SPECIAL EVENTS

HOMECOMING 2001

Football, Family, Friends, and Fun

EVERYONE SAY GRADUATION: Seniors get together for a group shot after the queen was crowned.

RETURNING ROYALTY: Amber Ashwell waits to crown this years queen. Amber was last year's Prom Queen and Snow Queen.

THE ROYAL CARRIAGE: Toni Gabriel rides around the track in one of the cars donated by The Star City Corvette Club. She was then greeted by her escort, Peter Lusk.

TAKING A STROLL: Igor Vincetic escorts Shanna Oberle to the football field for the ceremonies. Igor is from Slovenia and was one of our exchange students for the year.

AND THE WINNER IS:
Amber Ashwell crowns the 2001 Homecoming Queen, Rachel Giles. Rachel was extremely excited to receive this honor.

KODAK MOMENT:
Seniors Julie Neal and Morgan Lahrman get together for a quick picture. Homecoming was very special to the girls due to the life-long friendship between them.

SCORE:
Nate McGraw shows off his skills in this attempt to score. Nate was a team captain and a very valuable player on defense and offense this season.

What do we think of when someone says Homecoming? Most think of a large crowd, high energy, the Music Boosters Chicken Dinner, queen candidates and representatives, and, hopefully, a victory. The 2001 Homecoming was no exception.

The evening began with the usual worry of the outcome of the game. Another main worry was the rain, but it stopped shortly before the game began.

By the start of the game, the crowd was huge, and expectations and energy were high. Fans were not disappointed. At halftime, the Gophers were ahead, and Homecoming ceremonies were about to start.

The Star City Corvette Club ushered the queen candidates around the track where they were greeted by their escorts. The Homecoming court consisted of candidates Julie Neal and escort Micah Livengood, Morgan Lahrman escorted by Nick Leto, Rachel Giles escorted by Roger Burton, Shanna Oberle and escort Igor Vincetic, Toni Gabriel and escort Peter Lusk; junior representative Noel Ashwell and escort Joey Loveless; sophomore representative Laura Marcotte escorted by Ben Knapp; and freshman representative Ashley Smith escorted by Grant Williams.

Last year's Homecoming Queen, Alethea Crane, was unable to attend. However, last year's Prom Queen, Amber Ashwell, came home to crown this year's Queen, Rachel Giles.

At the end of an exciting second half, the Gophers could add to their record a tremendous defeat over the Tri-Central Trojans with a final score of 62-7.

Duke of the Court

The 2001 ceremony named Brent Ferguson the Duke of the Court.

ROYALS: Some of the Duke of the Court candidates and their escorts take a break from all the excitement to pose for a picture.

JUNIORS: Josh Burgin represents the junior class while Stevi Wood escorts him. Josh was a major contributor to this year's football, basketball, and track teams.

SOPHOMORES: All eyes were on sophomore representative Devin Lane and his escort Jaime Leming. Devin was stylin' in his groovy retro tux.

RETURNING FAVORITE: Senior candidate Josh Baker and Shanna Oberle smile for the camera as they walk out on the court. This may have been Josh's first year back at Prairie, but around school he was a well-known football player.

THE EPITOME OF COOL: This year's Duke of the Court Brent Ferguson, with Rachel Giles, shows off his T-shirt. Aside from the T-shirt, Brent also received the Duke of the Court Sceptor.

FRESHMEN: Chelsea Vick escorts the freshman representative Jesse Cacy onto the floor. For being freshmen, the two made a flawless and professional entrance.

FIRE UP: The crowd gets rowdy for the Lady Gophers. Clinton Central is a county rival and the crowd was loud, excited, and very supportive of their number one team.

On October 4th, Clinton Prairie Volleyball team faced off against Clinton Central in a Duke of the Court county rival matchup. The girls played hard, but lost.

On a happier note, the annual Duke of the Court ceremony was held before the game. Representatives of the court were: freshman Jesse Cacy with escort Chelsea Vick; sophomore Devin Lane with escort Jaime Leming; and junior Josh Burgin with escort Stevi Wood.

The senior candidates for Duke were: Brian Adams with escort varsity volleyball player Julie Neal; Josh Baker with escort Shanna Oberle; Brent Ferguson with escort Homecoming Queen Rachel Giles; Kyle Marcotte with escort cross-country runner Morgan Lahrman; and Nathan McGraw with escort cross-country runner Melissa DeVore.

Last year's Duke Kyle Joseph returned to pass on the honor to this year's Duke of the Court, Brent Ferguson.

Brent Ferguson is a four-year active member in the school drama club, and starred in the 2001 Fall Play, Chickenheart. Brent is also the Senior Class Vice President.

Ironically, this was Brent's sister, junior Stevi Wood's last chance to be a Duke of the Court escort, as she will be graduating at the end of the year.

Spirituality,

who says you can't have that in school?

A LEAGUE OF THEIR OWN:
The 2001 members pose for a quick snap-shot. The cast was the last to act under the direction of Mrs. Moon.

DRAMA QUEEN: Jenna Haug rolls her eyes as she gets into character. Jenna was a four-year member of the Fall Play.

Fall Play: Chickenheart

INTERCONTINENTAL DIPLOMACY AND

Elvira Aiylchieva Turdubekovna

Country: Kyrgyzstan

Host Family: The Fossnocks

Differences between CP and your home school: "American students can choose what classes they want to take. In Kyrgyzstan we are required to take more than 15 subjects each year no matter if we like it or not. We don't have a choice. In U.S. most of the test exams are in written way. In Kyrgyzstan high schools are more like colleges. It's a lot harder to study, we are given sometimes too much homework."

Most memorable moments at CP: First day at school, Homecoming.

Favorite American Food: Papa John's mushroom pizza, KFC chicken.

Least Favorite American Food: Broccoli

Favorite things about American culture: I like Julia Roberts and Sandra Bullock's movies. I like Arts & Entertainment.

Things missed most about home: Family, doing crazy things with her friends, living in a city.

Shun Shan Alfred Ma

Country: Hong Kong, China

Host Family: The Fossnocks

Differences between CP and your home school: "Wow! A whole lot different. American schools encourage sports more. My home school put more attention on 'textbooks.' Plus, my school has a big soccer field instead of a football field. Soccer rules!"

Most memorable moments at CP:
The biggest difference is that the school I used to attend is an all-boy school.

Favorite American Food: Pizza, burgers.
"American-style Chinese food is pretty good, although not as good as the original stuff."

Least Favorite American Food: Taco Bell, candy (too sweet), Dr. Pepper/Cherry Coke (tastes like medicine), BBQ sauce

Favorite things about American culture: "Believe it or not, I like Britney Spears. My favorite thing about American culture is the relationship between each other. I don't know how to say. It is warm."

Things missed most about home: "The city, the noise, the dirt, the crowds, the trash lying on the street floor, the stinky smell from sweat, oil, food, cars, the street, everything. I don't miss the McDonald's, KFC, and Pizza Hut in Hong Kong--compared to here, they suck badly. I also miss the food in Hong Kong. Ever tried curry-seafood-fried rice? It is 10 times better than those terrible taco things."

FOREIGN EXCHANGE: Broaden Your Horizons

Igor Vincetic

Country: Slovenia

Host Family: The Snellenbargers

Differences between CP and your home school: "In Slovenia we have a different schedule every day. You get to choose subjects at CP, but in my country we don't get to choose. We change classrooms and professors but we don't change classmates. You spend all your days all the time with the same people in your class.

Most memorable moments at CP: "Most of my memorable moments are connected to basketball. I loved every practice I had and every game I played. There were some games that will probably always stay in my memory, like Clinton Central. I am very thankful to Coach Chezem because he gave me a chance to play on the varsity level."

Favorite American Food: cookies, brownies, Pop Tarts, peanut butter, breadsticks

Least Favorite American Food: "I think your pizza tastes a lot different than ours and I don't like it as much."

Favorite things about American culture: Favorite TV shows are Friends and SNL. Favorite movie is Thomas Crown Affair. Favorite actor is Harrison Ford.

Things missed most about home: I missed my friends and family most. I miss playing soccer and volleyball.

Frederic Wuensche

Country: Germany

Host Family: The Cacys

Differences between CP and your home school: "After elementary school Germans have a choice between three high schools, a less academic school, a middle academic school, and the high school which lasts 13 years. Also, there are no school athletics."

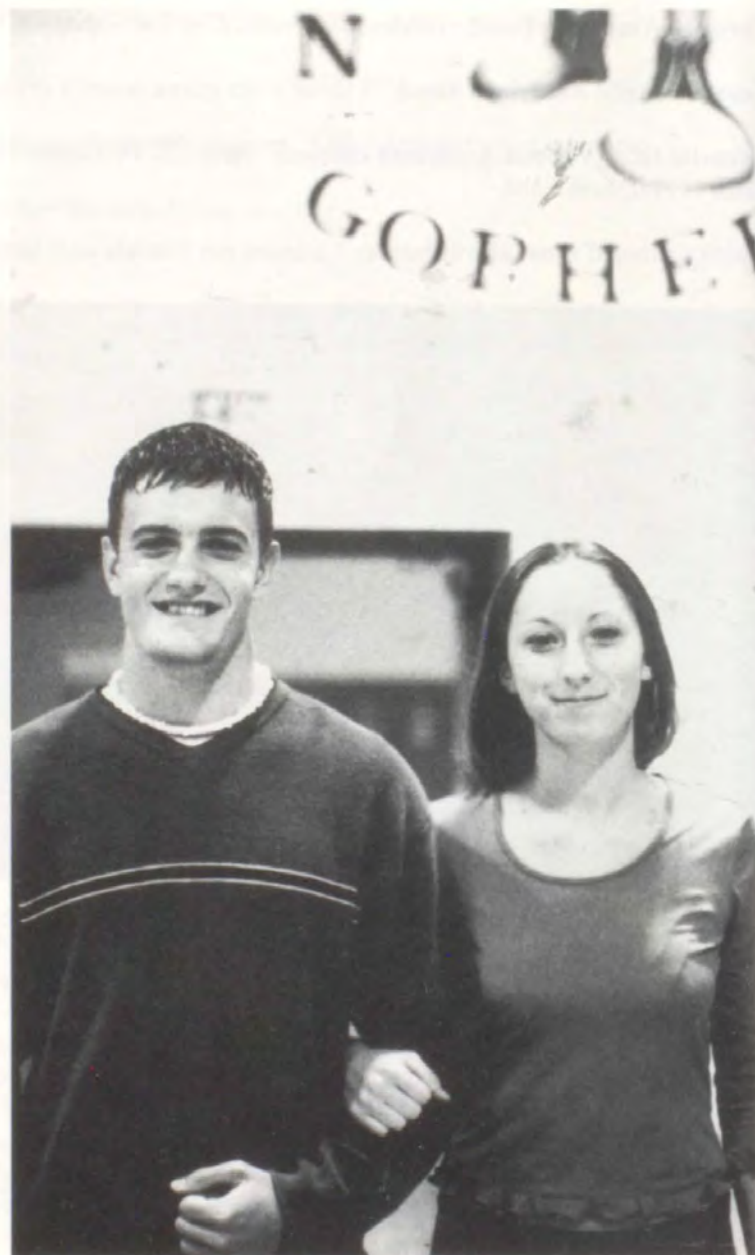

Most memorable moments at CP: "First day of Cross Country practice. The welcome of the XC team was great! The ski-trip with the 8th graders to Michigan. The first time in the Guidance Office (I was so nervous). CP beating CC in basketball."

Favorite American Food: "Ribeye steak made by my host dad, beef jerky, and all the good food by my host mom."

Least Favorite American Food: Pumpkin pie

Favorite things about American culture: Movies: Finding Forrester, John Q, Pearl Harbor. Actors: Will Smith and Denzel Washington. Fashion: Tommy Hilfiger and Ralph Lauren clothes. TV shows: The Osbournes on MTV and The Simpsons. Fast Food: White Castle mini-burgers.

Things missed most about home: "The forest I used to run in."

How many cars have you wrecked and how?

Stacey Peter

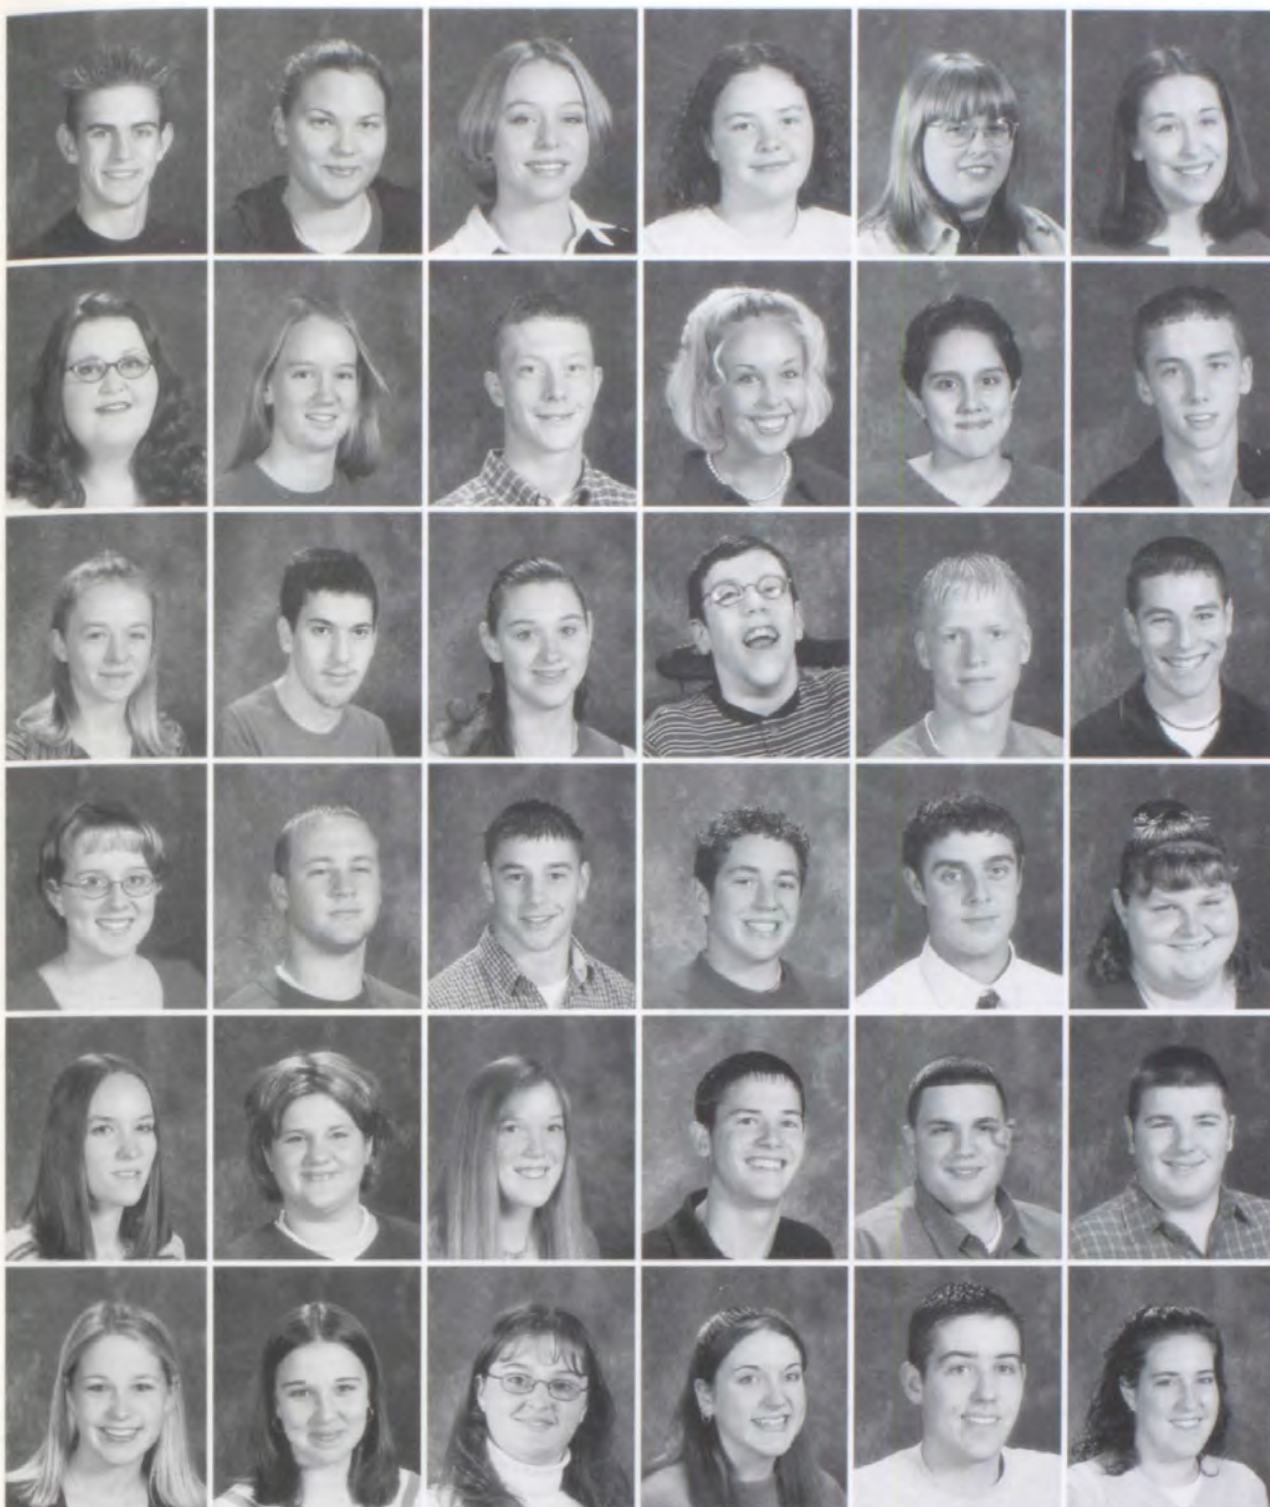

"I haven't really wrecked majorly. I once was backing up in my driveway and I hit my brother's car."

Joey Loveless

"My first wreck I was following a Chrysler too closely, rear ended it, and then ran from the accident. My second wreck was in Wal-Mart parking lot. I rear-ended a Jeep Cherokee cause they faked me out. My third wreck I ran through a fence because I lost traction. My fourth wreck I was in

Wal-Mart parking lot and pulled the E-brake to park and slammed into the side of a van. My fifth wreck I was pulling into my driveway; my dad pulled out and rear-ended me. My sixth wreck I went off the road and hit a tree. My seventh wreck I hit a suburban in the Wal-Mart parking lot because I was going too fast. My eighth wreck I got in a head-on collision with a Ford Ranger. My ninth wreck I hit a curb doing about 95 mph. My tenth wreck I went through Dairy Queen and didn't see the foot and a half tall curb that I was headed straight for and hit it head on."

"While I was backing out of the garage the bumper on my mom's minivan got caught on my dad's truck tire and ripped the bumper off of the van. I don't remember how much it cost. I still had my learner's permit and the insurance didn't cover the damage."

What was your worst date?

Ashley Walker

"I went out with a few friends in couples, and I had a feeling something bad was gonna happen. When I walked in the movie theatre, I saw the guy I was seeing with his ex-girlfriend, and to make things worse the movie was so packed we had to sit right across from them."

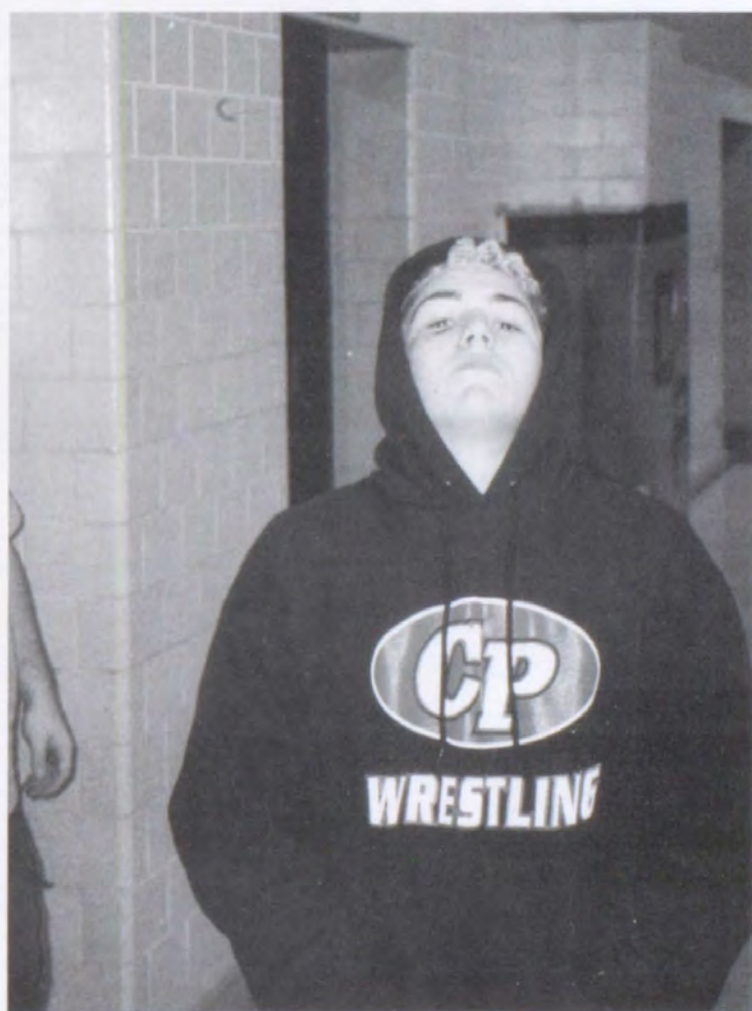

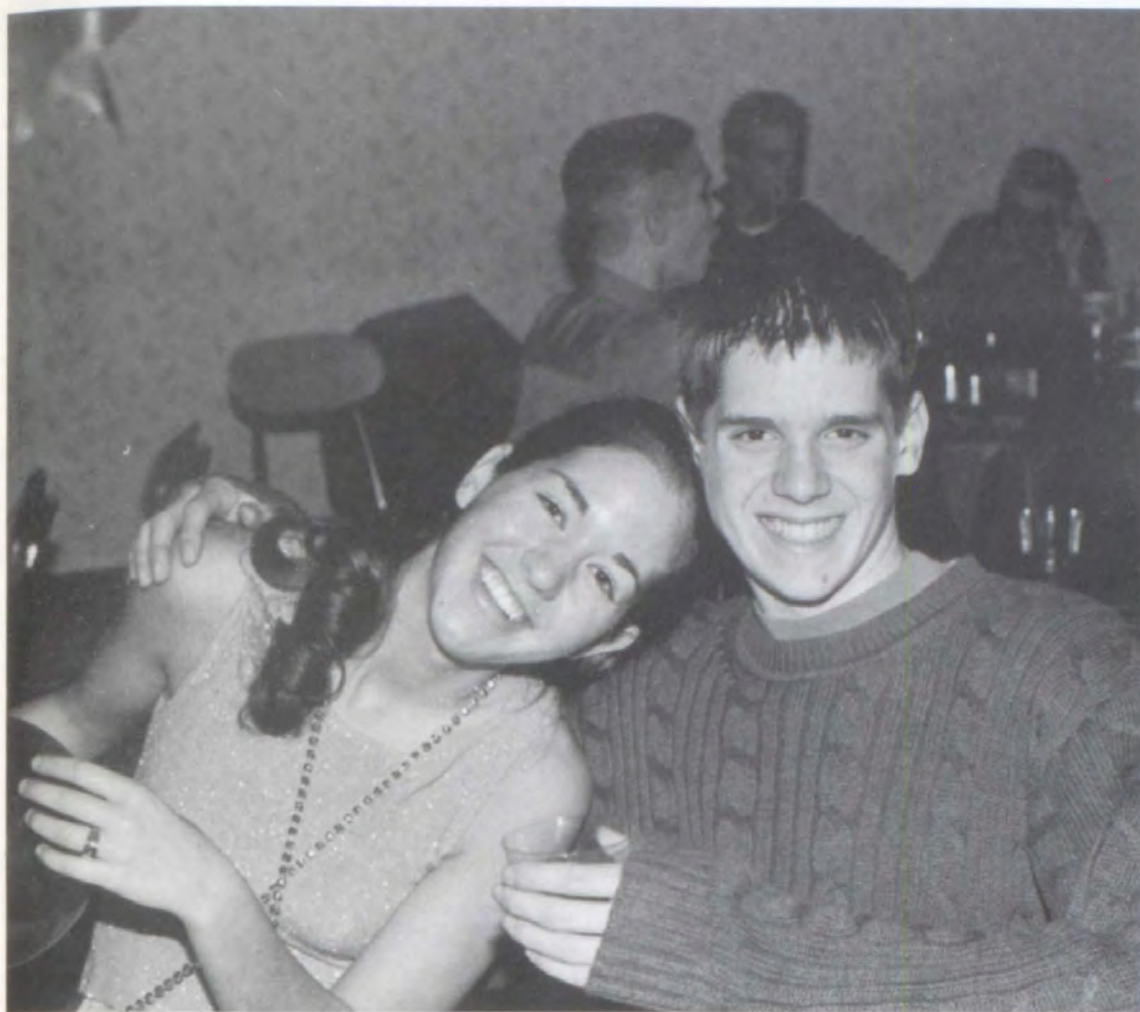

Jennie Goff

"I didn't really want to go with this guy, but I didn't want to be mean because I was going to be his first date. I told him that we weren't going to be anything more than just friends, but he still said he liked me a lot. So we went out to eat and to a movie and we started talking about our family. He brought up the fact that he had a cousin with last name "Goff" and told me his first name. I started busting up laughing and told him that he was my cousin too! I said, You just asked your cousin on a date! He was so upset the rest of the date he made me pay for whatever else I wanted the rest of the date."

Ashley Calloway

"We were going out to eat and then to a movie. We ate at Applebee's, which I paid for. Then we went to a movie. We decided to see Eyes Wide Shut. I spent about $40.00 on our date. The next day he called and said that he didn't want to talk to me again."

What is the biggest change from elementary?

Jay Heavilon

"Mentally the biggest change would be how much we matured and are maturing. Physically the biggest change would be walking to the classes every period. Having a different teacher every hour is the best thing about Jr. High."

Matt Lucas

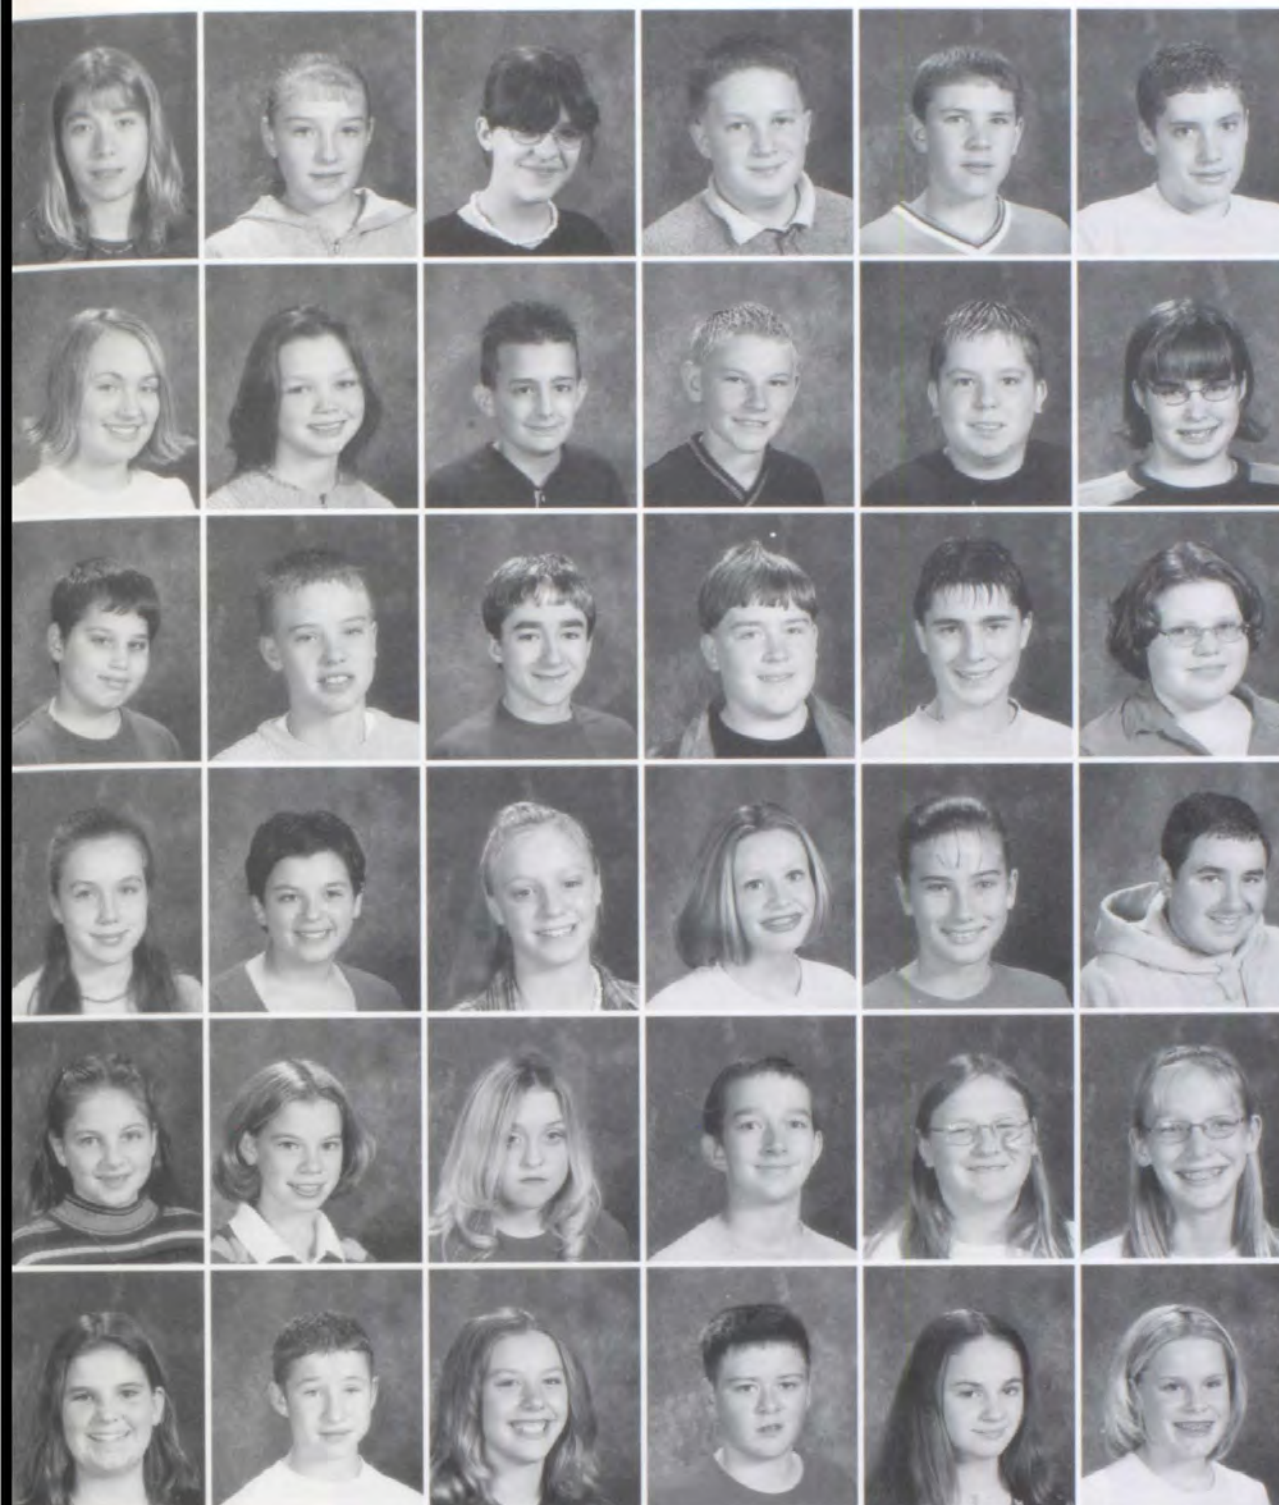

"The biggest change from elementary to Jr. High is that you have seven teachers instead of just one or two, more homework than last year, and you don't have to walk in a straight line."

Rachel Gick

"The biggest change is the classes and lockers. It makes the day go faster in that you're set on time. I think it makes it easier."

Chelsea Nelson

"I have been written up twice, once for getting in a fight with Dustin Laflen and second for writing something on Bobby Giles' bookbag."

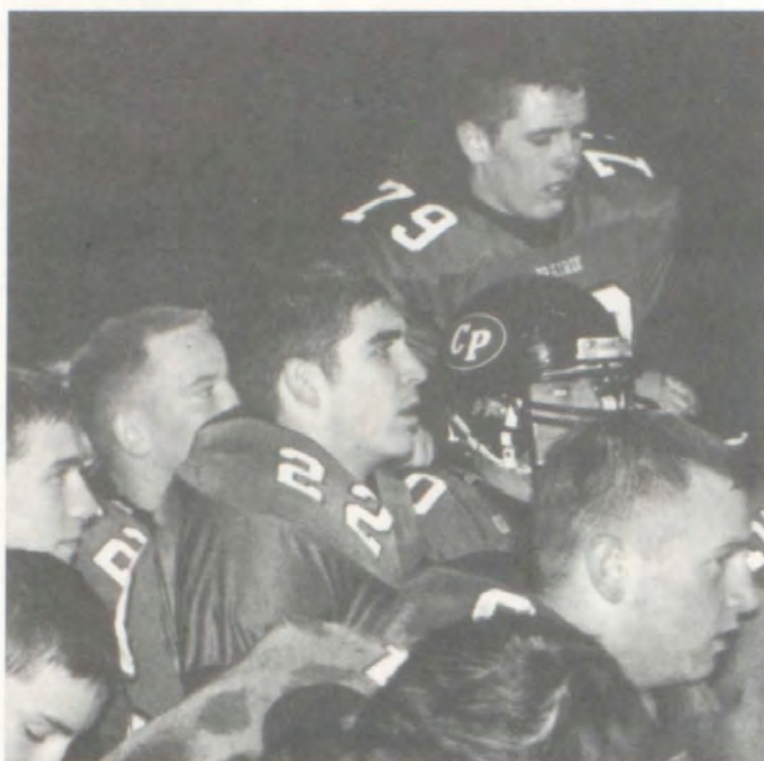

Kayla Snellenbarger

"I have been written up two times this year. The first one is when my best friend and I were acting like we were fighting and punching each other. The second was when I talked back to my teacher."

Bass Smith

"I forged Mrs. Rose's name on a pass to go to the library. My study hall teacher, Mr. Bertucci, was suspicious and called her."

SPORTS

WARNING! STUD COMING THROUGH:

Kyle Marcotte gets into the inside of the defenders, as Kevin Alexander blocks for him. Kyle had 12 touchdowns on the season. This year Clinton Prairie won the Hoosier Heartland Conference for the first time in school history. Brian Adams set a school record with 22 PAT's in a season.

INSPIRATIONAL: "It's been a rollercoaster. We've been up and down all season. We've lost a lot of close games that we should have won, but the important thing is the team has stayed together. They are realizing that hard work pays off with winning the conference," Coach Davis reflected. Dru listens intently to coach Davis' instructions, while he was getting the play. Dru was a special teams leader for the Gophers.

TERRIBLE TWOS:

Jarred Light scampers to the outside looking to take it for six.

Aaron Snellenbarger runs along with Jarred looking for a block.

Prairie set 28 records this season. The Gophers set a record with 348 points scored in a season.

O CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN:

Nathan McGraw throws the football down the field. Nathan was a team captain this year along with Trent Rogers, Kyle Marcotte, Shawn Hester, and Eric Ramsey.

HERE TAKE IT: Nathan McGraw hands the ball off to Robert Royer. Robert had 190 yards in punt returns. Royer had one punt return for a touchdown.

"Throughout the year we improved a lot, as a team and individually. We ended on a high note at the end of the of the season by beating Central Catholic," commented Coach Crone on the season.

NUMBER ONE:

The Junior High Football team takes time from celebrating their victory over Central Catholic. The Gophers ended up with a 2-3 record.

TALK TO ME:

Coach Crone thanks all the guys who came out and played football with enthusiasm. The team appreciated the coaches coming and supporting them.

CONCENTRATION:

Katrin Hoffman's face shows her determination to get to the ball. Katrin displayed immense enthusiasm throughout the season.

HIGH FIVE:

Gayle Camp gets pumped for the game. She was a major contributor to the JV Team.

SEASONAL STASTICS:

It was a struggling season for the 13-21 Lady Gophers. A tough schedule filled with larger schools took a toll on the girls record. However, the girls worked hard this season and improved and were rewarded for their efforts. Senior Julie Neal was Honorable Mention All Conference. Juniors Melissa Nance and Kari Cochran were named to the All Conference Team and to the 1st and 2nd Class 1A All State Teams respectively. The team MVP was Melissa Nance leading the team with 264 defensive digs, 408 kills. While Julie Neal and Alex Castle were most improved. The top setter award went to Kari Cochran with 571 assists. The girls finished 4-1 in Hoosier Heartland Conference play for a second place finish.

TEAM: The excitement is brewing as the girls discuss strategy before the game. Team strategy was a major component of competing with larger schools this season.

GO BIG RED: Rachel Alexander goes for the kill while Jenna Clossin looks on. Rachel was a captain on this year's team.

ITS IN!: Casie Miles calls it in, as Tabitha Molberg passes it up. Both girls were key defensive players this season.

Ashley wasn't the only player from the freshman team to play on the JV team. All six players got their chance to play in a JV game.

PUSHING FORWARD:

Melissa DeVore is running the course at Camp Collum. She earned first place against Delphi, and this was her career best time of 16:55.

NUMBER ONE:

Jesse Cacy is once again receiving first place. Jesse was Prairie's number one boy runner this season winning All-County and All-Conference honors.

SUPERWOMAN:

Noel Ashwell surges by another apponent, looking toward the finish line. Noel's best time this season was 18:20.

SMILES ARE EVERY-

THING: Adam Chaney glances over to smile for the camera. What Adam lacked in speed he made up for in positive attitude.

DAWG PACK: Jake Sharp and Matt Maxwell are leading the pack. The boys did a nice job tackling "the mountain," the hardest part of the course.

MOTION LOTION: Darci Robison, Morgan Lahrman, Melissa DeVore, and Noel Ashwell stretch and warm up for the upcoming meet. After the girls stretch, they always apply their sports rub, "Hot Lotion."

Cross Country

The 2000-2001 team did exceptionally well although the team consisted of mostly underclassmen. Heather Jarrett, an underclassman, had the ability and determination to step up to the position of number one runner. Her best time was 16:27. She made All-Conference and All-County.

Freshman Jesse Cacy and foreign exchange student Fred Wuensche were able to excel for the boys and be the number one and number two runners. Jesse's best time was 17:01 and Fred's was 17:29. They also made All-Conference and All-County.

At the Hoosier Heartland Conference meet, the boys' and girls' teams both recieved third place. At Sectionals, the girls earned sixth place and the boys earned seventh place.

Coach Smith commented on the season, "It was a very enjoyable season. The girls had a good overall performance with a 6-1 record. The boys did very well, considering they were all young. The most enjoyable part of the season was seeing everyone develop, not just looking at the record."

FIRE UP: Brian Adams and Eric Ramsey rough it up before the game. Brian's leadership on and off the court will be sorely missed next season.

WITH ARMS WIDE OPEN: Ashley Lucas passes the ball inside while trying to fake out his opponent. Although Ashley wasn't known for his shooting ability his speed was an asset to the team.

SKY HIGH: Dale Newhart lays it in off the glass. Dale's mad ups helped him get easy inside shots and pull down the rebounds.

IN YOUR FACE: Jordan Brewer is known for hitting the treys. Jordan's knowledge of the game and his threat both offensively and defensively made him a freshman phenom.

COMIN' THROUGH: Josh Burgin is pushing his way to the basket for another two points. Josh was one of the team's key post players.

CAN'T BE STOPPED: Aaron Snellenbarger sticks his tongue out while he drives it to the basket. Aaron really stepped it up this year and contributed for the JV.

At the sectional the 1600 meter relay team of Lahrman, DeVore, Miles, and Ashwell placed fifth in a school record time of 4:22.25. WAIT ON IT:

Ashley Lucas awaits the pitch determined to hit the ball. Ashley was the leader in the outfield this year.

Baseball

The varsity baseball team went 6-10 in the regular season and were knocked out of sectionals this year. Their record did not reflect the improvement that the individual players showed overall this year.

Kirk Gustafson, a first year starting pitcher came on giving a huge contribution to the team.

With only three players available to come off the pine, the Gophers were a little bit understaffed.

However, their dedication and hard work made this year fun despite their losing record.

The team also had the help of foreign exchange student Alfred Ma this year in addition to the regular line-up.

NICE SHOOTIN TEX:

Kirk Gustafson rears back and throws the stinky cheese to the catcher. Kirk did a great job as first year starting pitcher.

SHOOTER: Kathy Seager hurries to get the ball back into the infield. Kathy was an all around player, who not only played in the outfield, she also played catcher occasionally.

Softball

Most people would think that a team without any seniors wouldn't have enough experience or leadership to succeed. The 2002 softball team made disbelievers eat their words.

This spring, the Lady Gophers won the state championship softball tournament with no seniors on the team.

They were lead by cooperation and teamwork, and by their coaches, not by any one individual.

Melissa Nance played a big role in the victories this season both on the offensive and defensive side of the ball. She was one of the team's pitchers as well as a leading hitter with a few home runs under her belt.

There were contributions by all of the players, both new and old.

The best part about this season is that all of the players will be returning next year. Can you say repeat?

STAY DOWN: Amanda Goodnight fields the ball and attempts to make the play. This was Amanda's first year playing first base.

HOMERUN: Melissa Nance steps up to the plate to smash one out of the park. Melissa was one of the teams leading pitchers and exhibited good leadership to her teammates.

As a teacher, what was your most embarrassing moment?

"Catching the box of Kleenex on fire and burning the top of the school desk during a lab demonstration." - Mr. Davis

"I was going backwards down a row and thought there was a chair and another desk behind me. I went to sit on the desktop when I felt the back of a chair. However, there wasn't another desk, and I fell to the floor! I picked myself up and went on with class, but by the end of the hour, I was in pain with a sprained wrist." - Mrs. Davis

What is the funniest thing a student has said to you?

"There was a female student in my class that had an electronic device that I needed to switch on each day. On this particular day, things were very hectic so I had forgotten to switch it on. Just after I began the lesson, and the room was hushed, I heard a female voice sing out loud and clear, 'Mr. Wines will you turn me on..'. Obviously my mouth dropped and I am sure I was pale. After regaining my senses, I did as she asked...'turned her on.'" - Mr. Wines

"What is your husband's last name?" I reacted with a blank stare." - Mrs. Mang.

Do you have any words of advice to Seniors?

"Do what's right. Even when it appears no one is watching." - Mr. Hilgediek

"If studying for a test requires you to stay up all night...do it!" - Mr. Johnson

"Be nice to everyone--you don't know where they came from or where they're going." - Mrs. Schilling

"Life is much easier, and much better, when you realize you're not the center of the universe." - Mrs. Marshall
