INTRODUCTION

You are now entering a book where common sense and all coolness have no bounds.

If you are faint of heart and weak of stomach, stop right now.

The preceeding pages are mind-boggling and brain-twisting accounts of the

Home Sweet Homecoming

In the tradition of all grand Homecomings, this one was no exception.

The chicken dinner, sponsored by the Music Department, started off the night with great food and quality entertainment. It was reported by Mrs. Catt that there were twice as many people at the dinner this year compared to last. This could be contributed to the open mike night, where students showcased their harmonious talents. The diners were serenaded by the Prairie Singers, the Jr. High and High School choir, a duet by Nikki Morris and Adam Neidlinger, a solo by Erin Fox and many other musical talents.

The Gophers strived throughout the first half, but left the field with a twenty-four point gap to bridge before they could catch up to the Bulldogs. The team took a breather while the band played "End of the Road" as the Homecoming procession began. Joining her mother, two aunts, two cousins, and a sister, Toni Smith carried on a family tradition and was crowned Homecoming Queen.

After pictures were taken and congratulations given, it was time for some serious football. In the second half the boys played through blood, sweat and rain only to be defeated by the Lapel Bulldogs, 44-22.

These two were cast for the new movie, "Hot and Hotter".

NO, NO, the ball! Throw the ball!

For Matt McGraw, September 22, 1998 will be a night to remember. "I didn't cheat...I swear!" Matt said after Josh Larsh handed him the Duke of the Court title. Running against Matt were Travis Saul, Travis Fultz, John Lock, and Justin Haan. Curtis Camp represented the Juniors, Jeremy Kearny represented the Sophomores, and Nathan McGraw represented the Freshmen. The Volleyball girls stomped the Mavericks with a 15-10, 15-10 win.

Dancing in a Winter Wonderland

The 1998 Christmas dance, sponsored by the Student Council, was an evening full of memories. It was held on December 12 in the cafeteria with DJ Trevor Harden and a special guest appearance by the Backdoor Boys!! The tables were decorated in silver and green with snowflake floating candles in green-colored water. Everyone munched on cookies and punch. This year's Snow King was Jeremy Clawson, and the Snow Queen was Emily Harden. The highlight of the evening was definitely the slinkies!!

HARDWOOD! HARDWOOD! HARDWOOD!

The night of Hardwood was full of fun and excitement. Nichole Roberts was our Hardwood Queen this year. She was escorted by a bright young man who goes by the name Jeremy Clawson. Good job to the Gopher boys for working so hard. Our boys put the smack down on th Turkey Run Warriors with a whopping score of 70 to 49. After the game the cool kids went to the dance that was thumping with music. Hope to see you next year!

Roses are red, violets are yellow, look at Nichole and her fellow.

The power is within.

Did you guys watch Dawson's Creek this week?

Don't move! I lost my contact.

If these people would just move, then I could make this basket.

Almost there Chad

Mostly A's :

Face it: you're a nerd!
Don't be steamed; it's cool to be a nerd, and you're not alone. Just don't change yourself. Whoever said it's lame to be a nerd? Okay, so maybe everybody says that, but that's alright, as long as you are rocking out with your bad self.

Mostly B's :

Okay, so maybe you're a little on the psycho side, but that's okay. You don't always have to please everyone. As long as you don't go around freak'n people out, you're free to do whatever you want. Just don't go postal on your best buds.

Mostly C's

What is your major malfunction? You are so not normal. Be sure you are doing this for yourself and not for attention. I guess you can do what you want. Just stay away from everyone else.

Rockin' in the 80's

A look at the 1999 Clinton Prairie High School Revue!

This year Kirtsen Calloway was the student director, her assistants were Arwynn Collins and Nicki Morris.

Matt McGraw, Emily Harden, and Allison Baker were the Masters of Ceremony.

Arwynn pours her heart out during her second Revue solo.

Matt works on gluts and quads with the Adrenaline Weight Loss System.

F.C.A. sang "We are the World" for their second Revue.

Patty Catt takes time to write a letter to the cast and crew.

The students have been asking for an "80's" theme for several years. I tried to wait until the end of the 90's to finally do it. I gave in this year, knowing that it would be difficult. The music has not yet made the full circle and been released as oldies. Since there was little music available we had to do most of the arranging. The students were so excited to do the "80's" music, they were willing to do whatever it took.

I was truly amazed at the level of legitimate talent in this show! Many people have told me this year was the best Revue show ever, and I must agree. Our little student body is always full of talent and enthusiasm!

Every year I wonder how we can top the previous Revue. Somehow you always come through!

Adam Baker, Blake Haan, Matt Weaver, and Richard Rabenstein are looking for their "Uptown Girl".

the being on stage

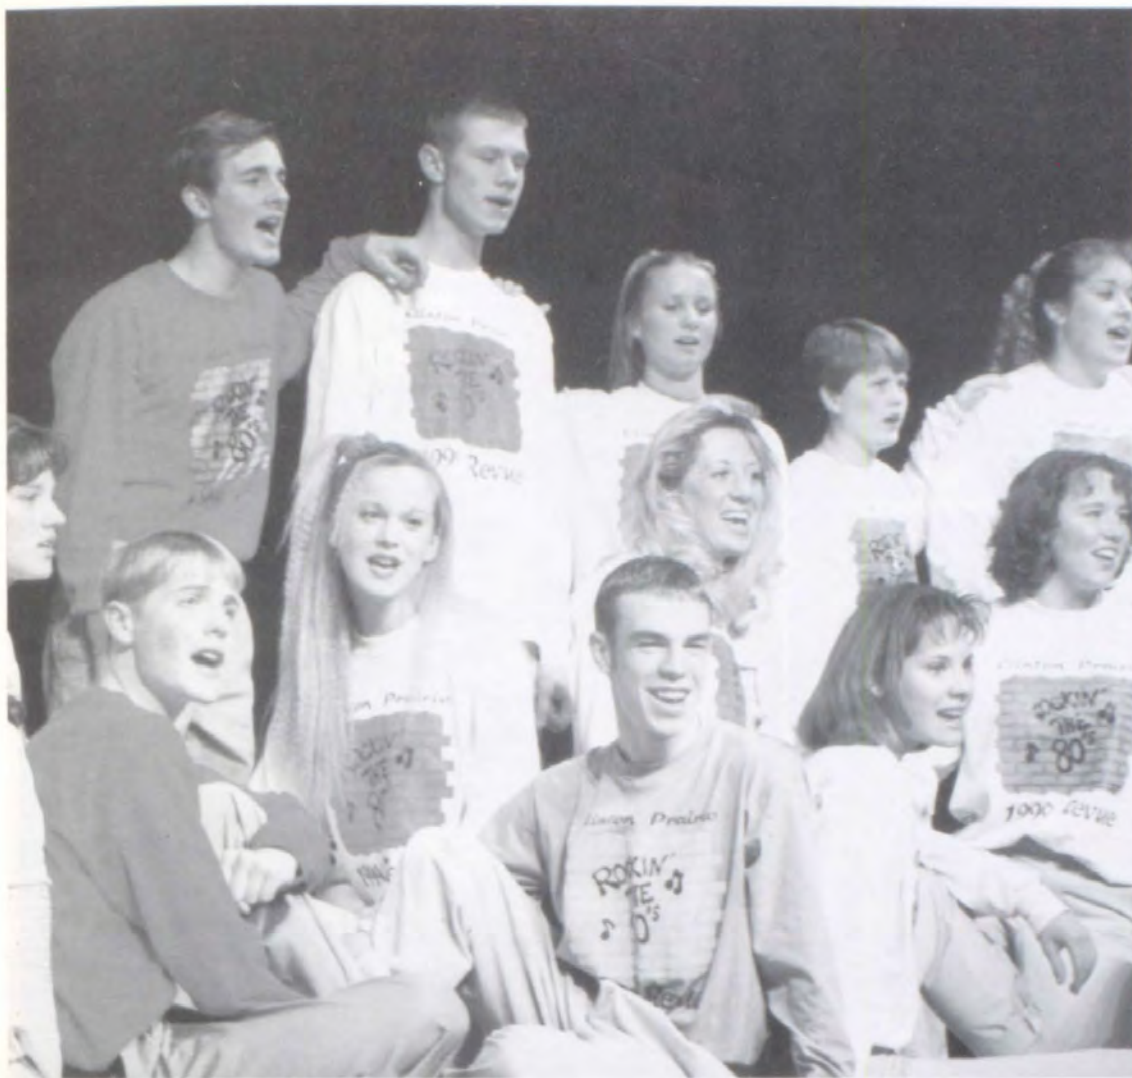

Dragtap brings in the funk.

Nichole Roberts sing a solo during the Prairie Singer act.

Adam Neidlinger and Nicki Morris sing to each other with emotion.

The Concert Choir started off the Revue with a bang.

Allison needed a little help getting the audience to participate.

Erin Fox sang perfectly for her first Revue solo.

Justin Haan , B.J. Prater, and Blake Haan had a moment in time on stage.

"Got the Life"

Foreign Exchange

This year we were privileged to have four foreign exchange students. We got to know Daw from Thailand, Danny from El Salvador, Fabian from Germany, and Li from China. Unfortunately, Danny was getting home sick and decided to go back to her family. During the year they all had fun going to the games, cheering for the teams, and participating in the school activities. They will always remember the friends that they made and the places they visited.

A glimpse at the Foreign Exchange students.

Li and Danny enjoyed being apart of the Homecoming ceremonies.

Kourtney tries to get a little friendly with Li.

Yo! what's up?

Daw has that one of a kind Thailand smile.

Danny had fun making friends while she was here.

Daw takes time out of lunch to study.

Aren't they cute?!

"I Don't Want to Miss a Thing."

This year's Prom was held on May 8th at Judy's Catering. The lights were dimmed, the tables were set, and everyone looked their best. The D.J. played a variety of music: rock, rap, alternative, R&B, and swing. Everyone showed their individual dancing abilities, whether good or bad. Michel Sschweinsberg and Emily Harden were crowned the King and Queen; Blake Haan and Krissy Roberts were Prince and Princess.

Danger Zone

Post Prom was held at the Frankfort YMCA. The Senior parents provided valet parking for all of the drivers. There were a variety of games to play and fun things to do. Volleyball, basketball, swimming, bouncy boxing, sumo wrestling, and karaoke were the most popular. A mini refrigerator, TV, VCR, CD player, and $50 bills were the door prizes given throughout the evening.

WITH HONORS

A reflection of Honors Day.

Honors Day is a day when we take time out to honor our Seniors for their years of hard work. We also recognize underclassmen for their goals met this year. This year was the first year for the Senior March. Seniors took one last walk through the halls of Clinton Prairie, influencing underclassmen to continue working hard so that they too can have the opportunity to strut through these same halls their Senior year.

Graduation

You have a brain in your head,
you have feet in your shoes, You can steer yourself in any direction you choose.

-Dr. Suess

This year's class was a class of many firsts and accomplishments as stated by Valedictorian, John Lock. The Salutatorian, Louis Miller, gave a moving speech that made us realize how much we have touched each individual's life. The slide show was an emotional look back to our childhood through high school. This year's Junior Marshals, Bryan Swackhamer and Arwynn Collins, led the graduates through the ceremony.

The Millennium

Can't Hardly Wait

Senioritis swept the halls of Clinton Prairie this year. The seniors were full of excitement as the end of the year drew to a close. Everyone was anxious to graduate, but they were sad to leave high school and all their memories.

The senior athletes had a year to remember. The girls volleyball team won their second consecutive state title and the girls basketball team posted the best record in school history.

VARSITY BLUES

A True Story of High School Football

The 1998 Football team had a rough time this year. The Gophers took to the gridiron every week, but unfortunately the team came back empty handed. During the 5th week, Senior Quarterback Justin Haan was taken out with a torn ACL, this put Senior Chris Loveless in the hot seat. Chris preformed admirably for having little or no experience at this.

After many years at the helm Coach Hilgediek decided that he would not be returning to the coaching position. He felt that he needed to put more time and effort into baseball and to spend more time with his family.

ABOVE:

LEFT:

DOWN:

Chris Ramsey tries to break the tackle.

The 7th and 8th grade football team had a great turnout this year. Fifty students were involved with the program. Coaches Bowman, Bradbury, and McDonald guided these "Bell Ringers" to a 3-3 and a 2-4 season. The future of Clinton Prairie football looks bright if the players continue to improve the way they have.

VOLLEYBALL

W.W.A.S.C.

The 1998 girls volleyball team went back to state for the second straight year. This year they went up against a tough Barr-Reeve team. The Gophers capped off a 30-10 record by winning back-to-back state titles. The Gophers also took home the Hoosier Heartland Conference title.

The Gophers were lead by four All-county winners Kourtney Mennen, Toni Smith, Heather Allen, and Allison Conklin. Three of the winners Kourtney Mennen, Toni Smith, and Heather Allen also made All-state. Congratulations for creating a year of memories.

WOLF PAC. Baby...

Another shining season.

The 1998-99 cross country season was a ride full of twists and turns that came to a screaming halt. The tight-knit unit ran to their 6th straight County, and Tri-County titles. This year's team also paced themselves to another Conference Championship. The girls had a nice showing at County where Angela placed 2nd, and Holly placed 5th. Overall, the Harriers finished with a 53-11 mark, 9-1 in dual meets. Congratulations.

This was Jim's second year throwing discus in his high school career.

Ronnie Pitman

"We had a lot of guys flunk off which has hurt us. We are a very young team with not much experience. I don't expect much out of the rest of the season, but there is always next year."

Coach Hilgediek

"The team has faced a lot of adversity since March. The players have been struggling to establish an identity. They hope to turn things around in the second half of the season, and finish strong."

Custodial work is a dirty job, but someone's got to do it. Even though some of us don't show our appreciation, we thank you for working so hard to keep our school nice and clean.

We love Darlene.

That will be five dollars for one slice of Papa John's cheese pizza.

This picture of Tim was taken right before he brutally murdered BJ Prater. Tim did this because BJ took this picture. Good job BJ!

Isn't band practice fun!

Richard, what are you looking at?

Color guard is awesome!

1998 Clinton Prairie Marching Band

After many practices and competition, it was hard to see the season go.

Not even practice can help you Josh.

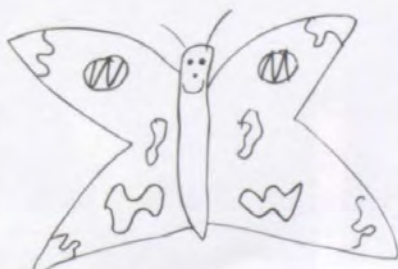

Percussion always works so hard.

Are you guys lost?

Heeeeey afternoon delight!

CONTRASTING VOICES

Mr. B at his best!

"being drum major for three years has been fun. I'm going to miss all my band buddies. I hope they meet their goals next year."

"It was an exciting experience being drum major this year. We had a successful season and made a lot of wonderful memories."

"Despite some major problems, we managed to salvage the season and score our highest regional score in Prairie history."

"We had a very strong color guard this year. It wasn't all fun and games. We worked really hard and it paid off! Thanks for a great season girls!"

Prairiettes

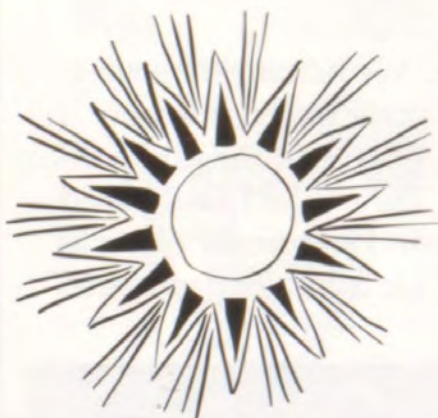

The Prairiettes dance team had an awesome 1998-1999 season. The team was headed up by Jennifer and Libby Edmondson with Amber Ashwell and Rena Zook as Co-Captains.

The Prairiettes attended a dance clinic at West Lafayette and learned most of their routines for the season. They also went to a college dance class at Purdue to compare college dancing to high school dancing. Whoa, What a difference!!

The ladies also did a few fund raisers such as the annual Valentines' Day carnation and balloon sale and selling pizza at Revue dress rehearsal.

All in all, the year was GREAT! Although, they had a difficult time raising the roof, they definitely weren't "frass."
