New Reciprocity Licensure for Additional Health Care Professionals beginning Monday, December 12, 2022

Indianapolis, IN – The Indiana Professional Licensing Agency (IPLA) is pleased to announce that additional health care professionals now have a new means to apply for licensure through reciprocity in the state of Indiana. This is the third and final phase of the IPLA’s rollout and implementation of licensure through reciprocity for health care professionals under the requirements of Indiana Code § 25-1-21.

Beginning Monday, December 12, 2022, this new reciprocity licensure will be available to the following professions/license types:

Board	Profession/License Type
Acupuncture Committee	Acupuncture Detox Specialist
Acupuncture Committee	Acupuncturist – DC
Acupuncture Committee	Acupuncturist – DDS
Acupuncture Committee	Acupuncturist – DPM
Acupuncture Committee	Licensed Acupuncturist
Athletic Trainer Board	Athletic Trainer
Dentistry Board	Dental Anesthesia Permit
Dentistry Board	Dental Hygiene Anesthesia Permit
Dentistry Board	Dental Hygienist
Dentistry Board	Dentist
Dentistry Board	CSR – Dentist
Health Facility Administrators Board	Health Facility Administrator
Health Facility Administrators Board	Residential Care Administrator
Hearing Aid Dealer Committee	Hearing Aid Dealer
Medical Licensing Board	Anesthesiologist Assistant

Eligible applicants seeking licensure through reciprocity for any of these professions/license types may apply for their official license as well as a provisional (temporary) license online at MyLicense.IN.gov. The online application is the only means to apply for licensure through this method at this time.

More specific guidance and directions for applying for licensure through this method is provided on the web pages designated to these professions on IPLA's website, under "Application Instructions." Questions may be directed to the IPLA's staff. Please visit the profession's designated web page for specific contact information.
