D. Evaluating Employer- Factors for Approval, Notice of Denial or Termination

(1) In its sole discretion, the Board may decline to approve an application for self-insurance or terminate the self-insurance status if the employer is unable to demonstrate that it will be able to meet all obligations under the Acts, if it cannot supply security acceptable to the Board, or for failure to comply with the provisions of the Acts or Rules. The following factors may be used in determining if the employer can meet those obligations under the Acts.

If any commutation is effected, then the Board shall have the right to direct that such sum be placed in trust for the benefit of the injured employee(s) entitled to such future payments of compensation.

(d) Must state that, a self-insured employer becomes insolvent and is unable to make compensation payments, the excess carrier shall make, directly to claimants or their authorized representatives, such payments as would have been made by the excess carrier to the employer after it has been determined that the retention level has been reached on the excess contract.

(e) Shall contain language stating all of the following shall be applied toward achieving the retention level in the aggregate excess policy.

The applicant must be approved before the third-party administrator (herein after TPA) service company enters into a contract with an approved self-insurer. Approvals shall be granted for an indefinite period, subject to revocation at the discretion of the Board Chairman.

(3) If the TPA seeks approval to provide underwriting services to self-insurers, proof shall be furnished that it has within its organization, or has contracted on a full-time basis with, at least one person who has the knowledge and experience necessary to provide underwriting services for workers' compensation excess insurance coverage.

(4) TPA shall maintain adequate staff and the staff shall be authorized to act for the service company on all matters covered by the Acts and Rules.

The TPA shall handle all claims with dates of injury or disease within the contract period until their conclusion, unless the TPA is relieved of the responsibility by subsequent agreement, an approved substitute TPA or administration by the self-insured entity is approved by the Board.

(6) Failure to comply with the provisions of the Acts or Rules shall be considered good cause for revocation of the approval to act as a TPA for Indiana self-insurers. Thirty (30) days notice of revocation shall be given and notice shall be served by certified or registered mail upon the employer and TPA.

(7) If incorporated, the service company must show proof that it is duly authorized to do business within the State of Indiana.
