If your name does not appear on the poll list, you are still allowed to vote.

Using a Direct Record Electronic Voting Machine:

1. You have the right to vote:

   • privately and independently, in a voting booth that is free from public observation and for which the time of your vote will not be recorded.
   • in an Indiana election, if:
     - You are a U.S. citizen.
     - You are a resident of Indiana.
     - Your name is on the poll list for the next General Election, November 7, 2023.
     - You sign the poll list verifying that you have not been convicted of a crime.
     - You have lived in the precinct where you vote for at least 30 days
   • You are registered to vote.

Indiana’s Photo ID Law:

You must present an Indiana-issued photo ID to verify your identity before signing the poll list and casting a ballot. The government must meet the following requirements to qualify as a valid ID:

1. The name of the individual to whom the document was issued (The name on the photo ID must conform— but not necessarily be identical—to the name on the individual’s voter registration record), AND
2. Show the name of the individual to whom the document was issued, AND
3. Except for the following federal, military, veteran, or tribal documents, include an expiration date that shows the document will not expire, or (b) expired after November 8, 2023, AND
4. Be issued by the State of Indiana or the U.S. Government.

If you are unable or decline to present the photo ID:

• You must sign an affidavit stating that you are who you say you are.
• Alternatively, you must sign an affidavit that you could not obtain a photo ID because of an error by the county, then the county must issue a Certificate of Error.

After accepting a challenged voter’s affidavit, printed on the ballot security envelope (PRE-4 FORM and PRE2-3 FORM), you must:

1. Mark your ballot
2. Issue a provisional ballot
3. Cast the ballot

Casting a Ballot:

Using a Paper Ballot:

If you are using a paper ballot for an election or using a paper ballot during a primary election, you should:

1. Check your ballot to ensure that it has the initials of both poll clerks.
2. Make a voting mark (X or blank) in the circle or square to indicate the candidate or political party ticket for whom you wish to vote in the general election. If you vote for a write-in candidate, be sure to indicate the name of the candidate on the appropriate location on the ballot. If you make a mistake, you should request a replacement ballot from the clerk.
3. Fold the ballot so that your choices are secret and so that the initials of the poll clerks are visible.
4. Deposit the paper ballot in the ballot box.

Using an Optical Scan Ballot:

1. Check your ballot to ensure it has the initials of both poll clerks.
2. Use the pen or pencil to shade in the oval, circle, or square (as correct for your election) to indicate the name of the candidate or political party ticket for which you wish to vote; or use a ballot marking device.
3. If you vote for a write-in candidate in the general election, clearly print or write the name of the candidate on the appropriate location on the ballot. If you make a mistake request a replacement ballot from the clerk.
4. Check your ballot to ensure that you have completely shaded in all the candidates or positions for which you wish to vote.
5. Feed your ballot through the scanner, or place your ballot in the ballot box or direct the judge to deposit your ballot for you.

Using a Direct Record Electronic Voting Machine:

1. Touch the indicated location on the screen to vote for the candidate or in a general election, the political party ticket for whom you wish to vote. If you vote for a write-in candidate in the general election, you must designate the vote for the write-in candidate on the appropriate location on the ballot. If you make a mistake request a replacement ballot from the clerk.
2. Check to make certain that you have reviewed all the races on the ballot and have selected a candidate for each of the races for which you wish to do so.
3. Touch the indicated location on the screen to cast the ballot.
4. If you require the audio enabled features of the machine, please ask BTC judges to assist you with activating these features.

Fail-Safe Procedures:

If your name does not appear on the poll list, you are still allowed to vote.

More Fail-Safe Procedures:

If your name is on the poll list but the name or address listed does not match your current name or address, you may still qualify to vote in one of the following fail-safe procedures:

1. Moved within the precinct - If your name is on the poll list but you have moved within the same precinct, you may vote a regular ballot if you sign the poll list or if an electronic poll book is used, signing an affidavit provided by election officials.
2. Name Changed - If your name is on the poll list but has changed (due to marriage, divorce, adoption), you may vote a regular ballot if you sign the poll list, or if an electronic poll book is used, signing an affidavit provided by election officials.
3. Moved but still live in the same county and congressional district: - If you were registered to vote in the same county and congressional district regardless of when you moved, you may vote a regular ballot if you sign the poll list or if an electronic poll book is used, signing a new affidavit provided by election officials after proving your eligibility to vote in the general election.
4. Moved within the State of Indiana less than 30 days before the election - If you moved to another precinct in Indiana less than 30 days before the election, but have stayed in your old precinct; last time, by signing an affidavit provided by election officials. Should you have questions related to school matters, if applicable, would not be included on the ballot.
5. Moved outside the State of Indiana less than 30 days before a presidential election - If you moved from an Indiana precinct to a new residence outside of Indiana less than 30 days before Election Day, you may vote at your old precinct last time by signing an affidavit provided by local election officials. However, you will only be able to cast a ballot for president and vice president.

County election boards may issue you a provisional ballot if:

• Your registration is not recorded in the voter’s old precinct last time out or for any other reason.

Provisional Ballots:

What is a provisional ballot?

• There are several situations in which you may be required to cast a provisional ballot to follow state or federal law.
• You lack the proper photo identification.
• You lack the proper ID before signing the poll list and casting a ballot. The information on your receipt is recorded on the poll list and cast a ballot.
• An election official determines that you applied to register while the election judges (or judges) that you still live at the same address, then you may cast a regular ballot; however, any vote for that particular office will not be counted; however, any vote, regardless of the office, will be counted for any candidate for any office listed under any party ticket. Please follow instructions under the Special Ballot section above if you require a replacement ballot before casting your ballot.

Mail-in Registrants and First-Time Voters:

• If you submitted an application to register to vote by mail after January 1, 2003, and January 1, 2003, and you have not previously voted in the county, you must provide additional residence documentation to the county voter registration office prior to voting to verify your residence.
• If you submitted an application to register to vote by mail after January 1, 2003, and have not previously voted in Indiana, you must provide additional residence documentation to the county voter registration office prior to voting to verify your residence.

The identification documentation required may be either (1) a current and valid photo identification or (2) a current utility bill, bank statement, government check, paycheck, or other government document that shows your name and address (at the address shown on the your registration).

Identification documents may be submitted in the mail with the registration application, to present at the county voter registration office, or at the polls, but not later than the close of polls on Election Day.

The additional documentation requirement does not apply to an absentee unfilled service voter or overseas voter or an individual entitled to vote an absentee ballot under federal law due to a determination by the election determination that a permanent or temporarily unaccompanied military voter is an election, for any person registered under federal law.

You have the right to free and fair elections:

Vote Fraud:

• You must not vote more than once in any election (please note that you will be considered to have voted a receipt, in the county, if you cast a provisional ballot, in the same precinct, on the same day at the same place). If you cast a provisional ballot, you have until noon, 10 days after the election to follow up with the county election board and either provide the required documentation or request a replacement ballot.

• You must not cast or attempt to cast a ballot that has been stolen, fraudulently, or falsely, or illegally, or without the knowledge or consent of the voter. The county must issue a Certificate of Error if the following are found:

- You may not make any false statement of claim that you are a citizen of the United States of America.

- You must not vote unless you have the right to vote at the county, state, or local election.

- You must not vote on an election that is not authorized for voting.
- You must not make any statement of claim that you are a citizen of the United States of America.
- You must not vote unless you have the right to vote at the county, state, or local election.

Primary Elections:

- If you are affiliated with either the Indiana Democratic Party or the Republican Party, you are entitled to vote for candidates at that primary in each precinct where you vote, however, you may state party to which you are affiliated with to the polling workers for the party of that party. You may only vote for candidates in the party whose ballot you select.
- If you are not affiliated with either of these two parties, you are still entitled to vote at the primary election. However, you may select one of these two parties at the primary election, if you cast a ballot for the same day as the primary without answering a party ballot. However, you are not entitled to vote on a public question related to a school matter if you moved out of the school corporation but seek to use one of the fail-safe procedures to vote at your old precinct last time out.
