Whether we are turning the pages of a magazine or flipping through the old yellow torn pages of our high school yearbook, Clinton Prairie will always remain in all of our lives. It is our heritage of days that we spent growing and maturing to become the person we are. The year 1994-1995 is one of those school years full of laughter, making new friends, and having fun with old ones. It is a year filled with fond memories in a time we are young, full of life, and have many dreams and plans for a future filled with happiness.

STUDENTS CHOICE AWARDS

This year will go down in history as the time when the O.J. Simpson trial dominated all news broadcastings and airways everyday. This has been a season with no major league baseball or World Series which we've had since 1903. These unforgettable events will remain in our minds for a very long time. It is important that we remember the good things of this year also. We asked the student body some of their favorites of 1994-1995. Here are the results from our survey.

NIGHTMARE OF A LIFETIME!

"In seventh grade, Chris Loveless and I were doing a play in English. Our scene required a girl, so we flipped a coin. Guess who had to be the girl? I had to wear a pink, polka-dotted dress, high heels, and a long curly wig!"

- Jeremy Dority ****

"When I was a sophomore at Purdue, I was walking to class one day and suddenly felt something splatter on the top of my head. After reaching up to touch this 'something' I realized I had been bombed with bird droppings, even though there were no trees anywhere around me. The stupid bird had hit me in wide-open territory! The worst part of it all was that I couldn't go back to the dorm to wash my hair, because I had to take a history test in less than ten minutes; so I just went into the nearest restroom, stuck my head under the faucet, and did my best to wash the mess off the top of my head and out of my hair." - Mrs. Sabens ***

"On my sixteenth birthday, my mom and family sent balloons to me at school and had a clown sing to me in front of the class." -Mindy Orem **

"I dribbled the ball to the wrong basket." -Dallas Garrett **

"When I mooned the Clinton Central Cheerleaders, they told my coach, and I had to write them an apologetic letter."

-Mike Rothenberger ****

"When at my boyfriend's family reunion, we were all seated around a big beautiful table eating dinner. His aunts, uncles, grandparents, cousins, everyone was there. This family is rather sophisticated so I was pretty nervous, hoping to do everything right. Well, I failed. I dropped my napkin and leaned over to pick it up when I was made fully aware that I didn't scoot far away from the table. My head hit the table and plate very hard, causing food and dishes to fall everywhere. It was awful." - Charity Baker ***

"Once when I was staying with Bonnie Warfield, we went to Ponderosa. When we got ready to leave, I started vomiting all over (the place). The worst part of it was that there was a really cute guy looking at me when it happened!" -April Stoker ****

"Charity Baker and I were at our boyfriends' swim meet. Everyone was filing off the bleachers and Charity and I were standing by the doors, waiting for the guys to get dressed. My boyfriend's brother came running over and gave me a big hug, which made me lose my balance. A desk for the timers was behind me and I fell back on it, causing it to slide. I knocked a whole bunch of people out of the way. I thought I was going to die!" -Rachelle Edgar ***

"I was in a play at the park and my cousin and I were doing an act called 'Tripping Twins.' We were singing and my wig fell off and, worst of all, I wet my pants." -Morgan Fultz ****

"My first day of driving in Driver's Ed, I was about to leave the school parking lot and the power steering went out of the car. Mr. Baker made me think I really messed up something in the car. I don't think I'll ever live that one down." - Michelle Bandy **

"It happened at my aunt's 60th birthday party. It was one of those occasions when you haven't seen family members since you were little and now they see you all grown up!?!? We were all finishing up on the meal outside when my cousins got up in front of everyone to give a speech about their mother. It was supposed to be a serious moment. Well, everything was going fine until a strong wind came, blowing my uncle's plate of half-eaten slimy coleslaw all over me. I absolutely detest coleslaw! I tried to keep my composure, but everyone was staring at me since I was seated at the front table. To top it all off, the moment's on tape forever!"

-Danetta Cragun ***

"I was at Bluemkes' birthday party at McDonalds. I had to go to the bathroom. So I followed their cousins to the bathroom. I thought they were boys! Well, I followed them right into the girls' restroom! Everybody was laughing and screaming!" -Josh Larsh ****

"Having lost a set of van keys without any idea of where they were was embarrassing to me."

-Mr. Fox **

"I airballed a free-throw during a freshmen game." -Andy Wanscott **

"It was my first day at a new school. I was sitting at my desk, and I dropped my pencil. The desk I was sitting at had a bar going across the right side that connected the desk to the seat. When I reached over too far, the desk toppled over with me still in it."

Blame it on the rain...

Charity Baker Named Queen

With balloons bouncing in the chilled air and reunions in every glance, Homecoming begins. Students and alumni alike file into the game. Homecoming to everyone means good times, football and of course, rain.

The ceremonies originally scheduled for the September 23 game against the rival Clinton Central Bulldogs were postponed to the September 30 game in which Clinton Prairie played host to the Lapel Bulldogs. Nevertheless, spirits were high and the team was strong. The halftime score left Lapel up 12-7, but the Gophers were still fighting.

With the buzzer came the beginning of the Homecoming ceremonies. The sheet sign contest, in the place of the traditional float contest, was judged the previous week, and the winners were announced. The Drama Club took first place, followed by the freshman at a close second, and the Future Farmers of America brought in third place. Thanks went to the Star City Corvette Club, which served as the Queen's Court carriages, driving around each of the following representatives: Freshman Beth Friedrich, and escort Wes Lane; Sophomore Angela Beaver with Joey Stillwell; and Junior Stephanie Sharp on Ken Stillings' arm. The Senior court included the following: Queen Charity Baker and Jake Tharp, Kara Elliott and Nick Wainscott, Crysta Fultz and Jade Kas, Katie Hansell and Dusty Smith, and Stephanie Lock and Marc Garriott.

With the Queen crowned, Prairie headed into the third quarter with vigor, leading 13-12 at the horn. Although the game didn't end on a victorious note, CP fans were certainly proud of the team. Cory Caplinger threw for 266 yards and two touchdowns, both run by Mike Rothenberger, and Jon Haug added 66 yards rushing to his stats.

Senior Charity Baker, escorted by Jake Tharp, is named Clinton Prairie's 1994 Homecoming Queen.

Members of the football team watch excitedly as they score a touchdown.

On October 4, 1994 the Science Club sponsored the annual Duke of the Court ceremonies. It was held in between the J.V. and varsity volleyball games against Rensselaer.

As the junior varsity team trampled over the Tigers, the six senior candidates awaited the announcement of the 1994 Duke of Court.

The six senior candidates and their escorts included: Marc Garriott and Anitra Chestnut; Jade Kas and Cory Howe; Dustin Smith and Katie Hansell; Nick Wainscott and Kara Elliott; John Fultz and Danetta Cragun; and Jake Tharp and Charity Baker. The underclassmen and their escorts included: Juniors, Jon Haug and Jody Frankenberger; Sophomores, Brad Garriott and Ashley Ramsey; and Freshmen Clayton Kinsler and Libby Edmondson. After the wait, Marc Garriott was awarded the sceptor as the 1994 Duke of the Court. That night also brought forth another win for the Lady Gophers as they defeated the Rensselaer Tigers.

The Beverly Hillbillies

The Beverly Hillbillies was the Drama Club's 1994 production of the Fall Play. In it starred the Clampett family with Seniors Jay Brooks as Uncle Jed, Danetta Cragun as Granny, Andy Remaly as Jethro, and Junior Rachel Kinsler as Elly Mae. When Jed Clampett discovered oil, the Clampetts quickly packed their duds and moved from their simple mountain cabin in the Ozarks to Beverly Hills where there were swimmin' pools and movie stars. The Clampetts had to adjust to a new life in a Californy mansion with a cement pond, doorbell, and a box on the wall that you talk into. Mr. Drysdale did everything he could to insure that the Clampetts would keep their account in his bank. When he learned that Granny was wanting to move back home, he gave them a party with many guests in order to introduce them to society. The Clampetts were plain country folks who didn't realize that some people were trying to slicker them out of their money. It was a delightful comedy where the Beverly Hillbillies outsmarted everyone in the end.

The entire production was based upon the original television program of "The Beverly Hillbillies" which was created by Paul Henning.

Cast and Crew of The Beverly Hillbillies.

What can I say? I have to admit that this year's fall play was very ...um...interesting! I was shocked at how well some people fit their parts. (Especially Carey and the cuckoo clock!) I'll never forget all of the fun we had trying to work out those tough lines (silly city fellers) and the not-so-tough lines (Frederika, what party?) that seemed impossible. Thank you all for making this a very enjoyable and memorable experience for me.

"Holiday Magic" Fills Air

"Holiday Magic" was in the air on the evening of December 10, as Clinton Prairie's meticulously dressed students fought the cold to make their appearance at the 1994 Christmas Dance. Thanks went to the FHA, who sponsored the dance, and whose hard work made the night an enjoyable experience for all in attendance.

The Multi-purpose room was elegantly decorated in teal balloons, silver streamers, and black trim. The dance began at 8:00 and ended at 11:00. Cookies and punch satisfied the munchies as the students danced the night away to DJ Nick Smith's selections.

Conditions Suspend Game;

Hardwood came about in the same manner as Homecoming: after many hours of tedious planning on the part of the Student Council, Hardwood was postponed due to hazardous weather conditions. The ceremonies yielded to the ice of basketball season rather than the rain of football time. But all in the course of time Hardwood took place and all went very well.

Originally the ceremony was to take place on January 27th against the Turkey Run Warriors; but instead the court filed up at the February 10th game against the Carroll Cougars. The attendants, beginning with the class representatives and escorts, were the following: Freshman Melanie Fearnow, escorted by Jamey Hickman; Sophomore Brooke Elliott and escort Chris Boesch; Junior Carly Kinsler and escort Ryan Thomas. The Queen candidates included in the court were the following seniors: Kara Elliott and Josh Grissom, Crysta Fultz and Nick Wainscott, Katie Hansell and Dusty Smith, Stephanie Lock and Carey Benefiel, and Molly McGraw with Andy Remaly. After much expectation Crysta Fultz was named Hardwood Queen on the part of the fans and the court and was crowned by the 1994 Hardwood Queen, Jamie Pelfree. Ms. Pelfree was escorted by Jon Maish. The crown was carefully carried by the Prince Keegan McGraw, and the bouquet by Princess Brandee Vice.

The Varsity game was a gut-wrencher with neck in neck plays the whole night. The Cougars finally prevailed at the buzzer with a one point victory. The team scored 12 three-point shots, the highest ever in a game at Clinton Praire.

Revue Cast and Crews,

This was the best and most enjoyable Revue I have been in. I want to thank all of you for all of the effort you put forth and for your good attitudes while doing it. After the show, many people made the comment that they never really liked country music, but they loved the Revue. That wouldn't have been possible without each and every one of you. Thanks again!

Promgoers dance the night away with their friends.

The romance began in the black, cream, and gold filled room. It was May 6, 8:00, and Prom 1995 was underway. With the guys and gals dressed to the "T", the music pumped through and the dancing began. Clinton Prairie's finest were glitzed and and glittered for the night everyone had anticipated for a year. The theme was "Here With Me," the REO Speedwagon hit.

The Court consisted of the following juniors: Princess Stephanie Sharp, Brooke Fultz, Holly Hickman, and Carly Kinsler; Prince Cory Caplinger, Jon Haug, Dustin Howe, and Chad Lanum. The senior court included the following: Queen Katie Hansell, Anitra Chestnut, Cory Howe, and Stephanie Lock; King Jade Kas, members: Derek Maish, Andy Remaly, and Dusty Smith.

The traditional garter ceremony took place not long after the crowning, with the girls propping their legs on the already-kneeling guys' knees. The men proceeded to remove the garters with a smile.

Post-Prom was at Newtowne Fitness Center, from 11:30 a.m.-3:00 a.m. The theme was "A Beach Party" and swimming, food and fun were readily available for all.

Once again Clinton Prairie students had safe, responsible fun, and the night was one to be remembered forever.

Commencement exercises for Clinton Prairie's Class of 1995 took place on Saturday evening, May 27, at 7:00 p.m. in the CP gymnasium.

After the traditional entrance by the class members, accompanied musically by CP's band, directed by Mr. James Bertucci, Principal Myron Chezem welcomed the crowd which had assembled for the graduation ceremony. Mr. Oren Rector spoke to the waiting graduates-to-be, and he was followed by Valedictorian Kara Elliott and her address to fellow classmates. Stephanie Lock spoke as the Salutatorian of the Class of 1995. Mrs. Patty Catt and her Choir and Prairie Singers then presented songs for the enjoyment of the audience; senior members of the singing groups were featured in these presentations.

Then came the long-awaited moment for the seniors: Mr. Chezem presented the Class of 1995 to Superintendent Charles Fink, who accepted the class. Diplomas were handed out by school board members, and Class President Andrew Remaly led the seniors in the traditional tassel ceremony. The newly-graduated seniors then made their way out of the gym to be congratulated by family members and friends. As always, both tears and laughter accompanied the completion of the graduation ceremony. But whatever the emotion, the Class of 1995 was on its way to other areas of life, outside the walls of Clinton Prairie Junior-Senior High School.

THE CLASS OF '95 IS

The members of the class of '95 have great aspirations for the future and here is just an idea of what the class expects will happen to some of their classmates. Unique as they may be, the senior class had no problem fulfilling each of these categories. Within the senior class, like any other senior class throughout time, there are many hopes and dreams for this "Great Adventure" called life. Someday down the road, the members of this class will look back on "These good ole' high school days" and maybe by then someone will have achieved what everyone had believed they would.

Q: If you were accidentally locked inside the mall of your choice overnight, what would you do while you were there?

A: "I would go through and strip all of the mannequins."

-Tracie Ward

A: "I'd like to say I'd do something witty and productive, but I'd probably just play with toy-store toys, maybe grab a pair of rollerskates and a tape player and just skate all night. Maybe I'd go to the bookstore and get a new Clive B. book."--Misti Alvarez

Q: If you were accidentally locked inside the mall of your choice overnight, what would you do while you were there?

A: " I would hit all the toy stores first. I would open all the boxes carefully and play with all the cool toys. After that I would go through all the stores, thoroughly browsing through them to see what was there. FOOTBALL TEAM SHOWS

The 1994 season was a tough one for Clinton Prairie's varsity football players. The team, having a record of 0-9 and being 0-5 in the Hoosier Heartland Conference, lacked the leadership of seniors. But even with only one senior player, Steve Garrett, the Clinton Prairie Gophers never gave up. This determination was a major factor in gaining respect from the coaching staff, which helped the team to finish out the season.

Even though the 1994 season wasn't the greatest, there were a few records broken. Junior Cory Caplinger broke the record for single game passing yards, with an outstanding 255 yards. Caplinger also was the outstanding offensive back, as well as being named to the all-conference first team and the all-county team. Sophomore Mike Rothenberger broke the record for individual single game receiving yards, with a grand total of 201 yards. Along with that, the team broke the record for single game passing yards with an impressive 266 yards.

Junior Jon Haug and Senior Steve Garrett also were outstanding members of the 1994 team. Haug was the outstanding defensive back. He was on the all-conference first team and the all-county team. Garrett was the outstanding defensive and offensive lineman. He was an all-conference honorable mention and was on the all county team, too.

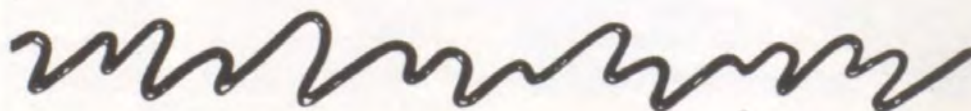

"This year's team was very small in size and experience. With only one senior, this team, each game, was asked to go against teams that had them outmanned. But, the team never backed off, never quit, and made great strides from the first game to the last," remarked Coach Dan Hilgediek. "With many players returning and a renewed commitment, we are all looking forward to next year."

Kas Becomes All-Time Leading Scorer

The season for the 1994 CPHS Varsity Basketball team was interesting, and a new experience for all. Many of the players had to adjust to new playing roles due to injuries and to two new great coaches.

The team ended the season with a record of 5-16 overall and 1-6 in the conference. Senior Jade Kas, the all time scoring leader with 1325 points over the past four years, led the team to many victories. Senior Jake Tharp made the most 3 pointers in a game with 7, and 64 in a season.

Some outstanding players were Kas, Tharp, Neil Moyer, and Cory Caplinger, and Marc Garriott. Caplinger was the team's MVP, while Kas won the Purple Heart award.

Coach Chezem stated, "The players did an outstanding job adjusting to a new system. Although our record doesn't reflect it, we actually raised the quality of play in the C.P. Basketball program."

Something To Think About

If we could shrink the earth's population to a village of precisely 100 people, but all the existing nations remained the same, it would look like this:

57 Asians
21 Europeans
14 Western Hemisphere People
8 Africans
70 of the 100 would be non-white and non-Christian
30 would be white and Christian
50% of the entire world's wealth would be in the hands of only
6 people--all 6 would be citizens of the United States
70 would be unable to read
50 would suffer from malnutrition;
80 would live in substandard housing,
1 would have a university education

Lasting Memories of 95

Danetta's Memories

What a fascinating year this has been for making and sharing memories that will last a lifetime. When I look back to older emerald editions, I see how much times and life has changed. This school is filled with fond memories of teenagers who walked these same halls. So much history remains in this small country school.

I wish to thank Mrs. Sabens and the entire yearbook staff for your unfailing dedication and hard work that made this yearbook possible.

It's so hard to believe that the Clinton Prairie elementary started in 1985, and here many of us are a whole decade later: older, maturer, and graduating.

Here in this yearbook will always remain our priceless joy of youth and life. No school year is ever just like any other school year. Each is filled with old and new traditions, friends, and wonderful events.

All in all, it was a never-to-be-forgotten year-one of those school years which come seldom into any life, but leave a rich heritage of beautiful memories in their going.

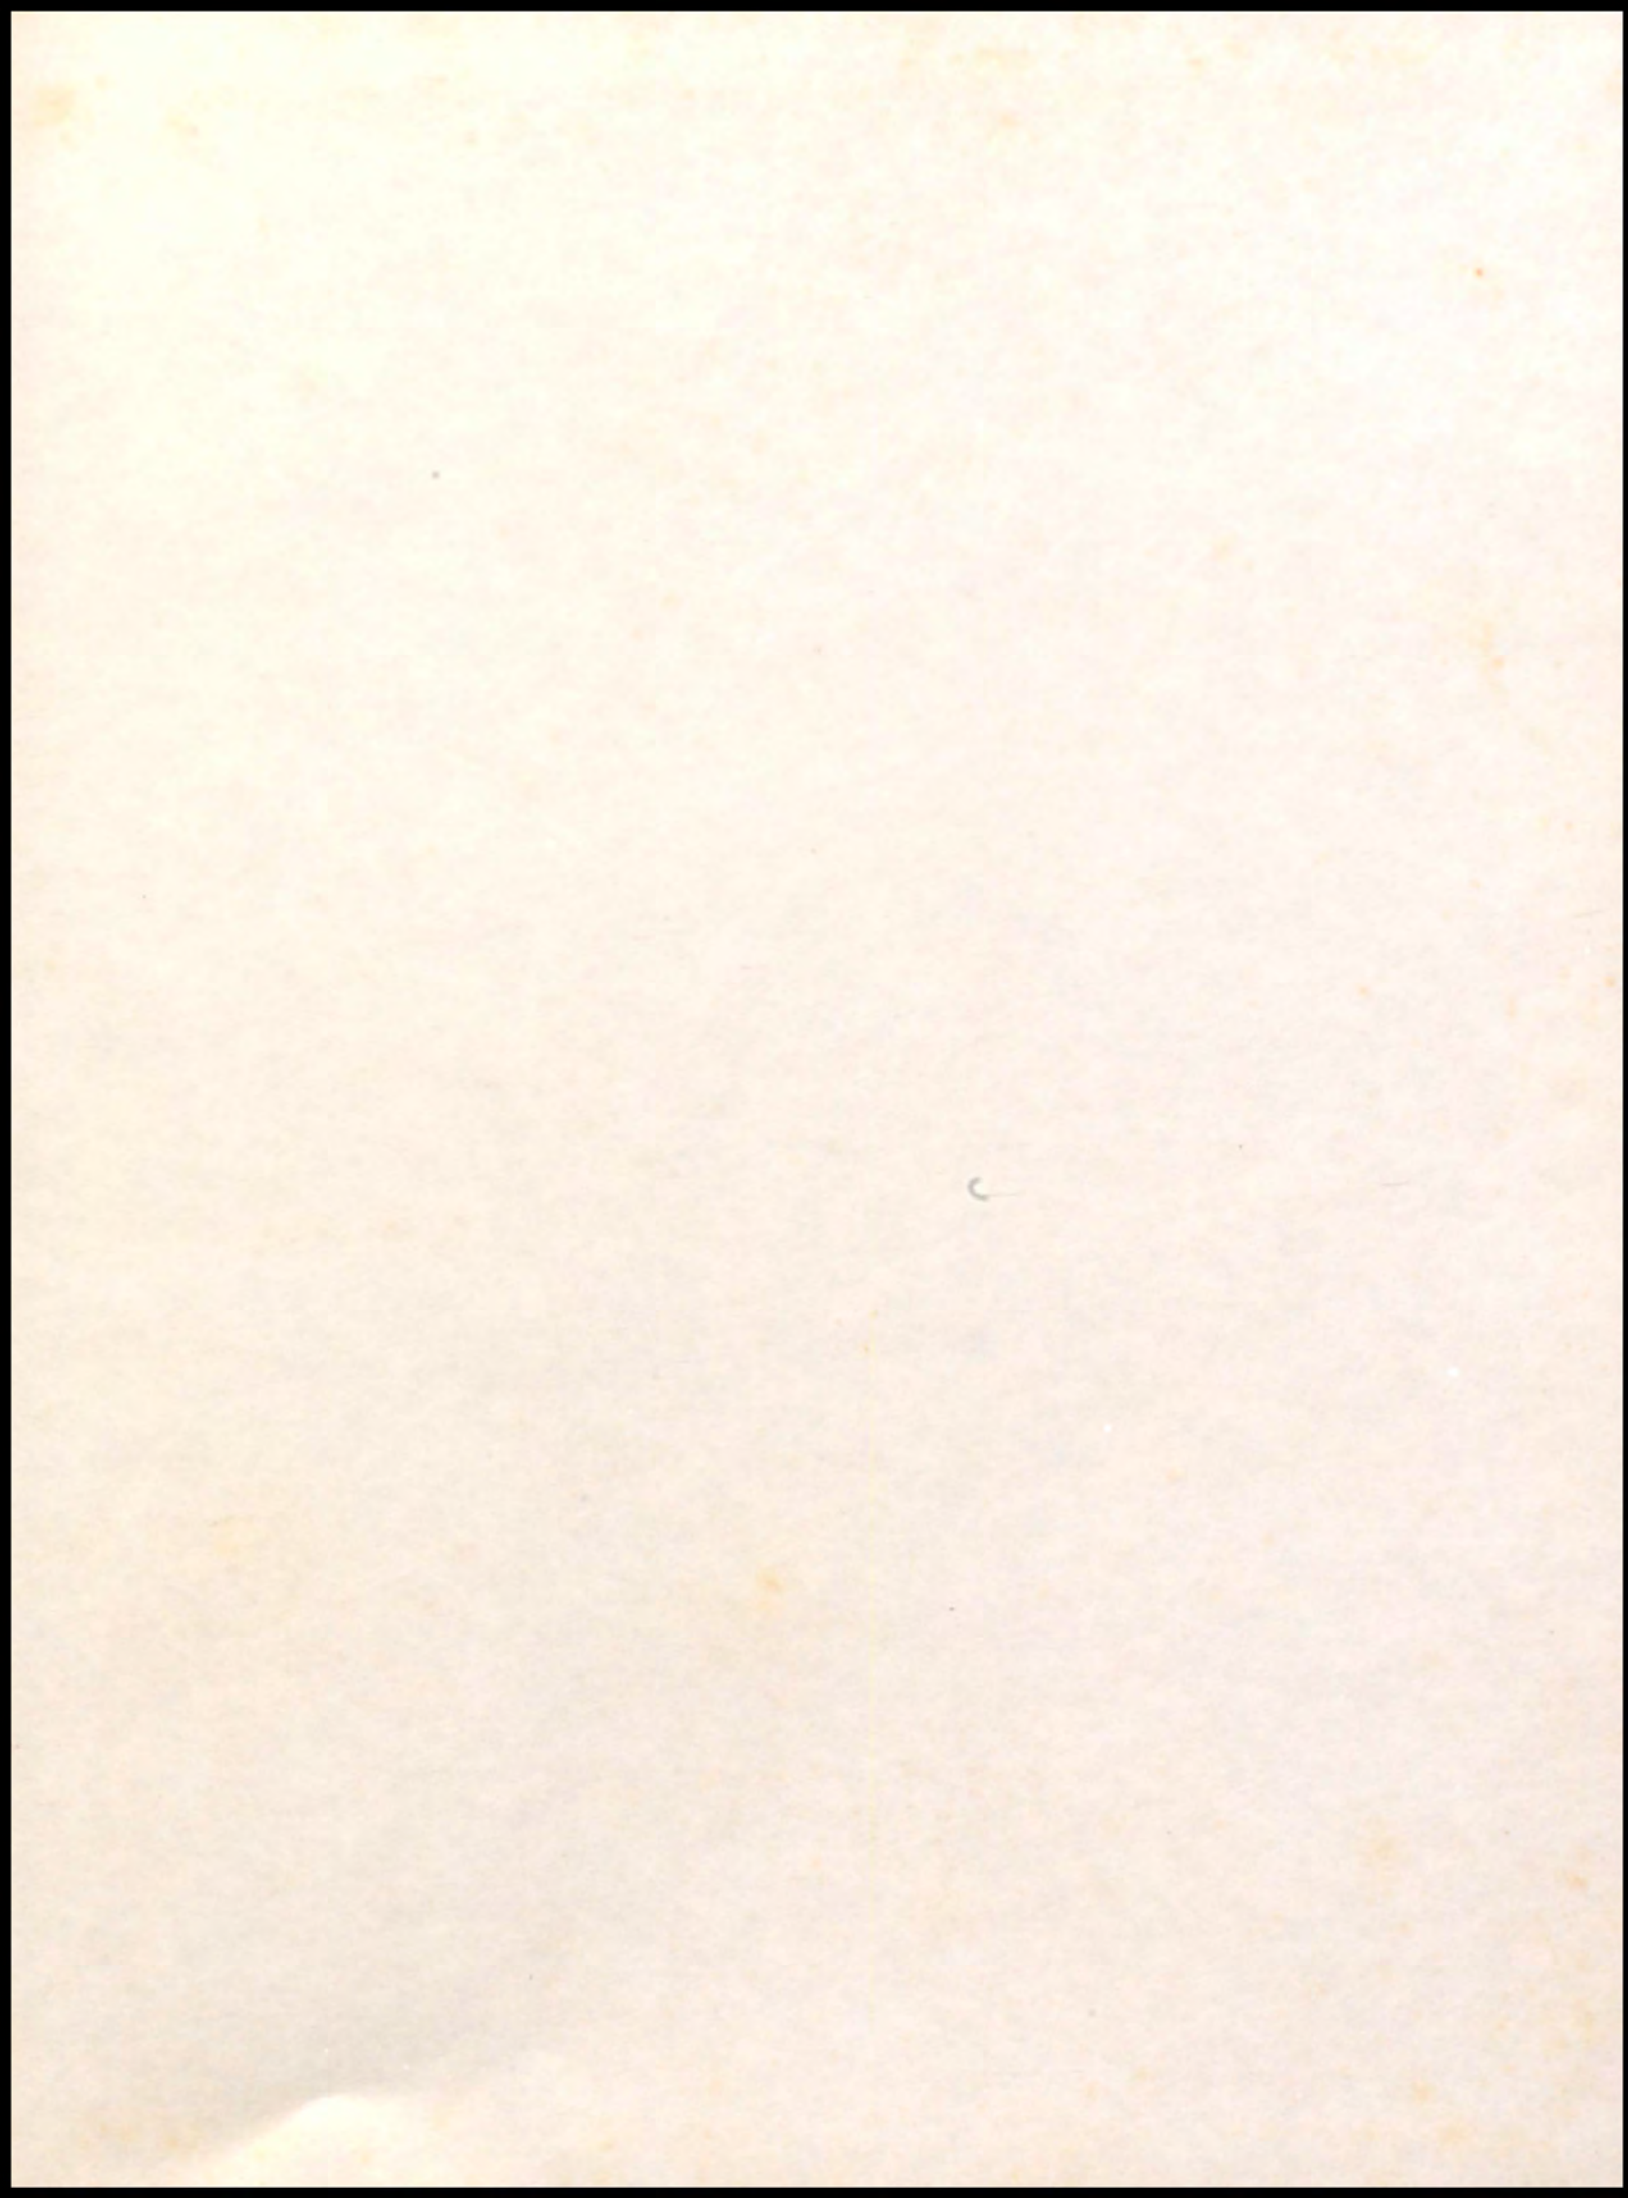

May God Bless You All!
1995 Yearbook Editor,

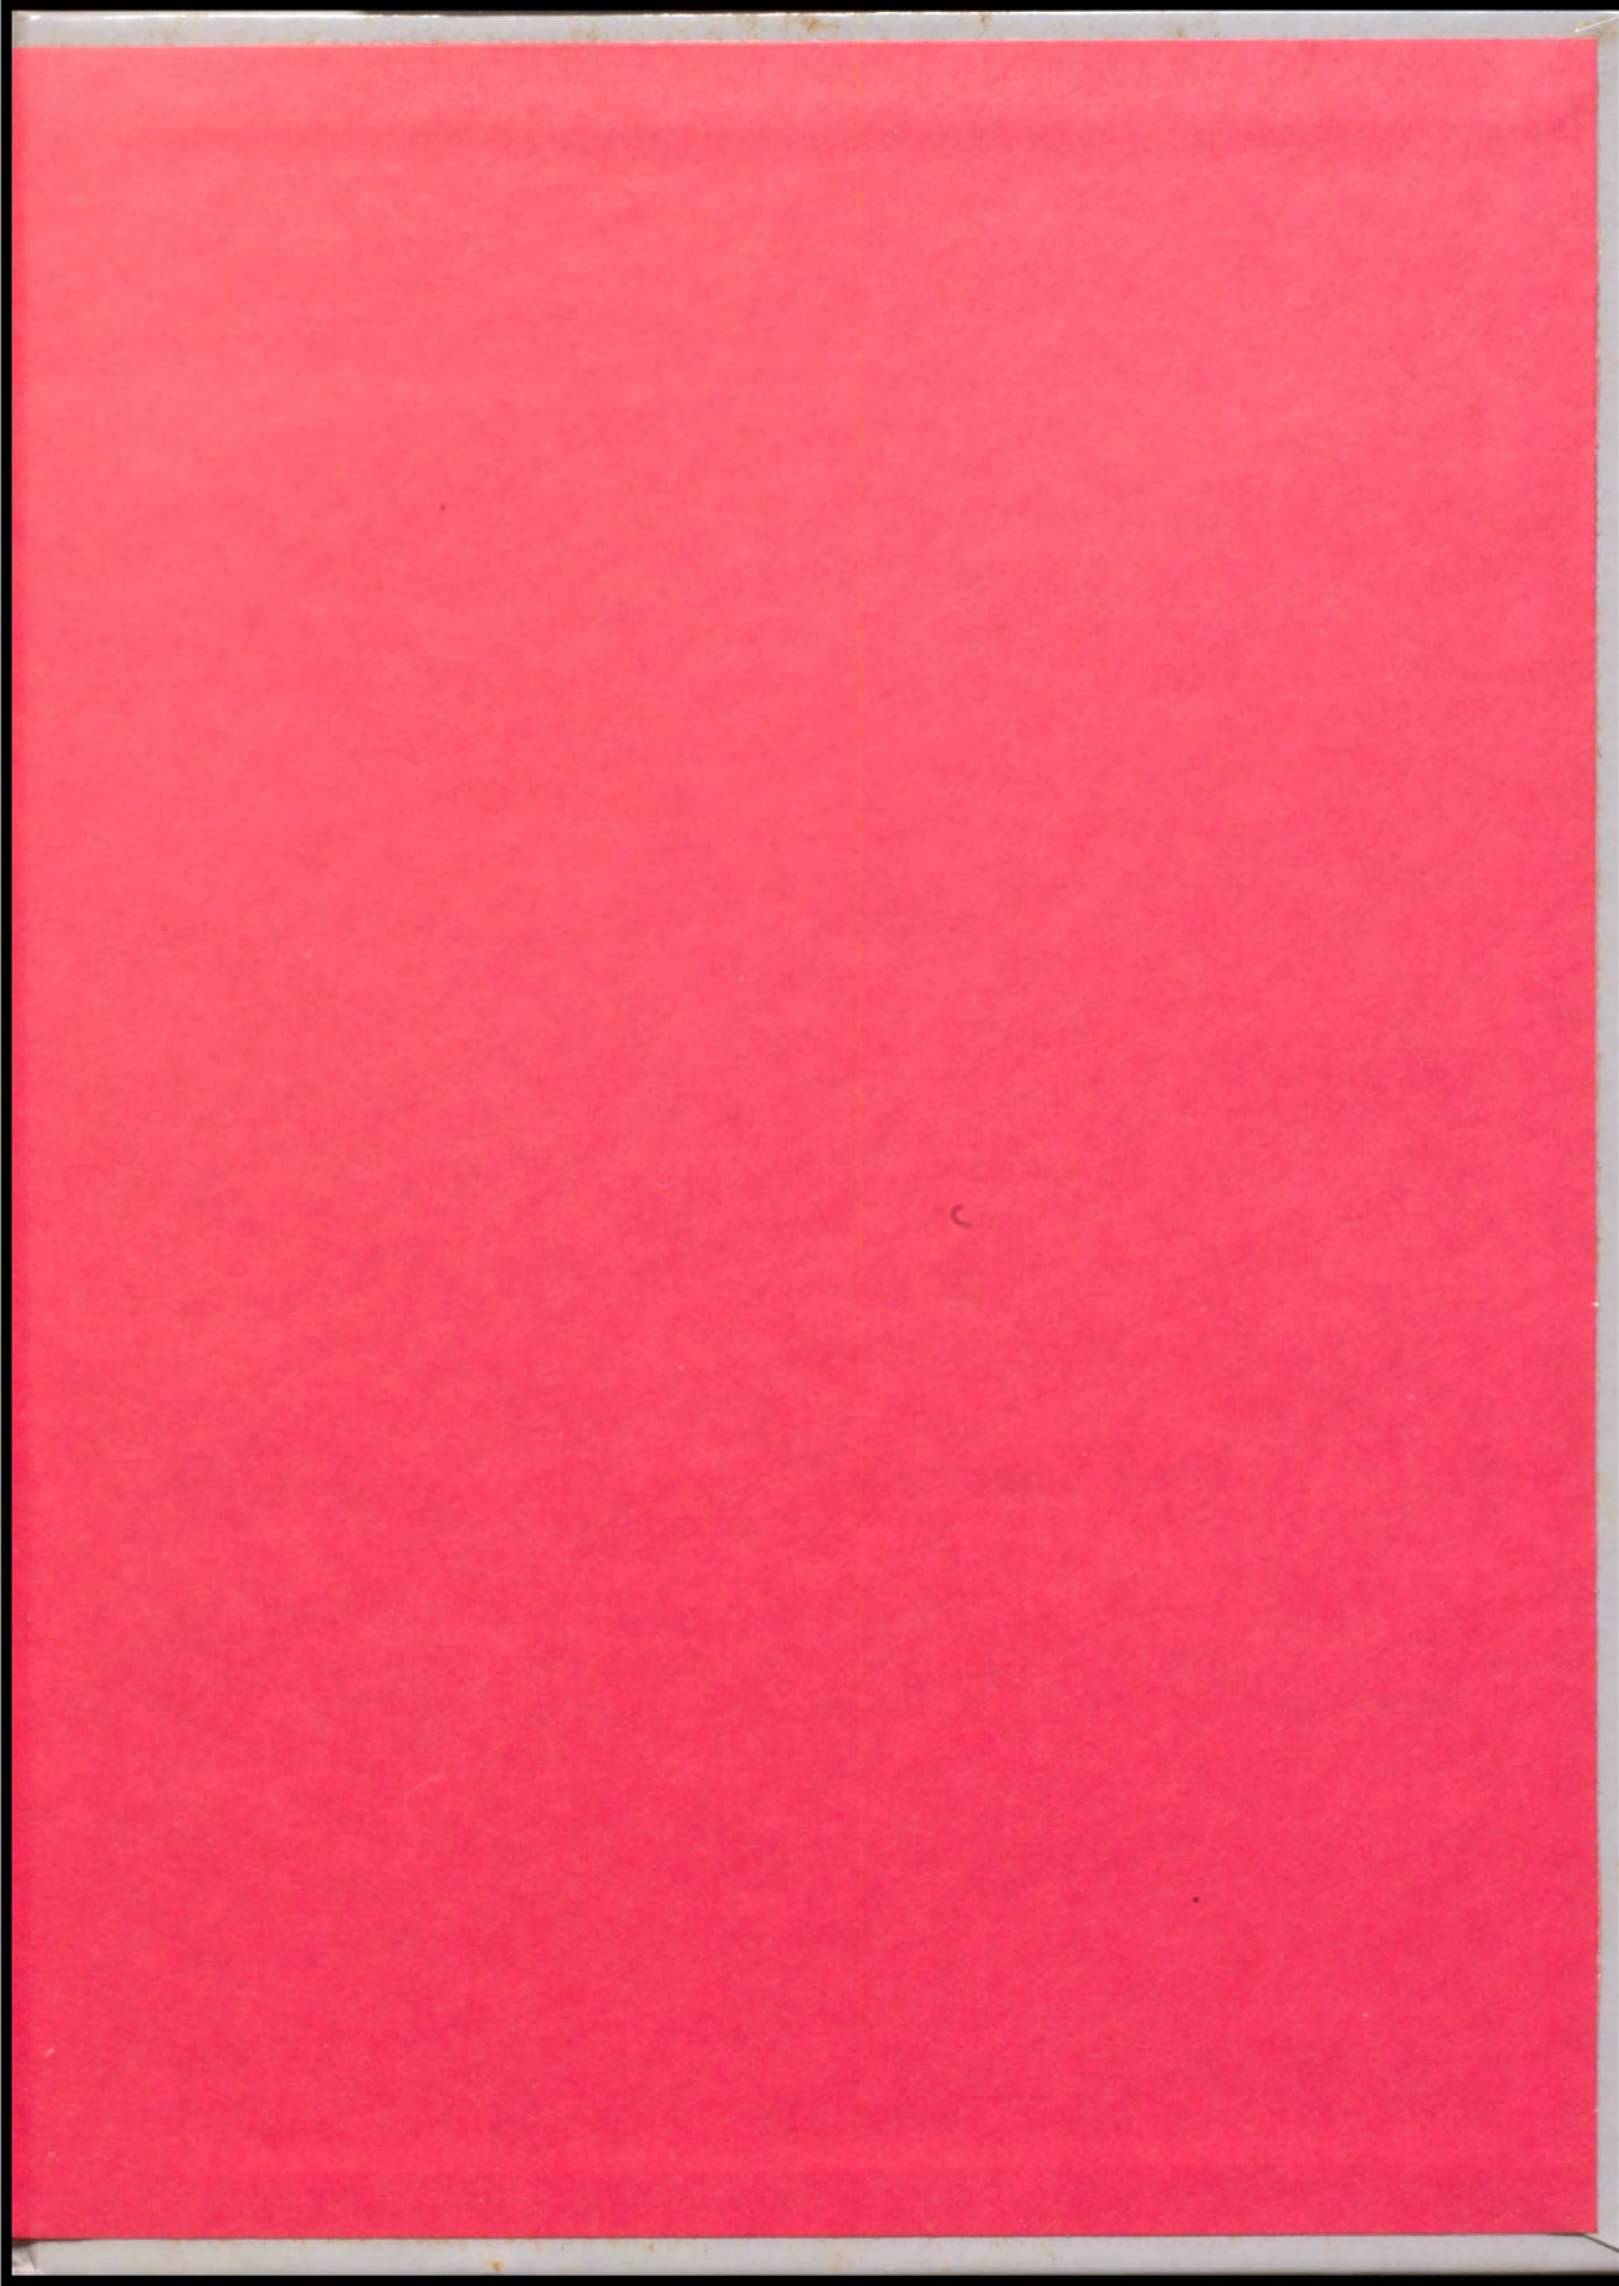

Danetta Almedia Cragun
