

H&R BLOCK

H&R Block is a service organization specializing in tax preparation. Besides being experts in tax law and preparation, they also counsel individuals and businesses on how to best approach life through taxes to minimize liability. With over 140 offices, across the State of Indiana, help is always close by. During the tax season our offices are generally open from 9am to 9pm. (January-April). During the offseason we still maintain limited office hours and by appointment is always available to meet the needs of State of Indiana employees.

Services being offered to State of Indiana employees:

Free tax planning guidance

Free W-4 guidance (most common mistake for surprises when completing taxes are from filling out or not updating W-4 as life changes)
