You have the right to vote:
- in a fair and fair election.
- in an election on the same day as other elections, in a voting booth that is free from any unauthorized materials.

In an election on the same day as other elections, you must:
- You are a U.S. Citizen, AND
- You are at least 18 years old at the time of election, AND
- You are not in prison or being criminally convicted on a minor federal crime.

If your name does not appear on the poll list, you are still allowed to vote:
- You have the right to vote.

More Fail-Safe Procedures:
- If your name is on the poll list but the name or address listed does not match your current name or address, you may still qualify to vote if one of the following fail-safe procedures is followed:
  1. Move within the precinct - If your name is on the poll list but you have moved within the same city, town or village, you may vote a regular ballot if you sign the poll book with the new address or if an electronic poll book is used, sign an affidavit provided by the poll worker.
  2. Move within the State of Indiana less than 30 days before the election - If you moved to another precinct in Indiana less than 30 days before the election, you may vote a regular ballot if you sign the poll book with the new address or if an electronic poll book is used.
  3. Move out of the State of Indiana less than 30 days before the election - You may not vote a regular ballot if you moved from Indiana to another new residence outside of Indiana less than 30 days before Election Day. You may vote at your old precinct one last time, by signing an affidavit provided by local election officials.

Provisional Ballots:
- There are several situations in which you may be required to cast a provisional ballot if you have questions:
  1. You lack the required photo identification.
  2. You name appears on the roll but you have been challenged as not eligible to vote in the precinct for some other reason or reasons.
  3. An order has been issued by a court extending the hours that the polls must remain open.
  4. Your provisional ballot will be kept separate from the other ballots cast in your precinct.
  5. Your provisional ballot will be cast by a candidate or political party.
  6. Your provisional ballot will be cast by an affiliate of any political party.
  7. Your provisional ballot will be cast by an individual whose name does not appear on the roll.

Other Voter Protections:
- Voters Needing Assistance:
  - A voter may cast their vote in the voting booth only if:
    - You have a disability (permanent or temporary) or are unable to read or write.
   - Before entering the voting booth, you request assistance.
   - If requested, the following provisions apply to assist a voter:
     - The voter may designate anyone to assist the voter (e.g., a relative or friend).
     - The voter may designate the voter registration officer to act as the assistant.
     - The voting booth assistor must not be the person assisting the voter.
     - The voter must be present to vote.

- If you have been challenged or if you have any questions, you must report the challenge to the county election board.
- The challenge will be determined by a court.
- If the challenge is not ruled in your favor, you may still vote.

- Accessible Polls: You have the right to a polling place that is accessible to a person with disabilities.
