You have the right to vote:
- privately and independently, in a voting booth that is free from observation by election officials;
- in an Indiana election, if;
  - you are a U.S. citizen; AND
  - you are a resident of Indiana; AND
  - you are not registered to vote under the Next General Election, November 8, 2022; AND
  - you are not the subject of an arrest warrant; AND
  - you have not been convicted of a crime; AND
  - you have lived in the precinct where you vote for at least 30 days prior to your voting.

More Fail-Safe Procedures:

If your name is on the voter registration list and does not match your current name or address, you may still qualify to vote if one of the following fail-safe procedures is followed:

1. Moved within the precinct - If your name is on the poll list but you have moved within the same precinct, you may vote a regular ballot if you sign the affidavit of voter assistance at the polls (PRE-3 FORM or PRO-3 FORM). If you are a U.S. citizen, you must mark a provisional ballot privately, unless you are a 1. registered voter in the same precinct; 2. available to assist the voter; 3. registered voter of the same political party; or 4. affiliated with the party listed on the envelope provided for this purpose (Form PRO-3 FORM).

2. Moved outside of the state of Indiana since November 8, 2022: You must vote a provisional ballot if you are a U.S. citizen and are not able to vote in the Indiana election because the county has issued a new voter registration for you. You must mark a provisional ballot privately, unless you are a registered voter of the same political party or affiliated with the party listed on the envelope provided for this purpose (Form PRO-3 FORM).

3. Mailed ballots: If you vote by mail and mail your ballot to the wrong precinct, you must return the sealed envelope, with the ballot inside, to the inspector. You enclose the provisional ballot inside a provisional ballot secrecy envelope. You must mark the provisional ballot privately, unless you are a registered voter of the same political party or affiliated with the party listed on the envelope provided for this purpose (Form PRO-3 FORM).

4. Mailed ballots: If you vote by mail and mail your ballot to the wrong precinct, you must return the sealed envelope, with the ballot inside, to the inspector. You enclose the provisional ballot inside a provisional ballot secrecy envelope. You must mark the provisional ballot privately, unless you are a registered voter of the same political party or affiliated with the party listed on the envelope provided for this purpose (Form PRO-3 FORM).

5. Mailed ballots: If you vote by mail and mail your ballot to the wrong precinct, you must return the sealed envelope, with the ballot inside, to the inspector. You enclose the provisional ballot inside a provisional ballot secrecy envelope. You must mark the provisional ballot privately, unless you are a registered voter of the same political party or affiliated with the party listed on the envelope provided for this purpose (Form PRO-3 FORM).

6. Mailed ballots: If you vote by mail and mail your ballot to the wrong precinct, you must return the sealed envelope, with the ballot inside, to the inspector. You enclose the provisional ballot inside a provisional ballot secrecy envelope. You must mark the provisional ballot privately, unless you are a registered voter of the same political party or affiliated with the party listed on the envelope provided for this purpose (Form PRO-3 FORM).

7. Mailed ballots: If you vote by mail and mail your ballot to the wrong precinct, you must return the sealed envelope, with the ballot inside, to the inspector. You enclose the provisional ballot inside a provisional ballot secrecy envelope. You must mark the provisional ballot privately, unless you are a registered voter of the same political party or affiliated with the party listed on the envelope provided for this purpose (Form PRO-3 FORM).

8. Mailed ballots: If you vote by mail and mail your ballot to the wrong precinct, you must return the sealed envelope, with the ballot inside, to the inspector. You enclose the provisional ballot inside a provisional ballot secrecy envelope. You must mark the provisional ballot privately, unless you are a registered voter of the same political party or affiliated with the party listed on the envelope provided for this purpose (Form PRO-3 FORM).

9. Mailed ballots: If you vote by mail and mail your ballot to the wrong precinct, you must return the sealed envelope, with the ballot inside, to the inspector. You enclose the provisional ballot inside a provisional ballot secrecy envelope. You must mark the provisional ballot privately, unless you are a registered voter of the same political party or affiliated with the party listed on the envelope provided for this purpose (Form PRO-3 FORM).