with a dance for grades 7 through 12 which was sponsored by the Student Council. Brian Clark and Darian Trimble provided the music.

Seniors Nick Rudd and Ryan Roberts crowned the new queen.

1992 Revue at Clinton Prairie

I would like to thank everyone involved with the 1992 Revue, "The Spice of Life." Everyone put forth so much hard work and dedication, and I really appreciated you making my job easier.

I don't want to single out anyone out for their help, because the show wouldn't have gone on without each and everyone of you.

Thanks for all the memories!

Coming to America ...

CPHS Hosts Four Exchange Students

Name: Keiko Yamasaki

Home Country: Japan

Differences Between Japanese and American Schools: wear uniforms in Japan, can't choose classes there, teachers change rooms rather than students, no junior high, 8 classrooms with 50 students each, 3 semesters - start in early April and finish the following March, after lunch everyone cleans the classrooms

Favorite Things About America: food (especially hamburgers, cookies, cakes) and the cheap prices of everything

Favorite American Fashion Fad: Levis and GAP clothes

Things Missed Most About Home: family, friends, foods, room, parties

Favorite American Actor and Actress: Christian Slater and Julia Roberts

Favorite American Movie: Wild Hearts Can't Be Broken

Name: Marco Moeller

Home Country: Germany

Differences Between German and American Schools: CPHS has much more modern computer lab, no TV's in German classrooms, longer school days in American schools, more variety in German classes

Favorite Things About America: choice of which classes to take, and "being free, independent from home, is a great feeling"

Favorite American Fashion Fads: colorful shirts and caps

Things Missed Most About Home: interest in bicycles and more space for riding them, friends and family, the sea ("I live near a big harbor at the coast of the North Sea!")

Favorite American Actor and Actress: Kevin Costner, Bill Cosby, Arnold Schwarzenegger, and Julia Roberts

Favorite American Movie: Terminator II

Name: Simon Steiner

Home Country: Switzerland

Differences Between Swiss Schools and American Schools: "At my school in Switzerland, nobody else but teachers are allowed to come to school by cars; that's why we have three big underground bicycle parking halls."

Favorite Thing About America: the fact that American girls and women shave their legs, which is not usual at all in Switzerland

Favorite American Fashion Fad: jeans and T-shirts ("I also got my left ear pierced.")

Things Missed Most About Home: "In the beginning I missed my family, but now I miss mostly the big mountains, as well as orienteering, which is a sport similar to cross-country."

Favorite American Actress: Julia Roberts, because she's so pretty ("just bad that she cut her good-looking long hair")

Favorite American Movie: Terminator II

Name: Leonardo Rodriguez

Home Country: Mexico

Differences Between Mexican Schools and American Schools: Mexico has 6 years of elementary school, 3 years of secondary school, and 3 years of preparatory school; Mexico includes more world history and geography

Favorite Thing About America: no pollution

Favorite American Fashion Fads: hypercolor T-shirts, but basically it's the same as in Mexico

Things Missed Most About Home: family (of course), friends, food

Favorite American Actress: Jodie Foster

Favorite American Movies: Pretty Woman and The Silence of the Lambs

1992 Junior-Senior Prom

"Almost Paradise" was the theme of the 1992 prom which was held at Judi Painter's Catering Service in Lafayette. The ballroom was decorated with castles, balloons on the dancefloor and candles on the tables. Fresh fruit, cheese, crackers, mints, and sodas were available for the couples to snack on. Music was provided by the band Dog Gone Bad.

Seniors Gina Lock and Rod Lone were crowned Prom Queen and King during the first break. Their court consisted of Seniors Jennifer Hawkins, Jenny Loy, Sandra Reed, Dennis Brettnacher, Dave Friedrich, and Ryan Roberts. Juniors Keisha Smith and Jeff Brooke were crowned Princess and Prince. Their court members were Angie Elliott, Kirsten Prater, Danielle McGraw, Casey Dillon, Greg Maish, and Mike Rominger. The royal court danced to the dedication song "When I'm With You" and were joined by the other couples. Later on in the evening, the traditional garter exchange took place. The girls joined in a circle as their dates turned their back to them.

Juniors Jeff Brooke and Keisha Smith were crowned Prince and Princess while Seniors Rod Lone and Gina Lock were King and Queen..

The 1992 Prom Court consisted of, front row, C.Dillon, D. McGraw, S. Reed, D. Friedrich; back row, M. Rominger, K. Prater, G. Maish, A. Elliott, J. Brooke, K. Smith, G. Lock, R. Lone, J. Hawkins, R. Roberts, J. Loy, D. Brettnacher.

The couples finished their last dance at 11:00 pm and left for Post Prom. This year the tradition was broken and the post prom was held at Arrowhead Bowling Alley in Lafayette until 3:00 am. Many Seniors parents worked together to put on "Fiesta '92." Activities included bowling, playing pool, and video games. The refreshments served were: nachos, dip, tacos, elephant ears, and a variety of desserts. The fun-filled night ended with many door prizes being awarded by generous merchants.

CPHS Class of 1992 Bids Farewell,

The CPHS Class of 1992 said their last farewells to teachers and classmates on Saturday evening, May 23, 1992, at 7:00 P.M. in the Clinton Prairie gymnasium. After the traditional Fanfare and Processional, Reverend Shan Sheridan gave the invocation prayer, followed by Commencement Speaker, Superintendent Charles Fink. Principal Myron Chezem then presented the valedictorian of the senior class, Nick Rudd, followed by the salutatorian, Brian Clark, each of whom spoke to their classmates one last time. The senior members of the choir then sang the song "Wings" as a tribute to the occasion; Mrs. Patty Catt also directed the concert choir and Prairie Singers as they sang "Place in this World."

The heart of the ceremony, the moment the seniors had long awaited, was Mr. Chezem's presentation of the class to Superintendent Fink, who then accepted the class according to tradition. School Board President David Hudson had the honor of bestowing the prized diplomas to the Class of 1992, and with a flick of a tassel on the graduation cap, each senior became a high school graduate. Reverend James Eldridge led the benediction prayer, and the Fanfare and Recessional accompanied the graduates on their way to other endeavors in their lives.

Good friends Andy Jahn and Brian Clark anxiously make the long walk to their seats.

The weight of the moment is evident on the face of graduating senior Aaron Jackson.

Good Luck Seniors!

And the Winner is ...

The yearbook staff polled some of the seniors at lunch to come up with opinions of whom they thought to be the best in their class in a variety of categories. Differing from last year, we decided that one person would be allowed to win more than one category, thinking along the lines that it would not be fair to let someone else win just because the person chosen had already won in a previous category. A thanks goes out to all who participated in our poll.

SPORTS

Garrett wins 500th Game;

The 1991 Clinton Prairie volleyball team made everyone very proud by being ranked seventh in the state, as well as winning sectional. Another highlight of the season was Coach Connie Garrett earning her 500th victory. Her team record ended up with 30 wins to only 7 losses. The conference record was 3-0.

Lauri Grimes (first team) and Sarah Oesterling (second team) made the all-state team. Seniors Gina Lock, and Mandy Thompson, and Juniors Sarah Oesterling, and Lauri Grimes were chosen for the Hoosier Heartland All - Conference. Lauri Grimes, Gina Lock, Amy Blaydes, and Sarah Oesterling were chosen for our county.

Awards and honors were given to several players, including Sarah Oesterling - top setter (606 assists), Lauri Grimes - top hitter, Amy Blaydes - top passer, Mandy Thompson - top server.

"The team of 1991 improved as much from the beginning to the end of the season as any Gopher team ever, which earned CP a 'Top 20' ranking early in the season, and a ranking of seventh at the end," stated Coach Garrett.

Rachel sets up for a great serve.

The 1991 season was an extremely successful one for Clinton Prairie's junior varsity volleyball team, as the girls finished with an overall record of 18-3, as well as a 3-0 conference record. According to Coach Jill Doades, "The entire team saw vast improvement from the beginning of the season to the end."

Leading the way for the Lady Gophers was Sophomore Julie Reents, who earned the award as "Outstanding Contributor." In addition, Reents, Sophomore Lisa Whitlock, Freshman Crysta Fultz, and Freshman Stephanie Lock all earned a service pin for their contributions to the varsity squad.

The season was enjoyable for team members, fans, and coach alike. Said Coach Doades, "This team had a lot of personality, and I had fun working with them."

Eighth Grade Volleyball is 12-0

Coached by CPHS grad Stacey Joseph, the eighth grade volleyball teams had a super season: the A-team finished undefeated with a record of 12-0, while the B-team ended at a mark of 3-1. According to Coach Joseph, the girls were both coachable and fun to work with. As a finale to a great season, the team defeated Frankfort and Clinton Central at the County Tourney, thus making the eighth grade team the county champs.

Improvement was the key word for the seventh grade volleyball teams during the 1991 season. The A-team finished up the season with a record of 7-5, while the B-team ended at 2-2. According to Coach Michelle Lyon, the teams improved enough to beat Frankfort and Clinton Central, both of whom had beat them as fifth and sixth graders. In addition, they played close matches against Zionsville's undefeated team. Coach Lyon pointed to Reanna Morris and Ashley Ramsey as outstanding A-team servers and setters; to Erin McGraw as an outstanding A-team player in the areas of passing and defense; to Richelle Grimes as an A-team leader; and to B-team players Danielle Adams and Angela Beaver as outstanding servers.

While the seventh grade football team ended their season with a record of 0-5, losing all of their games, they received valuable playing time and improved on their fundamental skills. Nick Dillion, Nick Bond, Jeremiah Julian, Clayton Hughes, and Mike Rothenberger were the outstanding team members. "The kids played hard despite being outmanned in all of their games," Coach Julian said.

Varsity and JV Football Teams

The Clinton Prairie football team got off to a slow start, but improved toward the latter part of the 1991 season. The team's overall record was 2-7, and the conference record was 0-2.

Senior quarterback Ryan Roberts set two new records in his last year of high school. Roberts' career passing yardage was a record-setting 2902 yards, along with his record for career touchdown passes totaling 31.

The football team tried something a little different in 1991: instead of two captains the team decided to have three. Coach Hilgediek called them the "tri-captains"; they were Seniors David Friedrich, Rod Lone, and Ryan Roberts.

Roberts wasn't the only outstanding member on the team. Several Clinton Prairie players received all-conference first team or honorable mention. Members on the all-conference first team were Seniors Ryan Roberts and Jason Ubelhor and Junior Greg Maish. Seniors Rod Lone and Jerry Oesterling received honorable mention. Some of the players received trophies for their outstanding efforts: Outstanding Offensive Lineman - Jerry Oesterling; Outstanding Offensive Back - Greg Maish; Outstanding Defensive Lineman - Rod Lone; and Outstanding Defensive Back - Ryan Roberts.

Reflecting on the 1991 season, Coach Hilgediek commented, "While from a strictly won-loss standpoint this season was a disappointing one, I believe the team competed hard and represented Clinton Prairie well."

The junior varsity football team had a trying 1991 season, ending with a record of 1-5. The season started out poorly, yet through the season the players improved their basic skills to win their fifth game against Brebeuf. The one victory was especially memorable, since it was the team's first victory for Clinton Prairie from their fifth grade year to the present. According to Coach Terry Boes, "The victory over Brebeuf was the first win for every player on the team, and it will not be the last."

Coach Boes also recognized the following team members as the most outstanding players: Mark Fuller and Shawn Golden as offensive backs; Mike Atkinson and Corky Benefiel as outstanding offensive linemen; Andy Albaugh and Jeremy Maish as defensive linemen; and Brett Ward as outstanding defensive back.

Team members wait a chance to give it their all.

A Happy Ending for Clinton

Clinton Prairie's 1991 varsity cross country team ended its season with a 6-2 record. The team, coached by Mr. Bob Smith, finished second in the Hoosier Heartland Conference (HHC) meet by losing to Rossville and placed seventh at the Carmel Sectional.

Many outstanding members led to the team's great season, but two stood out from the rest. Senior Jason Whitlock, placed second in conference and third in county. He was also named most valuable player (MVP) of the team. Ninth grader Marc Garriott, placed fourth in conference and fifth in county.

Coach Bob Smith commented, "This team was a pleasure to coach."

Lone Breaks Record for Career Wins

The 1991-1992 varsity wrestling team finished its season with a record of 6-15. Although the team as a whole didn't do well, the individuals were hard working and did very well for being a young team.

"The team was probably better than their record indicated," stated Coach Boes, "but they were very inconsistent. Our young wrestlers-two freshmen and four sophomores did quite well for their amount of experience. Our two seniors and five juniors carried us through the season with their leadership."

Rod Lone, Evan Hodgen, and Wade Wells were the outstanding team members. All three went to Semi-State and CP fans are looking forward to seeing Evan and Wade return and hopefully go on to State in the 1992-93 season.

Senior Rod Lone broke the school record for most career wins with 99. The old record was 98 and held by Ty Baker. Rod also was a three-time conference champ, two-time Sectional champ, two-time Regional runner-up and two-time Semi-State qualifier. He now holds the record for career takedowns and the 171 lb. record of 29-5.

Varsity Girls Win Second

The 1991-92 varsity girls' basketball team started out with a challenging season but came out on top once again. Their overall record was 11-10, and their conference record was 1-2.

The varsity team made everyone very proud by winning sectionals for the second year in a row. This was the first time ever for CP to have back-to-back sectional championships in basketball.

All of the girls did an exceptional job, but two members who received special recognition were Lauri Grimes, who was the leading scorer and rebounder and made the first all-conference team; and Jennifer Hawkins, who made the second all-conference team.

An excited Coach Connie Garrett stated, "It took an entire season for this team to come together, with each individual accepting her role as a team player, but the end result was great as CP won the Sectional!"

The junior varsity girls ended their season with an outstanding record of 11-4. The girls also won the Clinton Central tournament for the third year in a row.

"Although we lacked overall numbers and consistent team members game-to-game, quarter-to-quarter, the girls did an outstanding job representing themselves and the school. They have a lot to be proud of in their accomplishments," stated the JV coach, Dan Hilgediek.

JH Boys' Teams Work on Skills

The eighth grade boys basketball team had a fair season. The A-team ended the year with a 4-13 record and a 1-2 conference record. While the B-team finished the season with a record of 3-6 and a conference record of 2-0. Coach Chris Ream said that the leading scorer was Ken Stilling and the leading rebounders were Cory Caplinger and Jacob Perry.

The seventh grade basketball team, coached by Mr. Randy Cooper, had a rather disappointing season. The team ended at a mark of 2-13. Although there were some promising players on the team, Coach Cooper felt that the boys would have to work harder in future years if they want to have winning season.

Track Teams Make Great Effort

The varsity boys track team ended the regular season with a record of 3-8. First-year coach Mr. Shaun Wines was "pleased with the performance, even though our record wasn't spectacular."

The team was led by Seniors Jason Whitlock, who scored 191 points during the season ; Kreg Zeis, who joined the 100-point club and also broke the school pole-vault record; David Friedrich, who showed great leadership skills; and Sophomore Mark Fuller, who really gave the team a lift.

According to Coach Wines, "All of our young men gave great efforts in meets, worked hard in practice, and continually improved throughout the season."

Varsity Baseball Team Wins

Clinton Prairie's 1992 varsity baseball team was coached by Mr. Dan Hilgediek. The team's record was 13-10 with one game remaining, and the conference record was 4-2, which made them the Hoosier Heartland Co-Champions. Several records were broken during the season. Jeremy Maish hit the most triples in a game; Greg Maish set a record for most bases stolen in a season and in a game; and Casey Dillon tied the record for most walks in a game. In addition, Chad Martin, Ryan Roberts, Matt VanMeter, and Greg Maish were voted to the All-Conference team. Coach Hilgediek said, "This team had a very successful year. Of our three main goals, we were able to accomplish the first two and are looking forward to the third: a sectional championship."

HIGH SCHOOL ACE

The High School ACE team participated in two Spellbowls and two Quizbowls this year. Darian Trimble enjoys this club because he said it gave him a chance to learn different things about the past history of the world. Another Junior member, Jimie Davis stated, "ACE is fun, you get to meet people and go to meets at other schools. The guys at some of the meets are really cute, plus they're smart."

JUNIOR HIGH ACE

Clinton Prairie's Junior High ACE Team worked hard throughout the 1991-92 school year in order to compete at the annual state-sponsored academic competitions. The Area Spell Bowl was held at Clinton Central, while the State Spell Bowl took place at Klondike. Members also participated in the Clinton County Spell Bee here at CPHS, which ACE Team member Vanessa Murphy won. Once the spelling competitions were over, the ACE members began researching areas relating to the theme of exploration. This was in preparation for the State Quiz Bowl to be held at Sunnyside Middle School in May.

ELEMENTARY AIDES

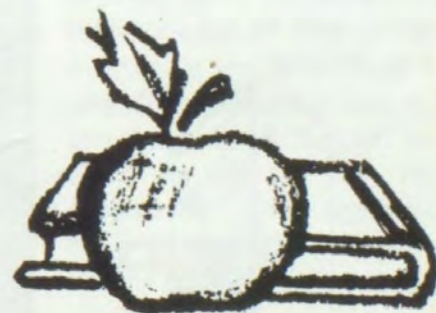

Seventh-grader Ashley Ramsey was one of the students who acted as an Elementary Teacher Aide. Ashley worked in the elementary office at the request of Mr. Borges. Some of her duties included filling orders for the teachers, distributing the mail, and doing odd jobs. Stated Ashley, "It was a lot of fun and I would like to work in the office again sometime."

HIGH SCHOOL AIDES

The aides helped teachers with many different jobs such as running errands, grading papers and helping with bulletin boards. Brooke Segal, an aide for Mrs. Sabens, said "I'm glad I'm an aide for Mrs. Sabens because I'd like to be a teacher and I felt like I had some of the responsibilities of a teacher."

The High School aides are: Front row from left; T. Winger, C. Kinsler, R. Rabensteine, L. Whitlock; Second row: B. Fingerle, M. Grammon, B. Segal, L. Tate, A. Weisflog; Third row: K. Smith, T. LIBRARY AIDES

Rhonda Rabensteine, who has been a library aide since her freshman year, was one of the few aides during the 1991-92 school year. Rhonda enjoys being in the library, especially since she enjoys reading. Helping in the library allows her to be one of the first to get good books. Rhonda said, "I like being in the library and helping Mrs. Travis." She also checks out books for students and helps distribute those nasty overdue notices.

OFFICE AIDES

Clinton Prairie's Office Aides helped Mrs. Stillings and other front office staff members by delivering messages and gifts, taking phone messages, and signing people in and out of school for appointments. The students give up their study halls to work in the office, and their help is appreciated by all, especially Mrs. Stillings.

JUNIOR HIGH BAND

The junior high band is much like the high school band. Its members participate in contests and perform at concerts. Sara Brooks, a seventh grader, says that she joined the band because she enjoys music. She did say that she wished the band could play more modern music.

Members of the Junior High Band are, front row, left to right: M. Robbins, W. Garrett, B. Toney, R. Kinsler, L. Anderson, H. Hickman, R. Grimes, D. Mills, E. Good; second row, N. Glovacki, C. HIGH SCHOOL BAND

During the 1991- 92 school year, the high school band participated in many parades and contests. The band also marched at home football games. Some band members played in stage band and pep band. Joe Flowers, a senior who's played an instrument since he was 3, states, "This year has been the best year, yet. Mr. Bertucci has done so much for the department. He has organized and persuaded the students to do a lot more."

JUNIOR HIGH CHOIR

Crysta Calloway, an eighth grade student, was a member of the Junior High Choir during the 1991-92 school year. The choir took part in the Christmas concert, the junior high organizational contest, and the spring concert. Crysta, like many other students, joined the choir because of her love of singing, and she stated, "I would like to tell anyone who even likes to sing a little bit to join choir. It's really fun, and we do lots of great stuff."

Members of the Junior High Choir are; front to back, front row, B. Elliott, J. Mills, C. Calloway, B. Friend, A. Coapstick, D. Krueger, M. Alvarez, A. Gipson, A. Reddix; second row, K. Brewer, C. Clinton Prairie's Drama Club took part in several activities during the 1991-92 school year. The club attended two plays at the Frankfort Civic Theatre and went to see Nunsense at Beef and Boards Dinner Theatre, as well as putting on the fall play, Dirty Work in High Places here at CPHS. In addition, the Drama Club sponsored a costume dance in April. The club's sponsor, Mrs. Sarah Sabens, said that Drama Club is a good opportunity for students to see theatrical presentations outside of Clinton Prairie. Junior Drama Club member Danea Cragun commented, "I would love for more people, especially guys, to try out and participate in drama."

FCA

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes participated in numerous activities this year. The club held a can food drive, they started a breakfast club second and fourth Wednesdays of every month and participated in Walk America. The group also made a donation to the Share Program and went Christmas caroling. Missy Meece, a senior member of FCA say's, "FCA is not just for athletes, anybody can join. HS STUDENT COUNCIL

Clinton Prairie's Student Council organized many events during the 1991-92 school year. The council arranged the Homecoming and Hardwood ceremonies, sponsored the Christmas dance, donated money to the Rabensteine fund, and also participated in the PBA accreditation. When senior members Mandy Thompson and Angie Neal were asked why they joined this organization, they said that they wanted to take part in the decisions that effect them and the student body.

YEARBOOK

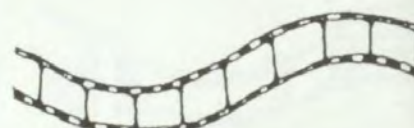

The Yearbook staff sold ads at the beginning of the year to cut down on costs. The staff also taped a commercial in order to get people interested in buying a yearbook. "We had a really good group of hardworking people this year. There were less members than before, so we had to work extra hard to get things done," said editor Jenny Watkins. Jenny is only a Junior so the staff for next year is looking forward to having her back.

Team work was the key phrase this year. With only five of us first semester, and then seven second semester, we had to work extra hard to get everything done on time. Thank you for that. Thank you for putting in the extra time and patience this year to make this book the best book yet. And it is.

Now for my individual thank you's. Thank you Mrs. Sabens for everything. You made this year fun for all of us. When the pressure was getting high, you made us cakes and let us have pizzas. Thank you Kirsten for being my business manager and all the little jobs you did so well and didn't complain. Thank you Kim for all the drawings and pictures you drew for the book. They made it great! Thanks Becci for the boxes and all the copy you typed. It really helped me a lot to know that it was getting done without me having to ask. Thank you Missy for doing all of those captions. Boy do I hate those things! I'm glad you were there so I wouldn't have to do them! Thanks Sandy for all the little jobs you did to make my job easier. Thank you Megan for doing lunch duty. You always volunteered and you'll never know how much I appreciated that.

Thank you all for the team work. Can you guys believe we got to this page, the last page? It seemed like we never would at first. I made six new friends this year and I will miss your dedication next year.
