NEW BUSINESS

Ball Park – They are asking for the Town of Farmersburg to cover the utility cost for the ballpark to help them. Stating that the town does not contribute anything to help. Board has stated that the Town does not benefit anything from them and should not be responsible for their bills. The Town has provided the land for them to use, and they have a resolution on file stating The Ballpark is responsible for the upkeep and bills. No vote had taken place.

ADDITIONAL COMMENTS

Main Street Project – HWC has supplied a few questions for the board to make decisions on for the next meeting for the project. Seed or Sod for the grass areas? Board has decided on seed. Sidewalk going from road to main sidewalk, do we continue to keep those? Board has decided to make all sidewalks match. Presbyterian church sidewalk in the front of the church will be investigated and questioned if it needs to be so wide.

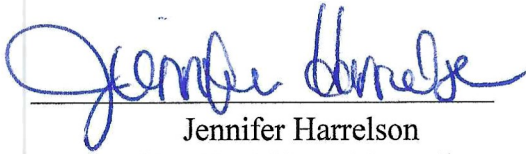

Bid for the sealing of concrete and ADA Markings – A bid was given to the board for this project to be discussed, no discussing took place and no decision would be made.

Vac Truck – Woodrow Power asked the residents at the meeting if they would like to voice their opinion on whether, we should sell the truck that we have and buy a small trailer with the vac and jetty system attached. Most all agreed to do so to save the town money in the future. Trenton Fennell has been asked to find the value of the Vac Truck to sell it for its worth.

Prison workers for the town clean up – The board has decided to reach out to the prison system to see about work release programs. Courtney Strain and Dan Tierney have volunteered the time to do the research on this program.

Wastewater Plant – The board brought up the open positions and the candidates that have applied for the positions. Clerk-Treasurer stated that this needs to be done in the Executive meeting for confidential information involved of applicants that have applied. Marshal also stated he would like to see about hiring a part time employee for the night shift. The crowd started to get upset about this and a board member stated that it needed to be shut down due to all the unwelcomed comments. The Clerk-Treasurer then asked for the meeting to be adjourned so that this could be discussed in the Executive meeting.

Meeting Adjourned at 8:36 pm, Courtney Strain gave motion, Jennifer Harrelson 2nd the motion, all in favor said Aye.
