Identity is the theme of this year's edition of the yearbook. Everyone has an individual identity just like the fingerprints on our hands that make us unique and different from everyone else. This yearbook shows how unique we are and at the same time how unified we are as a school. From sports to text messages, we possess and share talents that give way to our true Identity. This year is also an exciting year because we as a country will choose a new president who will represent us for the next four years. That is just a part of what makes our Identity.

It has been a great year with the yearbook team designing this book. Everything from the compliments to the constructive criticism has benefitted the entire team, and Team Yearbook appreciates the chance to serve the students of Clinton Prairie by making something they can enjoy years down the road. The team also thanks Clinton Prairie students and faculty for the chance to design a new and exciting Identity for the face of CP.

Brian is my favorite memory -Melissa Ruch

LET

For Z-club we were planting flowers in front of the school. Mrs. Rodkey and Ms. Siemens went to Wal-Mart to buy the flowers. Audrey, Angma, and I were told to get the ground ready for the flowers. We were pulling weeds and turning the dirt. After we finished most of it we were really tired, so we took a break and sat with our backs against the school. The next I know I feel a hand on my shoulder. Turning and preparing to run, I turn to see Mr. Larsh. He was laughing so hard he was crying and said "Got Ya!" I didn't know whether to run away or just laugh.

-Jessica Maxwell

My absolute favorite memories would be our adventurous senior skip day and spring break 2008 in Panama with all my favorites
-Kayla Bennett

My favorite memory was when the CP band earned a gold at Regionals. I also enjoyed all of my friends and the great memories we made in the past four years.

-Nate Dale

The

Most of my favorite memories are the "holy crap!"-I almost threw up because I was laughing so hard-you had to be there-kind of moments.

-Chelsea Ramsey

My senior year of cross country we had morning practice on Friday. We were messing around and not really running or doing what we were supposed to be doing. We were almost done with the cornfield when Mr. Smith jumped out and had my pink blanket above his head yelling, "Booga Booga Booga!" It was hilarious and almost made me pee my pants! I also enjoyed always getting donuts. (Thanks, Jess)
-Morgan Cacy

One of my favorite memories was trying to explain belly button lint to Julia Heissler, a foreign exchange student from Germany.

-Sarah Faulkner

My favorite memory is when John, Melissa, Brian, and I went to Michigan for a weekend. We went skiing and had a bunch of fun. Luckily no one got hurt.

-Karen Timmons

Good

My favorite high school memory comes from drivers ed. One day while driving, Mr. Smith was busy reading the newspaper and when he looked over I was going about 80 mph. All he said was, "Let's slow down." Then he took a nap.

-Caleb Calloway

I would have to say my best memories consist of the great times spent with my friends when we would go out to eat before a football or basketball game

-Alicia Justice

The highlight of my high school years was when all my homies and I were at Jack Warwick's house playing Capture the Flag until 5 o'clock in the morning.

-Jacob Gick

One of my favorite memories from school would be the Christmas dance my senior year. It was the first time I have really loosened up my entire high school career.

-Christoph Weber

Times

Movie Club and Breakfast Club were great times. Going out to eat then going to football and basketball games was a blast. Also the excitement of Prom.

-Jessica Huffer

My favorite high school memory comes from my junior year. Some friends and I thought that paying to get into a softball game was way over rated. So we started making ideas to get around paying. One of us came up with the wonderful idea to sneak in by riding in someone else's trunk. After deciding what the plan was, we had to think of someone who had a huge trunk. Once we found this person we went to his house before the game. We all packed into his trunk (3 of us) and prepared for the long ride to school. We then got asked to park right next to Mrs. Travis, who was taking money. Our plan backfired, so we had to go down the road, unload the trunk and pay to get into the game. It was so much fun and I will never forget it because it was so hilarious.

By the way, Stephen Hall has a huge trunk.

-Danielle Morris

My favorite memory is when Brewer intercepted the football at Lapel and got tackled by the quarterback (no offense G.O.A.T) and I was doubled over laughing too hard to help block.

-Ryan Henderson

My favorite high school memory comes back from freshman year when Corey Cunningham kicked my locker and knocked my tooth out. I ran down the hallway screaming and everyone heard me.

Homecoming

2007-2008

The night of Homecoming, September 7, 2007, the Gophers faced the Tri Central Trojans. The Gophers dominated the field and the game with a score of 47-19. Coach Shaun Wines said this about the game : "The Air Gophers, piloted by Shawn Walker, threw for 166 yards and 4 touchdowns." Nick Seager and Rich Coope both contributed great yardage to the victory; Jacob Gick had 3 sacks; Justin Brewer had 10 tackles; Kevin Seilhymer led the team in tackles with a total of 13 and 1 sack; and Ryan Henderson also had 2 sacks. This game was dominated by the fantastic defense.

At halftime of the game, CP graduate Sam Sharp, escorted by fellow grad Kelley Snellenbarger, did the honor of crowning the 2007 queen, Senior Brittany Stevens. Each class was represented in the ceremony before the Gophers went on to finish off the Tri-Central team.

Duke Of Court

On September 20th, 2007, the Lady Gophers took on big county rival, the Frankfort Hot Dogs, on the night of Duke of Court. The crowning took place after the JV game and before the varsity game. During the break, senior German Luna was named Duke of Court 2007. CP's Science Club took charge of Duke of Court this year, which was the 20th year anniversary for the club to be in charge of Duke of Court ceremonies. The varsity went on to defeat the Blue and White in five games, making the night an overall success for everyone.

This year's dance was called a winter dance instead of being named a Christmas dance due to a postponement because of bad weather. The dance was once again sponsored by the wonderful Student Council. The theme of this year's dance was "Once Upon a Dream." Held on a chilly, windy night on January 5, 2008, the dance was filled with excitement, and it looked as though everyone there was having a great time. The dance was held in our very own cafeteria, and the music was brought to us by the well-known math teacher Mr. Greg Buschman. The royalty for the night were seniors Kayla Bennett and Shawn Walker. They were all smiles when the humorous Mr. Scott announced their names. The dance was a night full of dancing and fun for all who attended.

The dance floor goes crazy when the new hit song "Soulja Boy" comes on. This song was a huge hit and many knew the dance. Above: In the middle of the dance floor, a group dances to the song they all know.

On the night of January 11, 2008, Clinton Prairie's basketball team hosted the Clinton Central Bulldogs. According to Coach Ulrich, "This was a very exciting game! Clinton Central built a lead early in the first half, but the Gophers came storming back in the second half." At halftime of the variety game, the Hardwood Court took the floor. Senior Chelsea McKinsey was crowned queen as the crowd looked on. Unfortunately, though, the Gopher rally fell just short, as the variety lost by two points.

Is junior high what you expected it to be? Why or why not?

Chanda Brown: "Yes, it's what I thought it would be. Like I figured, we would have a lot of homework and more tests. You do have more homework in junior high, but I think you have more freedom and responsibility."

Tyler Clear: "Yes, the homework is harder, just like it is when going from fifth grade to sixth grade. Also, it is fun, which I heard from older kids."

Is junior high what you expected it to be? Why or why not?

Tabetha Shelly: "No, I thought it would be a lot harder. I don't have as much homework. I have more responsibilities, but as long as I take them one at a time, it's easier. I love the freedom of being able to feel mature and not having somebody hovering over your shoulder all the time."

Sports!

FRIDAY NIGHT LIGHTS

The football team had a great season made by talented young men. The team worked hard in the off-season and in practice, and it all paid off in a very successful 8-3 season. Some of the many highlights, according to coach, Shaun Wines, were beating Frontier in the first game, winning Homecoming, the Halo/Madden parties, the big second half against Lapel, and the big win against Park Tudor in sectionals. The team was led by some extraordinary seniors. Nick Seager broke three school records, led the team in tackles, rushing and touchdowns. Shawn Walker tied the school record for touchdown passes in the season. Justin Brewer was the dominant player on both offensive line and as a linebacker. Jacob Gick broke the school record for most sacks in a season. Slayd Schimmel from the JV team led in rushing and touchdowns, while Jacob Endsley led the team in tackles. Some of the JV highlights were playing Carroll to a tie, at Carroll, and the team improving immensely as the season progressed. Coach Haid and all of the other coaches were very proud of these young men who worked hard during the season.

MRS. CAROL TRAVIS

Media Specialist Carol Travis retired at the end of the 2007-2008 school year, following twenty-six and a half years at Clinton Prairie. Seven and a half of those years were spent as a library aide, while the other nineteen saw Mrs. Travis at the head of the library at CPHS. Mrs. Travis, who earned her degree at Indiana University, claimed that her most memorable experience in her years at CP would have to be watching her two children graduate. She especially liked the small size of our school and the ability to interact with the students and staff in a safe, friendly environment. Mrs. Travis found it especially rewarding to hear one student say to another, "This was a really good book. You should read it." As for her own reading interests, Mrs. Travis likes "anything by Agatha Christie."

Upon retirement, Mrs. Travis was planning to leave on an Alaskan cruise to celebrate her fortieth wedding anniversary with her husband. She was also looking forward to taking life easy, sleeping late, making quilts, visiting her children more often, and traveling with her husband, who will retire in another year. Mrs. Travis had this advice for her successor in the media center at CPHS: "Keep up with all the new educational technologies, and work with all the departments to provide the educational materials they will need." Mrs. Travis's contributions to Clinton Prairie will be appreciated long after she leaves us.

CPHS Administrators- taking care of business

Wow! Being a senior is something that no one can wait for, but it's something that I don't want to end. Being a part of the yearbook staff for two years has been a great amount of fun. Now as my classmates and I move on with our lives, we will be searching for our true identities. We now leave this small-town school and enter the large world we are now a part of. I wish all my classmates the best of luck with all that they do. This year's staff has been amazing and has given me so many memories I will never forget.

Mrs. Sabens- I would like to start by thanking you. You never gave up on me. I'm so happy that I had the opportunity to spend the last two years with you. You're a lot of fun, and you care so much about the yearbook. If it wasn't for you, the yearbook would never get done.

Kayla- You brought a lot to the yearbook. You have a great sense of creativity. I wish you the best of luck next year with yearbook. I hope your senior year is exciting, and remember to always make time to have fun!

Jac- Wow! You're hilarious. I think you might just be the funniest person I have ever met. The last two years in yearbook have been a blast. I wish you the best of luck with all you do in the future. Live life to the fullest. I hope you are successful and go far.

Nate- We are done with high school. It's so hard for me to think about, let alone believe. The last thirteen years of school with you have been fun. I know you will achieve all your dreams and go far in life. You are a very hard worker, and I know you have the willpower to do anything you want. I'll never forget all the great jokes we have shared. You brought so much humor to the staff. Thanks for being fun, and good luck with all your future plans.

Jacob- We have gotten so close this year. I hope that your senior year goes by as well as mine did. Don't forget to take time to have fun and make memories. We have some pretty hilarious memories, and I don't think I could forget you even if I tried. You're a hard worker, and I know you will make it big. Good luck with all you do. Also thanks for always being there for me. You not only have been someone great to talk to; you have become one of my best friends. Thank you. I'll miss you a ton.

Angma- I have been dreading this day to come. Now it's here, which means I'm almost done. Wow. It's gone by so fast, and it's been a blast. You have taught me more about myself than I even knew. You have become my best friend. I never thought that I would find a true best friend my last year of high school, but I did. You have made my senior year amazing, and it wouldn't have been the same without you. I hope you achieve all your dreams. I know you will go far, and I hope you stay in touch. I want you to know that I'll never forget you. Thanks for not only making my senior year awesome but for becoming my best friend. Good luck in all you do. Have a great senior year. I love you!
