Special Events

ESCORT SERVICE;
Sophomores Trista Bailey and Eric Ramsey represent their class with style.

THE ROYAL COUPLE:
Seniors Kyle Joseph and Malinda Bartley nervously head toward mid-court.

HAPPY DAYS: Enjoying
their own private joke, seniors Craig Adams and Ashlee Mennen have fun
during the ceremony.

Duke of the Court

The 2000 Duke of the Court crowning took place between the JV and Varsity matches against McCutcheon. The Lady Gophers suffered a defeat, but the fans were not disappointed. Their number one choice, Kyle Joseph, was crowned duke.

The Crowning

Last year's Duke Derrick Lahrman's reign ends as he hands over the ceremonial scepter and monogrammed T-shirt to Kyle Joseph.

Seniors Josh Baker and Alethea Crane smile as they acknowledge the crowd while joining the rest of the court for the crowning.

Freshmen Robert Royer and Candace Stillabower put on a great smile for the camera as they wait to see who is crowned. Most of the court was nervous about the night, but most of all the freshmen.

The Court

Juniors Kyle Marcotte and Morgan Lahrman walk to the cameras to get their pictures taken. This was Morgan and Kyle's last year to play backup to the main event.

Members of the Court

This year's court was comprised of freshman Robert Royer, escorted by Candace Stillabower; sophomore Eric Ramsey, escorted by Trista Bailey; junior Kyle Marcotte, escorted by Morgan Lahrman; senior Josh Surber, escorted by Whitney Royer; senior Craig Adams, escorted by Ashlee Mennen; senior Josh Baker, escorted by Alethea Crane; senior Ryan Surber, escorted by JoEllen Barney; and senior Kyle Joseph, escorted by Malinda Bartley.

THE DUKE AND HIS COURT: Every year the students vote for a classmate to represent them at the Duke of the Court ceremony.

STRIDE FOR STRIDE: Josh Surber and Whitney Royer share a good laugh and smile while showing their pretty faces to the camera.

CAN'T WAIT: Ryan Surber and JoEllen Barney smile for the camera as they share the time they had at the ceremony.

KING OF THE CROWD:

Cheering enthusiastically for the victorious Gophers, senior John King shows his spirit while the others look on.

AND THE WINNER IS:

Alethea Crane smiles in awe as Angela Ramsey crowns her the new Homecoming Queen.

STRIKE A POSE:

Cheerleaders Hope Curl, Laura Marcotte, Heather Burton, Kody Stinson, JoEllen Barney, Trista Bailey, Jaime Leming, and Megan Morris pose next to their homecoming sign.

Homecoming 2000

Clinton Prairie Gophers dominate the Lapel Bulldogs in a special homecoming game.

September 29, 2000 was a night the class of 2001 will never forget. It was a victorious night for the Gophers on their homecoming. Clinton Prairie held the Lapel Bulldogs 40-0 at the half, an exploit that hasn't been accomplished since 1987. The final score of the game was 54-8.

The Student Council sponsored a sheet sign contest before the game. There were a total of four participating clubs. Mrs. Rogers' Advanced Child Development class took the first prize, followed by Mr. Fox's Ag Fundamentals taking second, Mr. Wines' Chemistry II class taking third, and Mr. Fox's ICE class with fourth place.

The royal court consisted of freshman representative Candice Still abower; sophomore representative Casie Miles; junior Representative Erin Fox; senior candidates Amber Ashwell, Malinda Bartley, Alethea Crane, Brook Haughs, and Ashlee Mennen. The 2000 Homecoming Queen crowned was Miss Alethea Crane. Students ended the night with an informal Homecoming dance.

From the Four Corners of the Earth

We recognize our foreign exchange students

This year we had the pleasure of hosting four foreign exchange students. We have the tradition of introducing these special people to the community each Homecoming.

This night was especially important to Mikhail Pricklonsky because he was the football manager. Also introduced were Sabine Lindenkamp from Germany, Edrian Kelmendi from Albania, and Voruvat Voravetvuthikun (better known as Tee) from Thailand.

ROYAL COURT 2000: The court consisted of last year's queen Angela Ramsey, Candice Stillabower, Casie Miles, Brook Haughs, Ashlee Mennen, Alethea Crane, Malinda Bartley, Amber Ashwell, and Erin Fox.

BLOWIN' IN THE WIND: Steve Seaton plays the tuba before the game to fire up the crowd.

TAILS NEVER FAILS: Matt Fullerton, Nate McGraw, and Trent Rogers wait as the referee flips a coin.

OH SAY CAN YOU SEE: Jessica Shepard, Costa Roe, and Jenna Haug hold the flag in Color Guard for the National Anthem.

Tailgating

CHILLING IN THE RV:

Alethea Crane, Brook Haughs, Ashlee Mennen, John King, and Malinda Bartley pose for a picture with Ryler Rawlings's RV.

SMILE BOBBO: Mr. Smith stops and takes a moment to give that one in a million smile for the camera.

GIRLS NIGHT OUT: Smile, I mean go team! Ashlee Mennen, Chris Saul, Malinda Bartley, Alethea Crane, and Brook Haughs cheered on the Gophers while they played Frontier.

TRUE TAILGATE: When we say tailgating, we mean "on the tailgate." Alethea, Ashlee, Brook, Whitney, Katie Seigfried, Jill Bowen, Melissa Nance, and Malinda smile on the gate.

ROCK"N"ROLL: Malinda Bartley, Ashlee Mennen, Sara Ryan, Whitney Royer, Alethea Crane, Andrea Thies, and Brook Haughs all get ready to go out and raise some ruckus.

WE'RE ON OUR WAY: Katie Seigfried and Sara Ryan head out to CP to the big game.

Tailgating becomes a senior tradition for CP seniors

CP seniors tried to start up tailgating again this year, while in past years it has died out. When asked what he thought about tailgating, Adam Gholson replied, "I think it's good experience, and it makes things more interesting before the game."

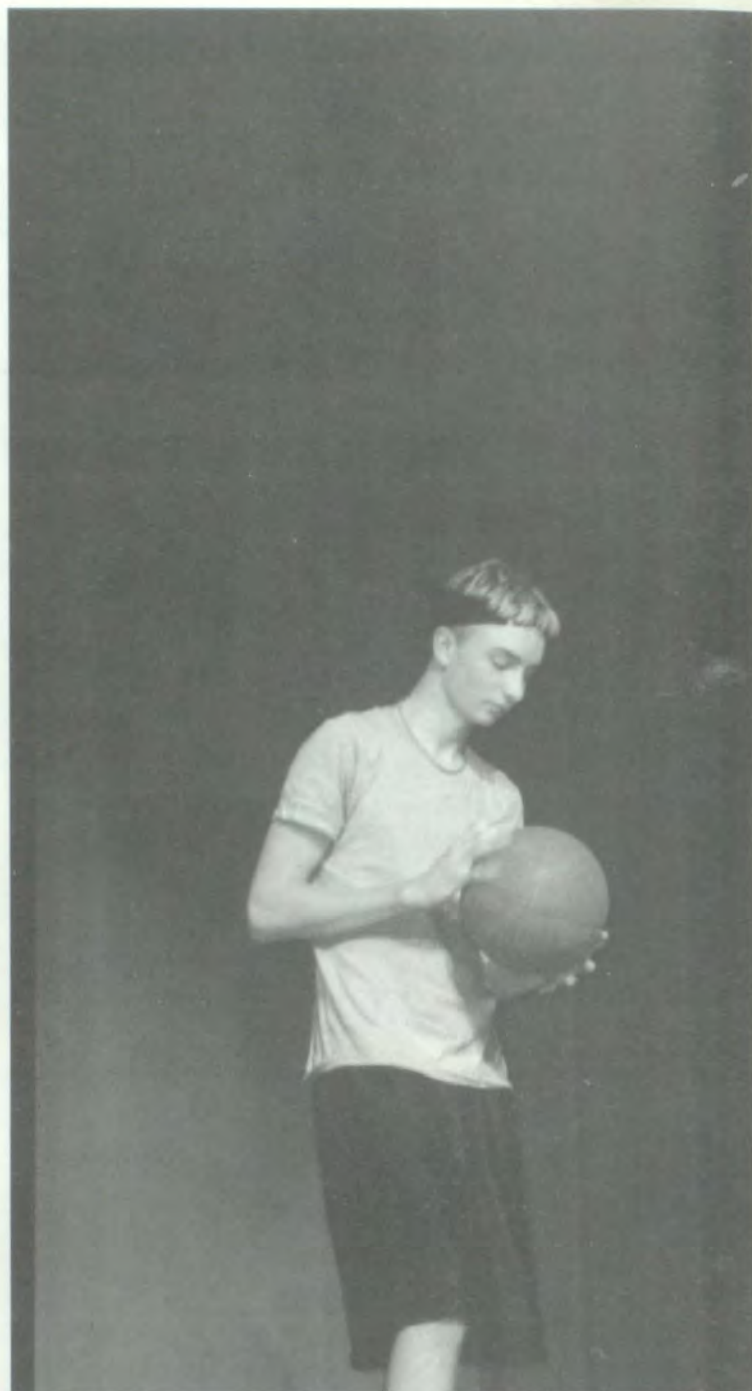

Ryler Rawling brought his grandfather's RV and parked it right in front of the ticket office. The students ordered Papa John's pizza, drinks, and snacks. They ate their food while listening to music provided by John King's truck.

During the game, the Frontier fans tried to outdo us with their loud music and cowboy hats, but nothing could outdo the big RV. Chi Livengood was the center of attention as he told the other fans whose territory it was. They gladly backed down.

WELL, I LIKED THE YEAR-BOOK: Ryler Rawlings, Brent Ferguson, and Carrie Castereno discuss the pictures and moments in the yearbook.

ONE LAST SHOT: Dan Harmon squares up to shoot the winning free throw shot at the State Basketball game.

YEARBOOK

The Fall Play Success Story

This year's play was directed by Mrs. Wooldridge, and Marie Haug was a big part of the play also.

This play, called "Yearbook," was written by Steven Fendrich.

It was about a group of students on the yearbook team just taking a glance back at the old yearbook. They reminisced on times back in the day.

This year's fall play was made possible because a group of students chose to work to memorize lines, develop characters, select costumes and props, and dedicate time and effort to the cause.

Eighteen students and two adults put together all this and made it happen, when usually a drama club consists of at least twenty or more students and more adults.

All in all, this year's play was a definite success, and another point goes up for the drama club.

MOM, I'M GONNA GO RIDE MY BIKE: Dan Harmon, Tony Light, Shatrel Jarrett ride around on the stage like a bunch of crazy apes on bikes.

ONE FOR THE MONEY: Dan Harmon and Tony pray that this shot goes in, or it's all over with.

UH, WHAT ARE MY LINES?: Jenna Haug and Tony Light converse about how awesome rehearsal was last night.

SOMETHING FUNNY?: Dan Harmon, Shatrel Jarrett, and Tiffany Cooper share a good laugh over a spoiled carton of milk.

BACK IN THE DAY: Ryler Rawlings, Brent Ferguson, and Carrie Castereno look back, way back, into time.

LUCKY LOCKER: Kristie Landes, Tiffany Cooper, and Kara Barnett all talk about the "Lucky Locker."

SMILE GIRLS: A big happy group of senior girls smile for the camera man while Derek Sutherland shows how happy he is to be a part of the moment.

CROWN ROYALTY: Josh Baker and Amber Ashwell were named Snow King and Snow Queen this year, deja vu??

Winter Wonderland

The 2000 Christmas Dance, sponsored by the Student Council, was an evening of fun and enjoyment for everyone. The dance was held on December 9 from 8-11 in the cafeteria. The DJ was Jonas Lenahan, who really got everyone out on the floor dancing. He really did make it an awesome night. The tables were decorated in black and silver and glow-in-the-dark stars. Towards the end of the dance we got bubbles that went around your neck. This year's Snow King and Queen were Josh Baker and Amber Ashwell. They were also last year's Prom Prince and Princess. When asked what he thought of this year's dance senior Justin Miller replied, "I thought it was one of the best ones that I have been to. I really thought the DJ played some good dancing music." All in all, this year's dance will definitely be one to remember.

PATIENCE: JoEllen Barney, Ann Baker, and others wait patiently await the results of the Snow King and Snow Queen

GET DOWN GIRL: There is Cory Gibson boogying down with one of her close friends Amy Mullikan.

LAST DANCE: Here's the senior class of 2001 sharing their last Christmas Dance together. Aren't they lovely?

A COUPLE OF COUPLES: Josh Baker and sister Ann Baker share a touching moment with their dates.

HAPPY COUPLE: Andy Best and his girlfriend Cassie Ream are all smiles.

NO SHE'S MINE: Senior Adam Baker and Junior Nick Leto quarrel over their dates.

UNDER THE ARC:
Kari Cochran and Jon Clawson approach the arch as they get their pictures taken from the audience.

PERFECT MATCH:
Adam Gholson and Whitney Royer get their picture taken as they wait to go home.

QUEEN FOR A DAY:
Whitney Royer gets crowned as she has just found out that she is the winner.

HARDWOOD 2001

The Gophers had a victorious night beating the Turkey Run Warriors 64-51. This night would also be a night to remember for one person particularly, Whitney Royer.

REPRESENTATIVES

Seniors Justin Miller and Sara Ryan stop to pose for the camera as the winner is soon to be revealed.

Brook Haughs and John King think about the dance which took place after the game as they wait for the winner.

Hardwood winner Whitney Royer receives her flowers as they announce her name as the Queen of the 2001 Hardwood.

REPRESENTATIVES

Juniors Julie Neal and Brent Ferguson look very excited to be in the center of attention as they pose for the crowd.

THE COURT OF 2001

The representatives for the 2001 ceremony were freshman Heather Burton, escorted by Drake Ludlow; sophomore Kari Cochran, escorted by Jon Clawson; junior Julie Neal, escorted by Brent Ferguson; seniors JoEllen Barney, escorted by Josh Baker; Brook Haughs, escorted by John King; Ashlee Mennen, who was unable to attend; Sara Ryan, escorted by Justin Miller; and Queen Whitney Royer, escorted by Adam Gholson.

THE COURT:

The court shows their smiles after they found out who the winner was.

STANDING STILL:

Drake Ludlow and Heather Burton watch the rest of the court as they walk to the floor to await the winner.

LOOK AT THAT COUPLE: Josh Baker and JoEllen Barney strut their stuff to the middle of the floor. These two are looking good.

COMING HOME:

Last year's winner Holly Vick and Marc DeVore are about to crown this year's winner as Sam Hilgediek and Katherine Wines wait eagerly.

And the Winner Is...

The 2001 Revue

HOWDY HO: The 2001 Revue cast and crew smile after an award-winning performance. The theme this year was "And the winner is...."

HEY MR. TAMBOURINE MAN: Cody Richardson shows that in addition to his talents as a student director, he can also sing.

YOU GOT THE RIGHT STUFF: The five band members of Ellen Bogges, Craig Bowen, Kara Barnett, Nick Leto, Erin Burkhalter tune it up on their instruments for the crowd.

THE NEXT BIGGEST THING: Matt Fullerton shows his hefty side for the crowd's entertainment. Matt was one of three emcees for the 2001 Revue show.

TIME TO PLAY
Devon Lane slaps his bass like it ain't no thang. He has many shining years left here at CP.

PUT ON A HAPPY FACE:
The student producers take a moment out of their day along with Matt McGraw and Denae Barnett. The students worked great with the new directors.

This year's Revue was a huge success due to many changes made throughout the year.

The 2001 Revue staff brought in two new leaders this year: directors Denae Barnett and Matt McGraw. Because of this new leadership, the Revue had a new look. This year's performance included a new act, commercials covering everything from chewing gum to tacos; the performers covered it all.

The crowd really enjoyed Matt Fullerton's rendition of the Crocodile Hunter, as well as his antics as emcee.

Hyla Baker and Sara Ryan also played important roles in this year's Revue. They accompanied Matt as emcees and shared a few laughs with the audience.

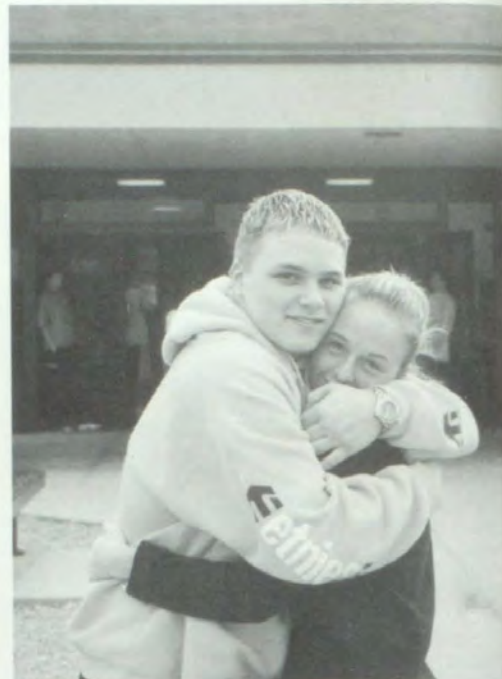

Solos seemed to be a trend this year. Newcomer Katie Kemmerer sang her debut solo, as well as Rachel Giles and Adam Neidlinger. Cody Richardson presented us with a solo Irish dance, choreographed by himself, along with his rendition of a Garth Brooks hit.

As always various bands also performed. We are all anticipating a great Revue next year to match or exceed this one.

INTERESTING GROUP:

The revue cast members cheese it up on the couch for this photo. There were many memorable moments for these group of performers.

Edrin Kelmendi

Edrin left his home country of Albania to visit Clinton Prairie this year. Edrin really enjoyed his time here in Indiana and promises to come back to visit.

His favorite memory of his time here was going to Disney World on his trip to Florida. He also enjoyed riding four-wheelers. His favorite food here in the states was, predictably, pizza, but surprisingly he did not like cheeseburgers.

Edrin was disturbed by the amount of drugs that are present in the American culture.

He really missed his family, but absolutely loved his host family and had a great time in Indiana.

Sabine Lindenkamp

Sabine came to Prairie from Germany this year. She was extremely active, playing sports and making lots of new friends.

Sabine especially enjoyed playing softball and T.P.ing houses with her friends. She honestly couldn't think of anything she disliked about America.

Her favorite American food, in contrast to Edrin, were cheeseburgers and Mountain Dew. Sabine wasn't too crazy about sweet potatoes.

She really missed her family and friends from Germany while she was here, but she got a lot out of the experience.

Sabine wanted to thank everyone who she met here at Prairie for making it such a great time for her to be here.

Mikhael Pricklonski

Mikhael came to Clinton Prairie from Russia. He was very active at school, making many new friends. He was a manager for both varsity football and boys basketball teams. He especially enjoyed playing football which he had never played before.

Mikhael's favorite memories of his time here included the fun he had at Christmas, his trip to Florida, and going on rollercoasters. He also enjoyed going to the mall and seeing cool cars like a 1968 Corvette.

His favorite foods were Burger King Whoppers, chicken patties, and drinking Mountain Dew. He could have lived without Miracle Whip and the jello from the school cafeteria.

Mikhael really missed his friends and family from back home, but had such a good time here that it was worthwhile.

Voravut "Tee" Voravetvuthikun

Tee enjoyed his time here in America. His favorite things about the states, and especially Clinton County, were his friends and his baseball team. He wasn't so thrilled about the hot and humid weather because it is similar to what the weather is like in his home country of Thailand.

Tee proved to be a regular American stating that his favorite food in the U.S. is pizza--isn't everyone's?

Tee shared many pleasant and painful memories with the students at Clinton Prairie. He remembers breaking his collar bone in Physical Education class and that he was hit by a baseball seven times.

He wanted to express his love for his friends and host family and let everyone know that he will be returning to the states next year to go to college.

THE ROYAL COURT:

This year's court included queen and king Amber Ashwell and J.J. Boesch and prince and princess Kyle Marcotte and Julie Neal.

LAST KISS:

Camela King and Doug Feltner hold each other in their special moment together at the 2001 prom.

FROM THIS MOMENT

"From This Moment" Amber Ashwell, Sara Ryan, Brook Haughs, and Ashlee Mennen. The king's court consisted of John King, Craig Adams, Ryan Surber, and J.J. Boesch.

The night was filled with a whole lot of dancing and a ton of good music. The DJs from Sound Machine did a great job making it a great prom. They played many songs that the students knew and could get down to.

The royal court this year for queen was

The post prom, put on by the junior parents, was great. There were many games like human bowling, plinko, and the main attraction was the huge slide. The slide was as tall as the gym ceiling.

This year's prom was hopefully a night the seniors will remember.

SUPREME ROYALTY:

Kyle Macotte, Julie Neal, Amber Ashwell, and J.J. Boesch put on their game faces.

ON LAST MOMENT:
JoEllen Barney, Malinda Bartley, Brook Haughs, and Alethea Crane pose for the camera man sharing one last moment together at Prom.

DOSEY DO:
Hyla Baker and Melissa Wadell get a lil crazy out on the dance floor, the DJ must have been playing some awesome music.

I WANNA DANCE TONIGHT:
Cody Richardson and Rachel Giles cut loose, foot loose, out on the dance floor.

COOL HAT:
Doug Feltner and Justin Welch step aside to take a photo for all the ladies out there.

I HOPE YOU DANCE:
Seniors Ashlee Mennen and John King shared on last dance together before the night was over.

THE FINAL MARCH:

Adam Oswalt and Josh Baker march through the gym for the last time in their high school careers.

TEARS OF JOY:

Briana Rhine and Jessica Shepard show different kinds of reactions for joy.

WHAT'S SO FUNNY:

A JOB WELL DONE:

Adam Neidlinger accepts his award for being the class of 2001 Salutatorian.

Graduation Day

GOOD LUCK
CLASS OF 2001!!

The Class of 2001 truly was the first class of the millenium.

Salutatorian Adam Neidlinger stated this in his speech along with the realization that there is so much more to come in the lives of those graduates.

This year's Valedictorian was Whitney Royer. She strived to be perfect all her life and stressed to the rest of her class that it was time to "lay down that school bag full of bricks" and let life come easier to them.

This year's class graduated sixty-seven seniors on May 26, and was the "most honored" class in Clinton Prairie history, as was proved on Honors Day, May 23.

Instead of a guest speaker there was a slide show. The slide show displayed many pictures from elementary and gained many giggles and laughs.

On a serious note, some pictures were even presented in memory of Paul White and Jon Kauffman, "Friends who had fallen, but were not forgotten."

YOU MAKE YOUR ENGLISH TEACHER PROUD:
Cheyanne Gibson, Elisha Harris, Malinda Bartley, and Courtney Cahoon read their programs with a passion.

WORDS OF WISDOM:
Mr Chezem reflects on the class of 2001, while also giving some wisdom.

THE CLASS OF 2001

WATCH THE BIRDY:
Ashlee Mennen, John King,
Justin Miller, and JJ Boesch pose for the camera at Honor's Day.

I PLEDGE ALLEGIANCE:
Senior Class Officers Jill Bowen and Sara Ryan pledge their alligance to the flag.

ONE LAST TIME:
Jill Bowen and Holly Smith play with the band before graduation for the last time.

VALEDICTORIAN:
Whitney Royer gives her words of wisdom to the class of 2001.

SING, SING A SONG:
Andy Best, Adam Baker, Briana Rhine, and Greg King sing with the choir for the last time.

ANTICIPATION:
Doug Fulk and Jill Bowen are waiting for whose name will be called first to go up on stage.

THE WINNER IS:
Joe Price won the student council citizenship award for his hard work at school and kindness to everybody.

IT'S OVER:
Scott Whitlock and Cody Richardson walk together after the commencement ceremony.

WRAP 'EM':

Ryan Surber wraps his legs around his donkey and positions himself to shoot. Ryan was one of the leading scorers on the team along with Malinda Bartley.

POOPA SCOOPA:

Chi Livengood had the honor of scooping up the "dooty" that the donkeys left behind.

OH! THE BASKET IS THAT WAY?:

Katie Seigfried looks over her shoulder trying to lead her donkey the way to right basket.

NOT THE FLOOR, THE DONKEY:

Jim Douglas obviously got thrown off his donkey more than once; he went home with a few cuts and bruises.

LINE 'EM UP:

Coach Davis lines up the basketball to try and get the teachers team a win, but unfortunately they lost.

HI HOOO DONKEY:

Amber Ashwell holds on for dear life hoping that her donkey won't buck her off.

GET ROWDY:

Jim Douglas tries to mount his donkey, while all the teachers just stand around taking a nice break.

Donkey Basketball

C This years donkey basketball was definitely an event to come to CP and watch. The night was full of bumps, bruises, and ripped pants. The senior team took home a victory over all teams that challenged them. This was something that will give the seniors a great memory and they can say, "I played donkey basketball!"

AND THE WINNER IS:

Ryan Surber, Amber Ashwell, Kyle Joseph, Brook Haughs, and Josh Surber throw their hands up in happiness after defeating the teachers' team and the sheriffs' team. When asked, "What it was like to watch the donkey basketball game?" Justin Miller said, "It was hilarious and exhilarating."

In Memory of Paul White and Jon Kauffman

THEY NEVER QUITE LEAVE US

They never quite leave us, our friends who have passed
Through the shadows of death to the sunlight above;

A thousand sweet memories are holding them fast
To the places they blessed with their presence and love.

The work which they left and the books which they read
Speak mutely, through still with an eloquence rare,

And the songs that they sang, the words that they said,
Yet linger and sigh on the desolate air.

--Margaret E. Sangster

THE GIFT OF LIFE FILLED WITH LOVE

We are each of us angels with only one wing.
And we can only fly by embracing each other.

--Luciano De Crescenzo

THE GIFT OF SPIRITUAL HAND HOLDS

Whatever is to make us better and happy,
God has placed either openly before us or close to us.

--Seneca

THE GIFT OF GOOD ADVICE

There are times when life isn't all you want, but it's all you have. So what I say is: Have it! Stick a geranium in your hat and be happy!

--Anonymous

THE GIFT OF SOME OF THE MOST WON- DERFUL WISDOM OF ALL

We can bring so many blessings into our lives just by realizing that it is never too late. Before you turn the page on this day, make a pact with yourself to untie the ribbons and open the gifts we are given in this life. Do ordinary things in extraordinary ways. Have health and hope and happiness! Live a full life on this earth, understand your real worth, and wish on all your stars.

And don't ever forget, for even a day,
how very special
you are.

--Douglas Pagles

THE GIFT OF AN ANGEL BY YOUR SIDE

May you always have an angel by your side,
Watching our for you in all the things you do.

Reminding you to keep believing in brighter days,
Finding ways for your wishes and dreams to come true.

Giving you hope and that is as certain as the sun.
Giving you the strength of serenity as your guide.

May you always have love and comfort and courage.
And may you always have an angel by your side.

--Douglas Pagles

THE GIFT OF HOPE

When you need some help to get through the day;
When you need a whole lot less to concern you,
And a whole lot more to smile about.....
Sometimes you just have to remember:

It really is going to be okay.
You're going to make it through this day.
Even if it's one step at a time.

Sometimes you just have to be patient and brave and strong.
If you don't know how,
Just make it up as you go along.
And hold on to your hope as though it were a path to follow or a song to sing.

Because if you have hope,
You have everything.

--Douglas Pagles

THE GIFT OF A REAL FRIEND

A friend is one of the nicest things you can have, and one of the best things you can be. A friend is a living treasure, and if you have one, you have one of the most valuable gifts in life.

A friend is the one who will always be beside you, through all the laughter, and through each and every tear. A friend is the one thing you can always rely on; the one you can always open up to; the one wonderful person who always believes in you in a way that no one else seems to.

A friend is a sanctuary.

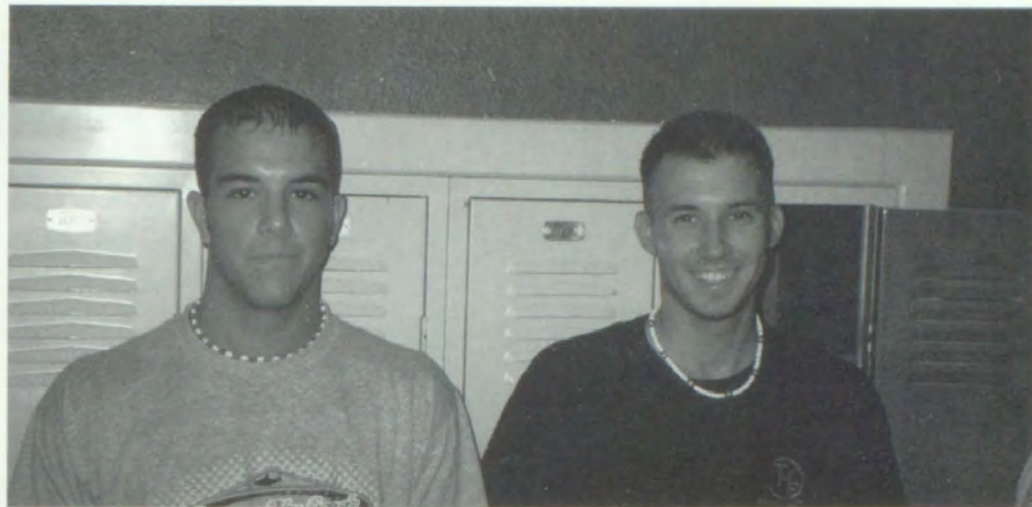

A friend is a smile.

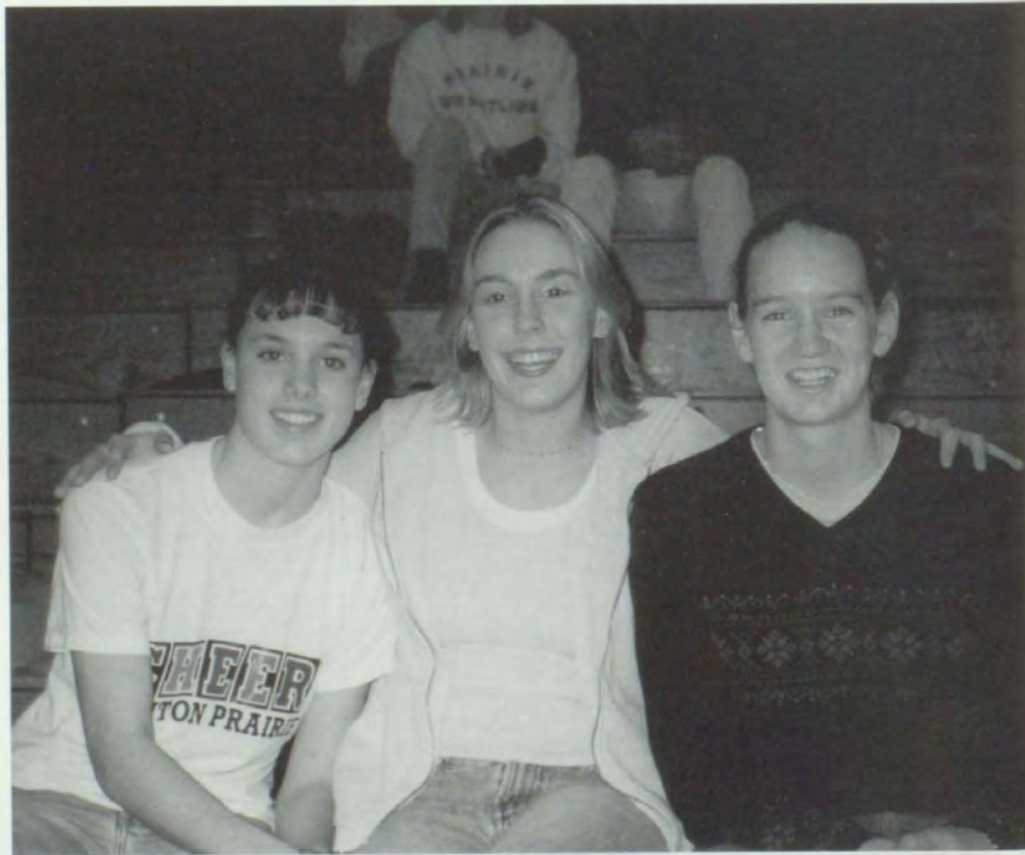

A friend is a hand that is always holding yours, no matter where you are, no matter how close or far apart you may be.
A friend is someone who is there and will always--always--care. A friend is a feeling of forever in the heart.

A friend is the one door that is always open. A friend is the one whom you can give your key. A friend is one of the nicest things you can have, and one of the best things you can be.

My favorite movie is Hercules because we got to see it in Miss O'Bryan's class.

YOU'VE GOT MAIL: Devin Gregory uses one of the computers in the library. Many of the seventh graders took advantage of study hall time to use the computers.

CHEESE: Brittany Arroyo smiles off the camera during Reading class. As a reward for a good week, the students got to play a game on Fridays.

READ IT: Mike Haley prepares to take a Reading Counts quiz on the computer in Miss O'Bryan's room. All students are required to take the tests in order to pass their English classes.

NOT IN MY HOUSE: Adam Wright helps to defend a Rossville basketball player during a tie game. Many of the students in the junior high are active in sports.

CP FOOTBALL

Young team has great season

The CP football team had a good season and looks to be turning things around. They ended the season at 4-6, losing to Frankton in the first round of sectional.

The Gopher defense was led by sophomore Trent Rogers with 147 tackles, a new school record. Junior Nate McGraw had 121 tackles and 2 interceptions, and senior Kyle Joseph had 70 tackles and 5 interceptions.

Sophomore Josh Burgin finished with 92 tackles.

The offense was led by tailback Kyle Joseph with 102 carries with 893 yards and 10 touchdowns. Trent Rogers had 873 yards on 121 carries and Nate McGraw tallied up 383 yards on 53 carries with two touchdowns.

Coach Davis said of the team, "We had a team small in numbers, but big in heart."

CELEBRATING THE MOMENT: Seniors Matt Fullerton and Kyle Joseph share a Kodak moment while celebrating a Gopher victory.

TOUCHDOWN:

Ranan Rawlings gives his impression of the old Chicago Bears' runningback Walter Payton. Rawlings scored on this run.

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

HOLD THAT LINE:

Look at that line. Lapel shouldn't have even tried to play defense. This year's offensive linemen, consisting of Josh Burgin, Craig Pearson, Jeremy Barnes, Jim Douglas, Shawn Hester, and Kirk Gustafson, protected sophomore quarterback Eric Ramsey, as well as back-up QB junior Nate McGraw.

RUNNING BACK

C-YA LATER:

Senior tailback Kyle Joseph follows his blockers down the field on his touchdown run. Joseph's three touchdowns lead the Gophers to yet another victory. For the season, Joseph, a captain on the team, led the Gophers in carries, total rushing yards and yards per carry.

WHAT ELSE IS NEW?:

Coach Davis and Coach Joseph share some words of wisdom with the rest of the team.

CRAZY VICTORY:

Recently escaping from the insane asylum, Jeremy Barnes comes ready to play.

JR High Football

Showing good signs for future

The seventh grade team ended their season with a 3-3 record and outscoring their opponents 62-30. Ethan Krueger and Zach Siebert led in touchdowns with four a piece. Bob Neal led with two two-point conversions. Ethan led the team with 26 points total. Zach Siebert tallied up 24 points on the season. Zach Morris had two touchdown passes and one two-point conversion pass.

The eighth grade team had a tough season ending at 0-6. They did show signs of improvement towards the end of the season. Devin McDonald, Jordan Brewer, Kip Pollard, just to name a few, were major contributors to the team. Some seventh graders had to play both seventh and eighth grade games. The two teams combined for the much needed experience to compete at the varsity level.

BUMP: Casey Shepard passes the ball while teammates Julie Neal and Jacque Allmandinger watch on.

KEEP YOUR EYE ON THE BALL: Katie Seigfried blindly passes the ball as teammate, Melissa Nance, looks on.

The 2000 varsity volleyball team, coached by Ms. Connie Garrett in her first year as a retired teacher, didn't end the season as they had hoped.

The Lady Gophers had a losing record for the first time in school history at 17-19 and went 1-2 in the conference. Although they did not come out on top, the team broke a eight consecutive game losing streak, winning the last three regular season games. The ladies were also Sectional Runner-Up.

This year, six players received a Gatorade Will to Win Athlete Award. Andrea Thies walked away the Mental Attitude Award winner and Kari Cochran received the Most Improved Player Award. Ashlee Mennen and Melissa Nance made the All-Conference First Team, and Katie Seigfried got an Honorable Mention. Ashlee Mennen was also invited to the All-Star tryouts.

The Junior Varsity had a succesful year in 2000. Juniors Julie Neal and Rachel Alexander were the two top players of the team.

COLLEGE BOUND: Malinda Bartley keeps her eyes on the ball as she makes the toss for her serve. Malinda plans to continue her volleyball career at Vincennes University.

Freshman & Junior High Volleyball

The freshman volleyball team was coached by Wendy Grissom. The girls finished the season 14-12.

Jenna Clossin, Katrin Hoffman, and Stacey Anderson were key players to the team. All three players moved up to play with the JV team as well.

The Junior High volleyball teams had a great season this year.

The seventh grade team, coached by Andrea Taylor, came out with a 10-2 record.

The team won a second place trophy from the Early Bird Tourney, and a Third place trophy in the County Tourney.

The eighth grade team, coached by Stacey Lane, finished 11-1 and won both the Early Bird and County Tournies.

STRIKE A POSE:

Kelsey Schutz and Michelle Turner are naturals in front of the camera. Both girls have been playing volleyball for years.

SAY CHEESE:

Eighth grader Janette Burgin shows us her biggest smile. Janette's great attitude kept the team on track.

HOW MANY LICKS:
Seventh graders Ashley Goodman, Jenna Beale, and Alicia Bohart take a time out from enjoying their Tootsie Pops to smile for the camera.

THE BIONIC MAN:

Senior J.J. Boesch runs away the rest of the field. J.J. had a tremendous year making it all the way to semi-state.

TURNING THE CORNER:

Senior Ryan Surber turns the corner and heads for the finish. Ryan had a good year after battling a mid-season injury.

This year's cross-country team had a good year. The boys were Charger Invitational Champions. They placed third in the county as a team and second in Conference. The boys had three All-Conference runners this year. They were J.J. Boesch, who won the meet, Josh Surber who placed tenth, and Craig Adams, who placed eleventh.

The girls' team placed second at the Charger Invitational. They placed second in the county meet and also placed second in the Conference meet. The girls had three All-Conference runners as well. They were Noel Ashwell, who placed sixth, Holly Smith who placed ninth, and Melissa Devore, who placed tenth.

The boys' team finished the year with a 7-2 dual meet record. The girls' team ended with a 2-3 record.

Coach Smith reflected on this year saying, "This was the year of the rabbit. This team was hoping all season long. I won't forget it."

FINISHING STRONG:

Junior Morgan Larhman hurries towards the finish line while trying to hold off the other runner. Morgan finished the year strong.

ALMOST DONE:

Senior Josh Surber turns off the after burners as he coasts to the finish line. Josh really came through during the last part of the season.

THE FOUR STUDS:

After a hard days work these four studs like to jog to cool down from the tough day they had just finished. These boys had a great year and will be missed greatly.

SEMI-STATE BOUND:
Trent Rogers is attempting to gain control using a Russian tie. He was a Semi-State qualifier this year.

Wrestling

This year was a big step up for the Clinton Prairie wrestling program. The team finished 12-11 in the season and 4-2 in Conference, placing third. The guys attended five tournaments. They placed second at County, which had never happened before, eighth at Tipton Invite, and first at Indiana School for the Blind Invite. Each wrestler in the ISB Invite placed, bringing home a tournament trophy.

The team placed fourth at Sectional. Five wrestlers four made it on to Semi-State. JJ Boesch, Roger Burton, Matt Fullerton, and Trent Rogers were outstanding wrestlers on the team. All were Semi-State qualifiers.

"There were many firsts achieved by three kids. We had a winning season which has not happened in over fifteen years," says Coach Andersen.

"We were also very successful as individuals. We had five wrestlers with more than twenty wins."

ABOVE: GOING FOR TECHNIQUE: Justin Clawson is trying to maneuver a reversal. He earned more than twenty wins this year.

TURN OVER DANG IT: JJ Boesch is using a ball-and-chain move to put his opponent on his back. JJ made it to the second round of Semi-State as a senior.

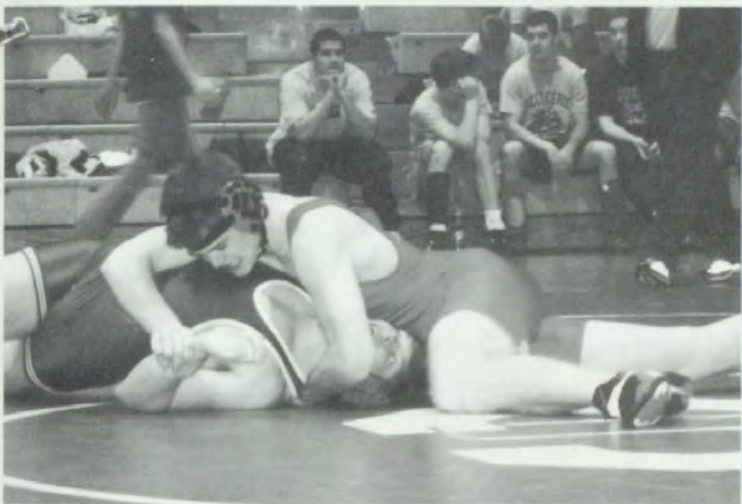

1-2-3...
Pinning his opponent Jim Douglas uses a move called the half-nelson.

BELOW LEFT: MOST IMPROVED: Steven Felty, a junior on the team who was most improved this season, is going for the pin.

STAND UP!
Coach Andersen encourages one of his wrestlers and gives him tips on winning his match.

SHOWING DETERMINATION:
Matt Fullerton is working on turning his opponent. He fooled everyone this year by going farther than expected.

GOLF

A Swingin' Season

Golf Team Set Records This Year

Boys golf reached many goals this year and worked very hard. Katrin Hoffman, being the lone girl, improved her game tremendously.

Craig Adams, the only senior, lead the team many times with the best score. Craig will be leaving his team to play at the collegiate level next year. But don't think that will make the boys team any weaker; there are many underclass men that can fill in the spot.

Brock Hankins and Brian Adams are both experienced, strong players who will lead the team next year.

The boys team has a lot to work on for next year in order to fill the shoes of this year's team.

With Coach Hintzman's encouragement, and with the team's dedication and hard work, they will come out on top and have a wonderful season.

SHOULD I USE THIS CLUB: Brock Hankins looks in the distance to see which club would help him reach his goal.

HAVING FUN:
Neal Kemmerer shows his crazy side while waiting for his turn.

LINING UP:
Brock Hankins lines up for the perfect putt while Kevin Alexander stands near by to watch.

Laura Marcotte slows down after handing off to Morgan Lahrman.

1-2-3 RELEASE:
Hyla Baker throws the shot put with all her might. She was the team's top thrower in both discus and shot put.

Varsity Boys Track

The varsity boys track team had a great season, finishing the season with a record of 19-2. They started out by beating Frankfort in the first meet of the season. Following that up by defeating Clinton Central. Later in the year they won the county meet. The team also won the big conference meet by a huge margin. During the conference meet the 4 x 100 team of Nate McGraw, Kyle Joseph, Kyle Marcotte, and Robert Royer broke the record that was set in 1982. At sectionals J.J. Boesch won the two mile race and moved on to the regional. Junior Kyle Marcotte moved on also. He placed high enough in the 110 high hurdles and the 300 hurdles to move on. Also moving on was freshman Robert Royer in the 200 meter dash.

WHOA NELLY:

Running to the finish line Josh Burgin still has time to give a sweet little pose. Being a sophomore Josh still has a couple great years left in him.

JUMPING FOR JOY:

Tyler Remaly shows that he will be a track star in the years to come. Only being a freshman Tyler still has plenty of experience to gain.

RUN FOREST RUN:

Robert Royer tries to run away from the competition. Royer, a freshman, proved that he can compete at high school level.

THE TRACK BOYS

Coach Kent Chezem had a great year also, coaching a track record of 19-2, and having a successful year in basketball again. It isn't easy, but somebody has to do it.

WARMING UP:
Matt Fullerton and Nick Leto show what it takes to be such high performance machines. They both played important roles in this championship season.

WATCH YOURSELF:
Kyle Marcotte blows his Frankfort competition away. Kyle had a great year and still has another year left.

HE'S GOING THE DISTANCE:
J.J. Boesch leads the pack of runners. J.J. represented C.P. at the regional meet in the two mile, otherwise known as the crazy man's run.

GOING THE DISTANCE:

Ryan Surber throws his stanky cheese pitch to the plate as he goes for the strike out. Ryan was one of the area's top leaders in strike outs this year.

WATCH OUT:

Jacob Loveless walks back to the dugout after an at bat. Jacob has been one of the main offensive powers on the team.

MUSCLE MAN:

Dale Newhart throws the ball to first base to try to get the man out. After a great season as a varsity baseball player, Dale will return with two more years of eligibility.

BREAK UP THE SEWING CIRCLE:

Some of the team members huddle around after coming in from an inning.

HERE'S THE PLAN:

Coach Hilgediek talks the game plan over with Conn Zickmund. Conn was one of the leading contributors on the team.

BACK 2 BACK

2001 State Champs!!

The Varsity squad of 2000-2001 consisted of eight girls. These eight girls had the challenge of filling the shoes of last year's squad consisting of four seniors. This year's squad was very young having 5 freshman and only two seniors. On top of being a young team they had to also fill the spot of "State Champions." These eight girls proved that they too could be state champs and compete with other squad's that had more experience. Many hours were put into making this year's squad the best they could be. Practice, decorating, tumbling, and many more unrecognized efforts are all the things that the girls battled. This year the girls got what they deserved, their state rings! Now it is the 2001-2002 cheer squad's job to win the title again and keep in on the Clinton Prairie side!

High School Marching Band

The CP Marching Band, The Pride of Prairie, played music written by Jack Stamp and James Swearingen this year in their marching show. This entire show was learned by the end of July. The marching season began at Purdue's Band day. The group marched along with 2,500 other band students and in front of 60,000 spectators. The first competition was held at ISU with a tough class D. Later that day at Terre Haute North High School the band took 2nd place. At Greenwood the band put on its best performance to date, by scoring more than 15 points higher than ever before. At district the band missed a first Division rating by 85 hundredths of a point. The 2000 Pride of Prairie season ended at North Judson in an array of weather conditions. Which didn't seem to phase the band they received a first division rating and recieved the award for Best of Music.
