NEW BUSINESS:

Motion to approve complete contract from Baker Tilly to assist with: Asset Management Planning, Sewer Rate Study, Bond Anticipation Note and Bond Issuance by Todd Fry; 2nd by Sam Levine. Motion carried unanimously.

Discussions on whether the Town should provide law enforcement with security camera access; developing a plan to handle residents that disallow access by the Town to water meters; and creating a chicken/rooster ordinance were deferred until the April 14, 2025 Council meeting.

County and Town planning to join “forces” was briefly discussed with no action taken. Future updates to be shared at the April 14, 2025 Council meeting.

Motion to adopt Resolution #2025-01- Signatory Authorization of State Revolving Fund Loan Program by Sunny Saylor Gordon; 2nd by Todd Fry. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion to adopt Resolution #2025-02 - Signatory Authorization of INDOT Agreements by Todd Fry; 2nd by Sam Levine. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion to approve Addendum to Memorandum of Understanding (NCIRPC) by Todd Fry; 2nd by Sunny Saylor Gordon. Motion carried unanimously.

AUDIENCE REMARKS AND QUESTIONS:

Bill Sanders 106 W Washington suggested that a flag pole and American flag be installed at Town Hall/Police Department.

Elizabeth Shephard 220 E Griffith voiced concern about the Town not keeping her updated on the plan to repair a sewer leak at her residence.

The Town Council and other Town participants discussed the above audience items as applicable, with no actions taken.

OLD BUSINESS:

Christmas Light Contract – the Clerk-Treasurer offered to secure quotes from the current contractor, while a search for other options continues by Town Council.

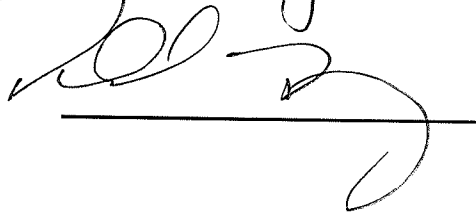

It was decided that additional research was needed to choose whether to establish a separate chicken/rooster ordinance or include that topic within the current “animal” ordinance via amendment.

Motion to adjourn by Todd Fry; 2nd by Sunny Saylor Gordon. Motion carried unanimously at 7:32 pm.
