CHAIRMAN OKESON: We'll recognize a quorum and call the meeting to order. This is the meeting of the Indiana Election Commission. The following commission members, as I just identified, are present: Myself, Chair Paul Okeson; Vice Chairman Anthony Long; Commission Member Suzannah Wilson Overholt; and Commission Member Zachary Klutz.

We have the Indiana Election Division staff of Andrew Lang, sitting in on behalf of Brad King and Valerie Warycha, and Co-Director Angie Nussmeyer and Co-Counsel Matthew Kochevar.

We have our court reporter, Maria Collier, from Stewart Richardson Deposition Services.

And this meeting is being conducted remotely, as you can all tell, via authority provided by an executive order, 20-04, which was signed by Governor Holcomb on March 16, 2020, and subsequently extended.

I don't know if any of you heard before we got started, I checked off with the court reporter, and as we speak as commission members, if you can just identify yourself -- what in the world?

(A member of the public displayed a sexually explicit image and was promptly removed from the meeting.)
CHAIRMAN OKESON: What is going on?

MR. KLUTZ: Were we just hacked?

MS. PATTERSON: A public member logged on and did that. I removed them as fast as I could.

CHAIRMAN OKESON: Okay. That was sufficiently disturbing.

VICE CHAIRMAN LONG: I hope it's not a harbinger.

CHAIRMAN OKESON: I can say that's a first.

So as I was saying, I was talking to the court reporter. As we begin the meeting and we identify ourselves, even as commission members, if you can just signal who you are. There's a little bit of lag time there, and to get the record correct, if you can just state this is Commissioner Overholt or this is Commissioner Long and so forth so she can keep track of that, that would be extremely helpful.

Unfortunately, as we just found out, this is a public meeting open to everyone, so we will try and keep all nonparticipating parties muted so that there's no background noise that interferes with the progress of the meeting.

I'd like to take a moment to just make a quick opening statement, and I'll ask my counterpart, Vice Chairman Long, if he'd like to do the same, as we did last time.

But we're here today to approve an order that is the culmination of a lot of bipartisan negotiating and agreement and commitment, and I just, for one, want to continue to laud those efforts and just thank everyone involved. Both parties, both Chairman Hupfer and Chairman Zody, and members of the party and the Election Division staff have all really put in a lot of time -- Secretary Lawson personally, a lot of time to really get to a place where we can agree on this and give Hoosier voters a sense of confidence in how we're going to approach the election in June. And I think whatever we walk away with today, we should all be proud of the way we've conducted ourselves in that regard. I look forward to future opportunities to collaborate as well.

With that, Vice Chairman Long, if there's anything you'd like to say. If not, we'll move on.

VICE CHAIRMAN LONG: Mr. Chairman, I'd like to say that I agree with you completely. We've had and observed a lot of negotiations. This approach has been extremely courteous. They've had many interchanges, we've discussed ideas, and I think it's a classic example of what happens when people who may disagree philosophically on issues but don't become disagreeable, they're able to reach common ground, as we've done in this.

I think that not only the -- both staffs from the Election Division have been tireless in their work, far more than people will ever recognize, as to the number of drafts and thoughts and research and discussions that they've had with us. I want to laud the Secretary of State and her office for participating in this and the chairmen of both our parties.

This has been a tiring exercise, but it's been one that I think has resulted in a good product that we can all live with, recognizing that neither side has gotten all they wanted. But if all of our government units could operate the way this operation has in this situation, I think we'd be a lot further down the road to success in our state and party today.

So I'm proud to be a part of this, and I applaud you, Mr. Chairman, for the open way that you've conducted yourself during this and look forward to continue working with you.

CHAIRMAN OKEMON: Thank you, Vice Chairman.
With that, we'll continue on with the agenda. As a matter of course, I'd like documentation of the meeting notice. Request the Election Division staff confirm that proper notice of this commission meeting has been established.

MR. LANG: I can confirm that.

CHAIRMAN OKESON: Co-Director Nussmeyer?

(No response.)

CHAIRMAN OKESON: I see she's on mute.

Without any objection, we'll recognize that as proper notice.

Moving on, we will deal with Order 2020-40. The Election Commission is meeting today to discuss an order that would provide further guidance to ensure the June 2, 2020, primary election will be conducted in the most orderly and accessible fashion and safe fashion possible based on the facts as we understand them today.

I move to adopt Order 2020-40, which has been posted on the Election Commission's web page for public scrutiny and review, which -- and, excuse me, on the Secretary of State's site as well and has been previously distributed to all the commission members. For purposes of discussion, is there a second to my motion?
MR. KLUTZ: So moved.

CHAIRMAN OKESON: I recognize Commissioner Klutz with a second.

This order will address several issues arising out of the Governor's order to suspend the statute setting the date of the primary as May 5, 2020, and rescheduling that election to June 2, 2020, as well as Election Commission Order 2020-37, which was adopted by this body on March 25, 2020. Today we consider Order 2020-40 to further address the following subjects related to the rescheduled primary election, and I will read these summaries aloud.

Section 1 readopts Order 2020-37 for an additional 30 days, so it is now set to expire May 24, 2020.

Section 2 allows any voter registered in Indiana to be nominated to serve as a poll worker if they are otherwise qualified to serve.

Section 3 advises that all public buildings that are statutorily mandated be available for a designation as a polling location for the primary election.

Section 4 states the Election Division will provide training and guidelines to counties regarding best health practices.

Section 5 advises counties that they do not have "home rule" authority when conducting elections.

Section 6 provides early in-person voting begin Tuesday, May 26, 2020, and end at noon, on the prevailing local time, on Monday, June 1, 2020.

Section 7 provides a county election board can adjust central count for absentee ballots to at least one and not more than three locations, so long as one location is provided for every 50,000 active voters. Furthermore, it provides any absentee ballots submitted without excuse between December 2, 2019, and not later than 11:59, Thursday, May 21, 2020, shall be accepted.

Section 8 provides vote center counties can alter voting locations after giving notice to voters and amending their vote center plan. There must be at least one vote center per 25,000 active voters calculated as of the May 4, 2020, voter registration deadline.

In precinct-based counties, the location of a polling place can be altered after notice is given. Additionally, county election boards are provided the opportunity to agree to locate the polls for a precinct at the polls for an adjoining precinct. Furthermore, a county election board or board of elections and registration in a non-vote center county can establish additional earlier in-person voting locations.

Section 9 states that a county election board may notify a voter of a defective absentee ballot application or security envelope in order to provide the voter an opportunity to cure that.

Section 10 provides the Election Commission will hold a public hearing on April 22, 2020, to consider the methods and procedures necessary to implement a vote-by-mail election for the June 2, 2020, primary election should the public health disaster emergency require such a change in election procedures.

At this hearing, pertinent matters related to state party conventions will also be covered. Furthermore, the Election Commission commits to holding an additional meeting in the month of May, prior to May 24, 2020, to consider an extension of Orders IEC 2020-37 and 2020-40, this order.

Section 11, this order is effective immediately upon passage.

I now recognize any members for discussion.
VICE CHAIRMAN LONG: Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN OKESON: Yes, sir.

VICE CHAIRMAN LONG: I think you've adequately summarized this. I believe in our opening statements we recognized the success of the negotiations that's brought us to this point. I think that we brought forth standards that will be utilized and that we can do this in as safe a manner as possible and living up to our commitment to encourage absentee by-mail voting whenever possible for a multitude of reasons. And for that reason, I think this, as it's structured, is in the best interest of the State, and I intend to vote for it.

CHAIRMAN OKESON: Thank you, sir.

Any other comment?

MR. KLUTZ: None from me, Mr. Chairman.

MS. OVERHOLT: Not from me either, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN OKESON: So since we're doing this meeting via Zoom, I'll go ahead and just do this vote on this motion by roll call, if we can do it that way. Those in favor say "aye."

Vice Chairman Long?

VICE CHAIRMAN LONG: Aye.
CHAIRMAN OKESON: Commissioner Klutz?

MR. KLUTZ: Aye.

CHAIRMAN OKESON: Commissioner Overholt?

MS. OVERHOLT: Aye.

CHAIRMAN OKESON: The motion passes 4-0. The "ayes" have it, and the order is adopted.

I need consent from the commission members for the Election Division staff to sign this order with the signature stamps.

VICE CHAIRMAN LONG: I give my consent.

MR. KLUTZ: I give my consent as well.

MS. OVERHOLT: I give my consent as well.

CHAIRMAN OKESON: And I concur. So we'll see to it that is completed.

Do I understand that there's some other orders of business that need to be entertained before we adjourn?

VICE CHAIRMAN LONG: If we could very briefly, Mr. Chairman, we have passed a resolution today, an order, which encompasses two future meetings at least of our body. We have proposed and would like to propose some amendments that we can offer and summarize them. We would ask that, as we propose them, that they be published on the screen so that those in attendance can see what the content is and that they would later be posted on the website for the division at least for perusal, to the extent anyone would want, for future consideration. And with your lead, we will start doing that and so we can do this as quickly as we can, which I don't think will take very long.

We would propose Amendment No. 1 to this order, a new paragraph D to Section 8. What this does and in summary form allows the county election board, if they unanimously agree, to petition the commissioner for relief under Section 8, the vote center plan, if it becomes unworkable within their county for any reason, and it provides a safety measure or stopgap measure that they could come forward for relief if such would happen. We would propose that to the commission at this point.

MS. OVERHOLT: And Amendment No. 2 would extend the deadline for requesting an absentee ballot by mail from 12 days before -- from 12 days to eight days before election day to give voters more time to apply for an absentee ballot. And this is consistent with the request that the respective state party chairs made to the Indiana
Election Commission in their letter of March 13, 2020.
This would -- the purpose of this amendment is to essentially recognize that the Postal Service may slow down -- the mails may slow through the Postal Service as a result of the pandemic and also allows greater flexibility in response to the current public health emergency.

VICE CHAIRMAN LONG: Mr. Chairman, we would propose Amendment No. 3. And 3 and 4, I would propose them both together or simultaneously, but one is an alternate to the other. Amendment No. 3, simply stated, extends the deadline for receiving of ballots, absentee ballots, until noon three days postelection, which would be Friday.

We have considered the issue, and some of the issues in other states that have dealt with this issue where postmarks were involved, we have discovered in our research and investigation the postmark issue, we don't believe, is viably available in Indiana because, as we understand, mass mailing or bulk mailing permits, they are sent out and returned with no postmark on them and would exclude any that the post office would inadvertently not date stamp by omission of their canceling equipment.

And as an alternative to that, Amendment No. 4 allows for the receipt of absent ballots during normal vote hours on election day. Basically the rule that we've passed, the order that we've passed, allow them to be delivered, where this amendment would propose, as an alternate to No. 3, that as long as they are delivered to the county election board designated spot before the end of voting on the election day, that they would be acceptable and would be counted or may be counted as the voter would be otherwise qualified.

   MS. OVERHOLT: And Amendment 5 would give voters the opportunity to engage in -- well, during the in-person absentee voting period, would allow voters to vote via, for lack of a better term, curbside voting from their vehicles to a spot obviously designated. This would be in a designated area but would allow for the curbside voting, which is another mechanism to allow voters concerned about social distancing to be able to practice safe social distancing by voting from their vehicle.

   Amendment 6 would require the Secretary of State and the Election Division to either mail an absentee ballot application to each registered voter in the state or to send a postcard to each household with a registered voter with information on how to use the absentee ballot application portal on the Secretary of State's website. And this is intended to encourage as much by-mail voting for the primary election, which is consistent with the current CDC guidance as to the conduct of elections.

VICE CHAIRMAN LONG: That concludes the offers of proposed amendments for the commission to consider, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN OKESON: So permit me to make some comments, if you will. As we opened this meeting, we talked about how both sides had worked collaboratively together to get to the order we just passed. And my understanding is that much, if not all, of what's embodied in these amendments that you're offering were part of those negotiations. Correct?

VICE CHAIRMAN LONG: They were.

CHAIRMAN OKESON: And yet we came to some agreement and passed an order that did not contain the information that you're proposing in those amendments, which, forgive me, seems a bit disingenuous. So I'd maybe like a reaction from you as to how that came to be.
VICE CHAIRMAN LONG: The issue, in my mind in any event, has been -- and I'm not saying it's exclusively up to me or to my party -- has been that the public safety of the voters and the public safety and health concerns of the people that are going to have to conduct the election in our area, that this is such a critical issue because most of the poll workers -- and I have to assume they're similarly situated around the state -- are older people that are in a higher risk category, such as I am, or have health conditions, such as I do, and that we're doing our best to try to make the availability of mail-in voting more viable or published or publicized and utilized.

We're not asking and we in no way mean to denigrate the order that we have passed. We just would like to offer the amendments to you, have them considered, and that they would be a part of the record of our commission so that, as we go forward, we may continue to discuss and debate these issues.

And I would also say that there were a number of issues and we recognize that there were a number of issues that, Mr. Chairman, your negotiators in your party made concessions in and that we in no way intended this to be disingenuous to the process, but merely to keep on the table for discussion issues that we think are important going into the future.

CHAIRMAN OKESON: Well, I thank you for that.
You know, this obviously puts a challenge for me.
All the hard work that's gone into the order that we just passed and Chairman Zody and Chairman Hupfer and Secretary of State Connie Lawson have all -- the Election Division staff on both sides of the aisle worked diligently and exceedingly well on behalf of voters and taxpayers in Indiana to produce the order we just passed. So I will tell you that, if a motion is made, I will vote no on all of these amendments.

VICE CHAIRMAN LONG: I would so move that they be considered and respect your vote and respect and receive your comments in the spirit in which they were offered.

CHAIRMAN OKESON: So I have a motion. Is there a second?

MS. OVERHOLT: Second.

CHAIRMAN OKESON: Any further discussion?

VICE CHAIRMAN LONG: I have none.

CHAIRMAN OKESON: Hearing no other, we'll do a roll call vote.

Vice Chairman Long?

VICE CHAIRMAN LONG: Aye.

CHAIRMAN OKESON: Commissioner Klutz?

MR. KLUTZ: No.

CHAIRMAN OKESON: Commissioner Overholt?

MS. OVERHOLT: Aye.

CHAIRMAN OKESON: As I stated earlier, I will vote no.

The motion fails. I would conclude -- or before we conclude here, I would say that having these items being brought up, it causes me to question in my mind the need for a meeting on the 22nd. So I will take that back and have some further discussions with all parties, but it seems in many ways to have preempted the need for that meeting.

With that, I'll say the Election Commission has finished its business for the day. Is there a motion for the commission to adjourn?

VICE CHAIRMAN LONG: Mr. Chairman, I would tell you that I believe -- I intend to make a motion to adjourn, but in response to your last comment, I believe the order of the commission that has been unanimously passed has called this meeting, and I believe that the April 22nd meeting and the one before May 24th are established and cannot be unilaterally vacated without the unanimous consent of the commission.

But with that comment, I would move that we adjourn our meeting.

CHAIRMAN OKESON: We'll see to that.
I have a motion to adjourn. All those in favor?

MR. KLUTZ: Aye.
VICE CHAIRMAN LONG: Aye.
MS. OVERHOLT: Aye.
CHAIRMAN OKESON: Hearing none opposed, the meeting is adjourned. Thank you.

VICE CHAIRMAN LONG: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.
Thank you, Zach and Suzannah and staff and Maria.
Good job.

CHAIRMAN OKESON: Yes. Thank you. Thank you all. Have a good rest of the day and a good weekend, if you can manage that.

VICE CHAIRMAN LONG: That's social distancing.
I thought about wearing my mask today, but I didn't think that the virus could get through our electronics.

CHAIRMAN OKESON: Well, as much as I disagreed with your amendments, it was certainly the right image to end on compared to what we started with. So with that, I'll bid you a good weekend.
